Student Input and Lines of Communication

An appointment can be made with any faculty member or the Head of Department to discuss issues of concern. It is important to note that a key premise within the College is for any problem or concern to be resolved at the lowest possible administrative level, i.e. faculty member, Department Head, Dean of CoRS, etc.

Discussion of University of Manitoba policies and CoRS guidelines, procedures or recommendations can occur through student representation on the following committees:

1. College of Rehabilitation Sciences Council: Membership includes 4 CoRS students one from each of the programs offered within the College (MOT, MPT, BRT, MSc Rehabilitation). Each College program shall elect its student representative annually.

2. College of Rehabilitation Sciences Executive Council: Membership includes 4 CoRS-SA students, one representing each of the programs offered within the College (MOT, MPT, BRT, MSc Rehabilitation) elected by and from the student members of the College Council, with a term of office of one Academic Year.

3. Advisory Committee on Learning Environment: Membership includes one student class representative per academic year per program of the entry-level programs.

4. OT, PT & RT Program Committees: Membership of the committee, which reviews matters pertaining to program policies and design, includes one representative from each class.

5. OT, PT & RT Curriculum Committees: Membership of the committee, which reviews matters pertaining to curriculum policies and design, includes one representative from each class.

6. Selection Committee: Membership of each department committee is selected from the student body in conjunction with the Chair of the Committee.

7. Program Evaluation Committee: Membership of the committee, which considers all matters pertaining to program review, includes one representative from each class.

8. Class Representatives: Each class has one or more class representatives. Responsibilities of the class representative are to act as a liaison between classmates, Instructors and the Department Head, and to meet with the Department Head on a regular basis.
