ILLUMINATE SPEAKER SERIES

BUILDING HEALTHY RURAL COMMUNITIES THROUGH PARTICIPATION

OCTOBER 2, 2019 · 3:30 - 4:30PM

Apotex Centre, Room 264 · 750 McDermot Ave. · Bannatyne Campus

Speaker: DR. NERIDA HYETT

Dr. Nerida Hyett is a lecturer and advisor in occupational therapy at the La Trobe Rural Health School of La Trobe University, the largest rural health school in Australia. She has expertise in participation-based research methods that involve consumer and community participation using co-design and co-production. Her teaching scholarship is interlinked, and is focused on how to develop allied health graduates cultural capabilities, which are critical for working with socially and culturally diverse communities including with First Nations peoples.