

HENRY IRVINE GRAHAM UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP

CRITERIA: The major criterion for selecting the recipient will be a demonstration of how the student is 'well-rounded' and has overcome difficulties to realize their full potential. The student must:

- be a citizen or permanent resident of Canada;
- be entering the second year or later of undergraduate studies at the University of Manitoba with a minimum of 18 credit hours;
- be a member of St John's College;
- have demonstrated exceptional academic promise, diversity of interests, and potential for leadership;
- provide three letters of reference as follows: two from professors and one from a volunteer supervisor (a member of the clergy could be substituted for any of these). Letters should not be received from anyone related to the applicant. Reference letters must speak to the integrity and character of the student, how the student has overcome difficulties to get to where they are, how they are achieving or realizing their potential, and how they are 'well-rounded' and have demonstrated community service. Diversity of interests and leadership potential are essential criteria.

This scholarship may not be held concurrently with other scholarships totaling more than $500.
