GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO ASSESSORS

1. Upon request, a blind version of this report will be copied and sent in full to the applicant. Accordingly, reports should be typed and should not include any personal identifying information.
2. Using the scale provided, rate each evaluation criterion with an "X". For each assessment, justify your evaluation in the space provided, detailing strengths and weaknesses. DO NOT LEAVE THESE SECTIONS BLANK AS YOUR COMMENTS ARE CRITICAL TO COMMITTEE MEMBERS IN OTHER DISCIPLINES.
3. In making your overall assessment of the application, please remember that the overriding factors are: (a) the scholarly significance of the conference, the role of the applicant at the conference and his/her potential to reflect outstanding Canadian scholarship; and (b) the achievements of the applicant, measured against the stage of his/her career and career patterns and responsibilities.
