ERASMUS+ FUNDING - JEAN MONNET MODULE

A Jean Monnet Module is a short teaching programme (or course) in the field of European Union studies at a higher education institution. Modules may concentrate on one particular discipline in European studies or be multidisciplinary in approach and therefore call upon the academic input of several professors and experts.

DURATION: A Jean Monnet Module must be taught for a minimum of 40 hours per academic year (for three consecutive years) in the field of European Union studies at the applicant higher education institution.

AMOUNT: EUR 30,000 (Approximately CDN 44,500)

ACTIVITIES SUPPORTED UNDER THIS ACTION
Jean Monnet Modules must take one of the following forms:

- general or introductory courses on European Union issues (in particular at institutions and faculties that do not yet have a highly developed course offering in the field);
- specialised teaching on European Union developments (in particular at institutions and faculties that do already have a highly developed course offering in the field);
- summer and intensive courses that are fully recognised.

Teaching hours are taken to include direct contact hours in the context of group lectures, seminars, tutorials and may include any of the aforementioned in a distance learning format but do not include individual instruction.

ELIGIBILITY: A higher education institution (HEI) established in any country of the world. Individuals cannot apply directly for a grant.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Applicants submit their grant application by 23 February at 12:00 (midday Brussels time) for projects starting on 1 September of the same year.
