FROM THE RECTOR

As Rector of St. Paul's College (SPC), I am pleased to present our Annual Report for the 2017-18 academic year. We have had a busy past year with many changes, including the retirement of Dr. Moti Shojania, who concluded her term as Dean of Studies, and who did much for our College, and the arrival of our new Dean of Studies, Dr. Dilantha Fernando.

This report provides an overview of the past year, as you will see, a year with many good things happening. Here are some highlights worth noting:

- In 2017/8, 985 University of Manitoba (U of M) students joined SPC, with a total of 237 SPC students graduating with their university degrees. This is 27 more than than last year and a new historical record for the College.
- Our students continue to use SPC as a springboard for launching successful careers. This includes 232 students in the Arts and Humanities, 210 in Sciences, and 94 in Business. Many of our students are also in Law, Medicine & Health Sciences, Engineering, Music, Education, etc.
- Our Catholic Studies B.A. minor program is the largest of its kind in Canada. A total of 286 students came from across campus to enroll in courses provided by the Jesuit Centre for Catholic Studies at SPC.
- The Joint MA with the University of Winnipeg and PhD program in Peace and Conflict Studies are thriving programs housed in the Arthur V. Mauro Centre for Peace and Justice. Many scholarships are provided to these students who now number over 80 and who come from throughout the world. These supporting funds from many generous donors are stewarded by the St. Paul's College Foundation.

- Our faculty continues to be drawn from a wide range of U of M departments, and consists of regular faculty Assembly members as well as numerous associate members, research fellows and scholars.

In creating this report, our College acknowledges tremendous support from the University of Manitoba's Office of Institutional Analysis and the Registrar's Office, with special thanks to Randy Roller, Wen Trask, and Shan Rogers. In addition, we appreciate the hard work of Randall Kinley, who coordinated the project, and Shawn Jordan who created and edited the report, while also managing its design, layout and print production. A big thanks also goes to those who helped proofread the various drafts prior to finalization.

We deeply appreciate the support we receive from our generous donors, alumni, volunteers, and the Archdiocese of Winnipeg, the University of Manitoba, and others across the broader community. We also appreciate all the good things our students, faculty and staff do each day to make this a great community within the larger University of Manitoba community!

MISSION AND VALUES

St. Paul College currently operates with the following Mission Statement:

“ST. PAUL’S, THE CATHOLIC COLLEGE IN THE IGNATIAN TRADITION AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA, SERVES THE CHURCH AND SOCIETY BY PROMOTING LEARNING, BOTH SECULAR AND SPIRITUAL, THROUGH EXCELLENCE IN RESEARCH, TEACHING, AND SERVICE.”

In addition to the College’s Mission Statement, at St. Paul’s College we value each person, the community, social justice, the search for truth by faith and reason, and ecumenical and inter-religious dialogue.

St. Paul’s College operates with the following goals and objectives:

1. To strengthen the Catholic Identity of the College.
2. To offer educational programs of the highest possible quality with a particular emphasis on programs and courses in Catholic thought.
3. To enhance student success by fostering an environment conducive to intellectual, personal, and spiritual growth.
4. To ensure the presence of qualified people in academic, governance and administrative positions who are committed to the development, communication and application of the Catholic intellectual tradition.
5. To enhance relations between the College and the Catholic community.
6. To secure the financial and physical resources necessary to support the programs and services of the College, particularly those that relate to its Catholic identity and mission.

OUR ETHOS

- St. Paul’s College is committed to the social, intellectual, aesthetic, moral and spiritual growth of its community composed of students, staff, faculty, chaplains, board, and Jesuit Fathers, and to the development of justice and knowledge for all. St. Paul’s seeks to synthesize knowledge gained from work in the humanities and the sciences, and encourages research in order to further our understanding of human individuals, human groups and human cultures.
- St. Paul’s embodies the Catholic heritage, but imposes no creed. It asks only a commitment to the College Ethos, in conformity with its mission and aims, and to the continued pursuit of high academic achievement.
- St. Paul’s College is a liberal arts college, which expresses the Christian, Catholic, and Jesuit heritage.
- Since St. Paul’s College is a Christian college, it encourages active involvement of individuals interested in the study of human reality from the perspective of the Christian heritage. This perspective holds that the individual is a self-transcending unity of body and spirit, which is open to the mystery of God, a mystery most fully communicated in Jesus Christ.
- St. Paul’s College is specifically a Catholic college; therefore it encourages the active involvement of individuals interested in the study of human reality from the perspective of the Catholic heritage. This provides the perceptions of Christian realist philosophy, and of sacramental, mediational, and communal Catholic theology.
- Since St. Paul’s College is grounded in the Jesuit educational tradition, it encourages the active involvement of individuals interested in the application of the Ignatian worldview to the study of human reality. This perspective views the temporal and spiritual as interwoven and fosters the study of secular and religious subjects conjointly in order that human excellence might be expressed in men and women of right principles, in touch with their times, and in tune with their culture. It is precisely this Ignatian worldview, which integrates and justifies the Ethos of St. Paul’s College in conformity with its mission and aims.

“I take comfort in knowing that
SPC is a community
I can continue to belong to, and that I will always have a place on campus to call home.”

“Before I even came to University I knew all about St. Paul’s College. My older sister was a member, and she spent multiple years on the St. Paul’s College Students’ Association. When I came to the U of M straight out of St. Mary’s Academy, St. Paul’s College immediately became my home away from home. I spent all of my time between classes in the SPC cafeteria with my friends or studying in the Fr. H. Drake Library. I attended every event the SPCSA held, and soon decided I wanted to be a part of the group that made them all happen. It has been a wonderful experience to serve two years on the SPCSA, especially my year as an elected UMSU Representative, which gave me the chance to represent the voices of SPC members in the wider university community. My involvement on the Student’s Association has enriched my university experience and given me the opportunity to connect with people I may not have otherwise. It has been an experience that has taught me things beyond what I will take with me from my classes. As I think about beginning law school in the Fall at Robson Hall, I take comfort in knowing that SPC is a community I can continue to belong to, and that I will always have a place on campus to call home.”

“I am a Paulinian”

I joined St. Paul's College at the beginning of my first year of university, thanks to my sister Amanda's encouragement. Being a part of the council during my first year of university gave me responsibility within the community, as well as the opportunity to meet and connect with fellow first year students, older students, faculty and staff.

As first year representative, I encouraged other first year students to participate in St. Paul's College events, seminars, and to become members of the college community themselves. In doing this I met students like myself, who were experiencing university for the first time. For many of these students, including myself, coming to university was an intimidating experience, but having a special place within the larger University of Manitoba campus was, and is, reassuring. St. Paul's college became a meeting place for me, filled with opportunities to reconnect with old friends now in university and to forge new relationships amongst students with similar goals, ambitions, and thoughts. The comfortable, welcoming, and lively atmosphere of St. Paul's college made connecting with others very easy and enjoyable.

Over my first year at U of M, I reconnected with many friends of mine that I had not seen since elementary school, but met again at the college. As well as rekindling relationships, I made many new ones. I was introduced to many incredible individuals when I joined St. Paul's council, all whom have inspired me to continue my involvement in the community. After being on council in my first year, I knew I wanted to continue my service on St. Paul's College Student Association (SPCSA), so I reapplied and joined the council again for my second and current year. Since joining council I have had many opportunities to inspire fellow students to participate with and join our St. Paul's community. For me, reaching out to students, building social networks, and creating positive memories at the University of Manitoba has largely been centred around St. Paul's college. This college shaped my university life with its active members, fun events, and intriguing and empowering speakers. My university experience would be fundamentally altered if I had not joined St. Paul's college. The time I have spent at the college studying, socializing, and volunteering has been extremely uplifting, and I wish all students at the U of M could come to St. Paul's to experience such a wonderful space of community.

ST. PAUL'S COLLEGE STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION

St. Paul's College is made up of undergraduate and graduate students on the Fort Garry and Bannatyne Campus. Each of those estimated 1,000 students all have their own unique St. Paul's experience. Our goal as the St. Paul's College Students' Association is to make each member's St. Paul's experience better and more memorable during their time as a student, and create a closer and more welcoming community at the University of Manitoba.

The 2017-2018 St. Paul's College Students' Association (SPCSA) began the summer by building off the success of the previous year. Construction for the new Student Council Centre got underway during the late summer, and upon completion, the SPCSA quickly moved in and began taking advantage of the move.

Major benefits were immediately evident. Improving the accessibility and communication between the SPCSA and all of the members had been a goal for the last couple years, and thanks to the new location of the Student Council Centre in the cafeteria, this was finally accomplished. The SPCSA was once again located in the heart of St. Paul's College.

The SPCSA hosted many events during the month of September, including a welcome back BBQ, a beer garden, and the annual St. Paul's and St. John's Rivalry BBQ for all members. The highlight from the fall term was increasing the frequency of the many free pizza and BBQ lunches, and exam cram study nights throughout the year.

For the first time in five years, the SPCSA was able to host both the fall and winter socials in the College. The second annual Breast Friends Social was held prior to fall reading week. Proceeds from ticket sales went to the Breast Cancer Foundation, and helped raise awareness during Breast Cancer Awareness month. In the winter, after the holiday break, the SPCSA kicked off the term by hosting the January Blues Social, which saw everyone wearing their best denim Canadian tuxedo.

Further, from a fundraising perspective, the SPCSA participated in the Cerebral Palsy Bike Race which took place in March. Fourteen College members rode on a stationary bike for a total of 202 km, raising over $1,600.

The SPCSA was also heavily involved in sports this year, thanks to our Sport Rep, Brendan Scott. Brendan planned many sporting events and contests throughout the year: a Kanjam tournament, a mini golf tournament, a sports trivia night, a March Madness bracket, the 2nd annual dodgeball tournament, and a friendly rivalry dodgeball game against St. John's College. All of these events were successfully launched and organized by Brendan.

Best of luck to incoming Senior Stick, Tommy Semchyshyn, and incoming Vice Stick, Brendan Scott. The SPCSA is in the hands of good leadership, with a bright future ahead.

"*B*eing part of this community has also opened up doors... such as being able to help on the St. Paul's College Student Association which got me involved and also meeting new people."

- Paul Chorney

JESUIT CENTRE FOR CATHOLIC STUDIES

JESUIT CENTRE FOR CATHOLIC STUDIES, 2017-18

The Jesuit Centre continues to thrive, with a record number of students enrolling in the Catholic Studies minor program in 2017-18. It remains the largest Catholic Studies program in Canada.

Students in the program received more than $60,000 in scholarships, bursaries, and academic awards.

The Catholic Studies program offered a travel study course to Spain in Spring of 2017. It was led by Fr. Jeff Burwell SJ, and students visited the sites of St. Ignatius and the early Jesuits. It was a resounding success.

After a tremendously successful term as Director of the Jesuit Centre, Fr. Burwell moved on to Campion College, Regina, in Fall of 2017. Dr. Daniel MacLeod was Acting Director for the 2017-18 academic year.

The Centre offered a new course, 'The Catholic Church, Indigenous Peoples, and Reconciliation' in Fall and Winter semesters.

It hosted 6 talks from scholars who shared their work as part of the Formations and Re-Formations in Catholic Thought lunch hour lecture series.

The Jesuit Centre hosted an international symposium, 'Nothing without Sound: Jesuits, Indigenous Languages, and New Dialogues' on November 16, bringing together linguists, historians, and archivists from across North America.

The symposium marked the arrival of 'Writing the Word, Cultivating the Text: a Jesuit Legacy of Indigenous Language Tools' a curated exhibition of early documents from the Jesuit Archives. The exhibition remains on display outside the Fr. Drake library.

The 2017 Jesuit Lecture 'All My Relations: The Healing of the Jesuits' was offered by Fr. Peter Bisson, SJ. The Centre printed the lecture in a small booklet, which will be distributed with The Belltower.

Dr. Bacola and Dr. MacLeod continued their scholarly research. They published peer-reviewed articles, presented at academic conferences, and gave public lectures on a variety of themes.

St. Paul's College

NEBAL has installed new display cabinets for archeological artifacts outside of their facilities on the lower level of St. Paul's College.

NEAR EASTERN AND BIBLICAL ARCHAEOLOGY LABORATORY

Purpose

The Near Eastern and Biblical Archaeology Laboratory (NEBAL) was established in 2010 by the St. Paul's College Board of Governors at the University of Manitoba (U of M). The goal is to have a single location for the study of ancient cultures of the Near East and eastern Mediterranean. All related archaeological remains scattered throughout the university are being gathered in this location for analysis and curation.

NEBAL provides an integrated research and administrative centre for faculty and students. The facility is co-directed by two U of M staff members: Haskel Greenfield (Distinguished Professor, Anthropology and Judaic Studies; Associate Member, St. Paul's College) and Tina Jongsma-Greenfield (Research Associate in Anthropology; Research Fellow Member, St. Paul's College), who are both with the Department of Anthropology.

Infrastructure update

Located in St. Paul's College (Rooms 144 and 144B), NEBAL is undergoing a multi-year renovation plan to enhance its research infrastructure. This long-term renovation is designed to make it a premiere research facility.

Student mentoring & training

Students receive mentoring and training within the facility, so they can become the next generation of archaeological professionals.

They receive hands-on experience with actual collections from Near Eastern archaeological sites. Graduate students use the facility to analyse archaeological collections from Israel and Turkey, and they are encouraged to use the material in the lab for their thesis research.

Research

Current and past research projects undertaken by the NEBAL research team include the following:

- Origins of metallurgy in the Old World and Near East
- Digital imaging of archaeological sites
- Application of cutting-edge technologies to the excavation of early cities in southern Levant
- Study of early urban neighbourhoods through excavation of Tell es-Safi/Gath
- Political economy of ancient Near Eastern empires
- Analysis of animal bone remains from archaeological sites in Turkey, Israel, Jordan and other countries in the region

Travel-study courses

Offered each summer, travel-study courses include the U of M's Field School in Israeli and Biblical Archaeology (ANTH 2930/3950) which is held at Tell es-Safi/Gath, Israel.

Identified as Canaanite and Philistine Gath (home of biblical Goliath) and Medieval "Blanche Garde," Tell es-Safi is one of the largest pre-classical sites in Levant, settled continuously from late Prehistoric through Modern times. Since 1996, excavations at the site (directed by Professor Aren M. Maeir) have revealed fascinating and groundbreaking finds, including the earliest known siege system in the world, the earliest deciphered Philistine inscription, and extremely rich and well-preserved evidence of various cultures, peoples and historical events, spanning some six millennia of occupation.

Directed by Professor Haskel Greenfield, the U of M team is excavating the earliest levels of the site, when it first became a city during the Early Bronze Age (c. 5000 years). It was one of the largest and most important cities in ancient Canaan. Come join us on this exciting adventure!

Community outreach & volunteer opportunities

Each year, NEBAL staff and students give public and professional lectures. Visitors are welcome to tour the facility, and assist in the lab during the academic year, as well as on summer excavations in Israel at Tell es-Safi/Gath. Undergraduates also volunteer in the lab annually.

WINNIPEG INTERNATIONAL STORYTELLING FESTIVAL

Now in its 12th year, the Festival features regional, national, and international tellers, and encompasses a School Program and Public Events. Activities include: French storytelling, Indigenous storytelling, Deaf storytelling, Human Rights Storytelling, Storytelling and peacemaking workshops, and Puppetry. The Festival's goals are to nurture the art of storytelling in Winnipeg; explore and promote storytelling for peacemaking; develop youth voice as a critical skill for democracy, global citizenship, peacemaking, and establishing and maintaining human rights and social justice. This year's festival was held on April 26th to 29th 2017.

“When I joined the Peace and Conflict Studies (PACS) PhD program at the University of Manitoba (UofM) in Fall 2015, the institutional structures and relationships of the PACS Department, the Mauro Centre for Peace and Justice, and St. Paul's College (SPC) fascinated me for many reasons. I have been impressed with SPC's principles of multi-faith accommodation. PACS Director Dr. Zana Lutfiyya first told us about the College in our orientation session. I read the College's brochures and webpage about its student activities, and I have been immersed into SPC's diversified and intellectual cross-cultural exposures and experiential events ever since. I have always felt positive support from the Rector, the Dean and other staff of the College whenever I sought it while serving on the PACS executive during 2015-2016, and as the chair of the 1st PACS Graduate Student Conference. During my first program of study, I met with my academic supervisor, Dr. Sean Byrne, who gave me a list of awards and bursaries including several that were given from St. Paul's College. I received a bursary from the College that was a great help to me. In 2016, I joined the St. Paul's College Student Association representing the interest of PACS students. It was an amazing experience for me to work with the council during 2016-2017 and attend events like the Halloween social, Christmas party, and exam crams. In two years, the College has become my home – a safe place, which has helped formed a new chapter of my life. The carrels, library, café, the sounds of the Church bells have always left me smiling, and given me energy. My wife, kids, family, and friends have visited the College and liked the place very much. I am very fortunate to be part of the College.”

Self-checkout – A self-checkout station was installed in the library. By downloading an app called meeScan, students can utilize a mobile device to check out books from the library when staff are not available. An iPad is available, for this purpose, for those individuals not wanting to download the app.

Exhibit case restoration – initiated full restoration project of historic College exhibit case. Permanently relocated to the library in order to display important College and library artifacts/memorabilia. The exhibit case restoration project cost $3000 and was paid for with funds from the Fr. Harold Drake, SJ Endowment Fund.

Art exhibit opening – an exhibition of pen, acrylic and watercolor works by international artist Andres de las Casas was celebrated in the library Jan.18 The exhibit was called “Not A Destination ... One man's journey from chaos to enlightenment”. Done as a way to showcase art works and to engage students, staff and faculty. Also, it promoted the library as a potential venue for the St. Paul's College Scholar's Recognition, and events coordinated with the Catholic Studies program.

St. John's (Collegeville) illuminated Bible – Heritage edition of the Gospels & Acts – The library displayed and presented this unique volume of the Bible to Catholic Studies students at the College. The library also served as a depot for pick up by the Archdioceses of Winnipeg and St. Boniface for use in parishes and high schools. Five different pages from the series were framed and displayed in the library. The Bible and the prints were extremely well received.

OUR COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT OFFICE

We are a donor centred organization focused on upholding a key Ignatian value: service for others. Our Office believes in our diverse community of students, volunteers, alumni, staff, and faculty; and we respect our donors and the contributions they make in supporting our students and our College programs.

Through the efforts of our Arthur V. Mauro Centre for Peace and Justice, our Jesuit Centre for Catholic Studies and our Academic members our College has created a strong local, national, and international academic and research presence. We continue to offer many outreach and learning opportunities organized by our Campus Ministry and our academic units. In addition, we all supported by our Fr. Harold Drake, SJ Library. We build trust through our communication and our active commitment to our students, alumni, and friends, and together we created what St. Paul's College is today.

In 2017-18, the Community Development Office receipted for both the College and its Foundation over $598,926.06 in gifts and grants, which meant we processed over 2,058 receipts from over 1,381 donors. The average gift received for the 2016-17 year was $433.69. Our Foundation holds over $7.9 million in assets in 3 Funds: the Endowment Fund, the General Fund and the Arthur V. Mauro Peace and Justice Fund. The Mauro Fund supports the operational activities of the Mauro Centre, the General Fund supports gifts that are restricted to specific immediate use such as our Fr. Harold Drake, SJ Library and the Endowment Fund holds over 60 enduring gift funds that mainly support academic awards.

With an eye towards our future, we know now it is time to begin a new chapter in our College's history. As Manitoba's only Catholic College, we require sustainable long-term funding that will significantly influence the direction of our current operations and program growth. We call upon our community to support these new efforts as we make our way as modern post-secondary institute in the Ignatian Tradition.

CAMPUS MINISTRY

INTRODUCTION

In collaboration with St Paul's College mission, Ignatian tradition and inspired by the vision of Vatican II, Campus Ministry works to bring the Gospel of Christ to the academic world through a variety of activities and events that serve the integrity of the person as they strive towards development of their gifts and deepen in their faith.

Throughout the Academic year those activities promote a spirit of sharing, formation of friendships, and opportunities to care for our global community. Committed to continued human and faith formation, we nurture students' leadership, and support prayerful, prophetic and pastoral action within the context of post-secondary education, where each element: Fostering a culture of Vocations, Faith Community and Hospitality, Pastoral Care, Evangelization, Catechesis, Prayer and Sacraments, Justice and Service.

SPIRITUAL LIFE AND DEVELOPMENT

Workshops were offered to students who expressed interest in being a part of our liturgical celebrations as lectors of the Word of God.

Fr. Michael was available regularly for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, special liturgies such as Advent and Lent, as well as penitential liturgies and celebrations. On the First Fridays of the month, we had Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament after the 11:45am mass until 3:30pm.

On Saturday, March 10, Campus Ministry hosted a workshop on the Enneagram entitled: “Exodus Journeys: From Bondage to Freedom”- The Enneagram and the Path to Wholeness with Rev. Nancy Finlayson. Two students and four members of our larger community have attended this workshop.

A Vocation Information Session was held in Hanley Hall on March 14th, with a panel which featured representatives from the priesthood and religious orders. Attendees were able to learn about their journey in discerning about following their call. Five students attended the Session – four were from the University of Manitoba and one was from Red River College.

CANADIAN CATHOLIC STUDENTS’ ASSOCIATION WESTERN REGIONAL CONFERENCE (OCTOBER 13TH – 15TH, 2017)

One student attended this conference at St Joseph’s College, University of Alberta in Edmonton. The theme of the conference was “Go with the strength that is in you”. It was a great opportunity to gather at such a pivotal time in their lives to experience how God has chosen each and every one and continues to call all of us by name. Following a great tradition of St Paul’s College and Campus Ministry students’ involvement with the Canadian Catholic Student Association, Aidan Prenovault, a student who was not able, due to his classes, to attend the Conference but was following it online was nominated and elected to serve as Vice President of the Canadian Catholic Student’s Association (CCSA) for 2018.

NATIONAL CATHOLIC STUDENTS’ WEEK

Following the theme for this year: “Go with the Strength that is Within”, Campus Ministry suggested a variety of activities which provide opportunities for students to learn and engage in dialogue with the diverse aspects of our Catholic faith (on and off campus). Archbishop Richard Gagnon celebrated Mass for our students’ community on February 2nd in Christ the King Chapel and had lunch with Students in Hanley Hall. The activity was an opportunity for students to interact with Archbishop on a more informal setting.

rites of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

There was no RCIA this year.

LITURGY-BASED BIBLE STUDY

The CFC Campus Based youth faith group has organized within SPC and off campus a faith sharing and Bible Study gathering about every second or third week. About 15-20 students usually attend.

ECUMENICAL AND INTERFAITH

We continued our meetings, prayer celebrations and outreach activities with other members of the Chaplains' Association of the University of Manitoba on and off campus. SPC Campus Ministry has a good working relationship with the U of M Student Affairs Chaplains' Association. We hosted the first gathering on September 26th, 2017.

In preparing for Christmas, Campus Ministry joined the Chaplains' Association on December 7th, 2017 at St John's College Chapel for Advent readings and carols entitled: The wise still seek Him. Students and members of our community were present.

BARN MASS (DECEMBER 10TH, 2017)

We were joined by local parishioners, family and friends of our hosted family as well parishioners of St Gianna's Parish.

The group continue going to the monthly visits with Fr Eduardo Soto Parra, S.J. There were 8 registered participants for this activity this year.

STUDENTS FOR A CULTURE FOR LIFE (PRO-LIFE)

A group of Catholic, ecumenical and interfaith students on campus are organized as a pro-life group. Some of these students collaborate in the Catholic Students' Association meetings.

INNER CITY MINISTRY & OTHER VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Several students have been motivated to volunteer in various parts of the city and we encourage them to do so. Some assisted at Agape Table and Siloam Mission. A couple of students continue to volunteer at the Victoria Hospital, Misericordia Health Centre, and Deer Lodge. We have a good working relationship with the Archeparchy of Winnipeg through the Redemptorist Welcome Home' on Euclid Avenue. Unfortunately due to an overlap on our calendar of activities, students were not able to volunteer at the annual Gift Wrapping Bee for inner city children before Christmas but a collection of goods was delivered to the Welcome Home.

On Saturday, February 3rd, students participated in our annual Winnipeg Harvest afternoon activity, learning about the problems faced by the poor in our city and province, as well as the programs offered by WH to help them break out of the cycle of poverty. The volunteer part of the activity consisted of packaging dog food in smaller bags which will be distributed with the food kit to those who have a pet dog. According to WH, pets are the first to suffer when there is not enough money in the household.

*B*y offering a Filipino Mass, we celebrate the Filipinos' devotion and dedication to the Catholic faith.
It is also a celebration of the cultural diversity of the Catholic faith and students in the University of Manitoba.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Building community with healthy human development and relationships is crucial to the formation of young people into mature Christians during their academic pursuits. The students who voluntarily comprise the local Catholic Students' Association are given the freedom and responsibility to take leadership roles in organizing events. The Coffee House is one such event (November 4th, 2017 & March 17th, 2018).

Members of the SPC Campus Ministry team and students participated in many of the following events:

- Regular College Assembly meetings with reports provided
- Celebration of Giving
- Monthly Deanery Meetings
- Synod General Sessions
- Mental Health First Aid Champions
Community of Practice Sessions
- Public Lectures

ONGOING IMPROVEMENTS TO THE COLLEGE DURING 2017-18

In January 2017 Dr. Haskel Greenfield and Randall Kinley submitted a funding application for Phase 6 of the Near Eastern and Biblical Archaeology Laboratory (NEBAL). This funding was for the acquisition of modern lab furnishings and equipment as well as for the purchase of a utility lift at the entrance to the facility. The funding application was successful and Phase 6 is now complete.

In the summer of 2017 an ambitious project was undertaken by the SPCSA to plan and finance the construction of a new council office and meeting room in the Belltower Café. This project was completed in the fall and came in under-budget thanks to the hard work of the student council and their generous donors.

During the summer of 2017 the bells and bell mechanism in the belltower received long overdue maintenance.

Extensive renovations to make classroom 225 a fully modern “active learning” space were planned during the winter with construction set to begin in May and be completed by August, 2018. The cost of this is being fully funded by the University of Manitoba.

Landscaping improvements: the soil around the perimeter of St. Paul’s College was built up to enhance proper drainage.

The IST computer facility in room 131 has been repurposed as both an open area study room and computer facility.

The installation of enhanced accessibility signage throughout the College has been completed.

These projects were accomplished with the financial support of our student members, St. Paul’s College Students’ Association, St. Paul’s College, St. Paul’s College Foundation Inc., the University of Manitoba, SPC Alumni and Friends and other donors.

VALEDICTORIAN ADDRESS

As a fresh high school graduate, I entered my first year of university with high anxiety. Throughout my entire pre-university experience, I went to school with the same 30 kids. For 13 years I had been part of a tight-knit group of friends who had spent the majority of our lives together, and I was comfortable with that. I was incredibly skeptical of university, as it was so different from my somewhat sheltered life. But university changed everything for me for the better, and St. Paul's College was a big part of that.

I graduated from École Oak Park High School in 2013 and began university direct entry into the Faculty of Science. I had absolutely no idea what I wanted to study (similar to most first years). I was very apprehensive about joining any clubs or student groups; I wanted to keep to myself and get by. Being in new environments stresses me out, so you can imagine how I felt in this new place with 30,000 strangers. The beginning was rocky, a couple less-than-ideal grades here and there. And ultimately, I felt very lonely.

Graduating from public school, I did not know much about St. Paul's College (nothing, to be exact). I was friends with somebody who had attended St. Paul's High School and was involved with the St. Paul's College Students' Association. I was quickly immersed in St. Paul's College and it snowballed from there. It began with fries from the Belltower Café and long nights studying in the cafeteria, which led to making more friends within the College. Before I knew it, I was volunteering at my first beverage gardens with the SPCSA.

As I made more friends, I became more comfortable and confident with myself. My grades were steadily improving and I was involved with a supportive community. St. Paul's became my home away from home and my safe place to study, de-stress, and hang out with friends. I continued to volunteer with the SPCSA because of the people and how it felt to be part of a small community— similar to what I had before university.

The following three years were a blur. I became more involved with the SPCSA and today some members/past members are my closest friends. One in particular, Jeremy Semchyshyn, asked me to run with his slate in the 2016/2017 SPCSA election. Jeremy believed in me enough to want me on his team, which was an honour. The fries (shout-out to Katy and Peter) are what drew me to SPC, but Jeremy was a big reason for why I stayed. I was part of the Council-in-Whole for two years, and was an Executive for the past two years.

I am graduating with a B.Sc (Hons.) and plan to earn my Bachelors in Nursing at the U of M. I'm so honoured to be representing this year's graduating class. St. Paul's College changed my university life for the better, and I'm sure it had an impact on everyone graduating from this College. I can't wait to see what's in store for us, we worked so hard to get here.

Sincerely,

Joey Stewart
