

Assessment Grid for Tier 1 CRCs at the University of Manitoba

1. International/national leadership and impact of the researcher in the field as demonstrated by their accomplishments including, but not limited to: the publication of reviews/reports, book chapters, peer-reviewed papers, professional papers; refereed presentations; communication of research results across a wide variety of audiences; contributions to policies, laws, regulations, guidelines; peer recognition including awards, honours, editorial responsibilities; community services leveraging academic expertise; receipt of competitive research funding; support for traditional knowledge or Indigenous ways of knowing; advances to equity, diversity, inclusion and accessibility in the research ecosystem. 35 points
2. Superior record of and continued likelihood of attracting and supervising a pool of excellent and diverse trainees including graduate students and postdoctoral fellows in an inclusive research environment. 20 points
3. Demonstration of developing, directing, facilitating and/or strengthening research partnerships, collaborations, and collaborative teams within the university as well as at national and international levels. 15 points
4. Enhancing Equity, Diversity and Inclusion considerations at the Faculty and University levels, within their field/discipline/profession, within their teams/collaborations/partnerships, and within the Canadian research ecosystem. 15 points
5. Degree of alignment with the Faculty's and University's strategic research plans. 15 points

Total is 100 points.