

Comments & Feedback

... from students who have taken this course

"If I had no orientation I know I would have been lost and not as confident as I am."

"We got to prepare for other classes, like taking notes, writing papers, and tests."

"I found the course lectures very interesting and would recommend it to other students."

"I remember how friendly and willing to help the faculty members were, and still are."

"The sharing circle was fun, it made us get to know each other better."

"I was majorly overwhelmed in September. There were, and still are, so many people -- I was scared. I had a very hard time coping in the first term. I wanted to drop out, but I held on. I was glad that I made friends at orientation and had A.B.E.P. and U.M.A.S.A.. It kept me going."

"I think every speaker was important and taught me a little of everything."

UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA ABORIGINAL STUDENT CENTRE MISSION STATEMENT

"Providing student support in a manner consistent with the cultures and values of Aboriginal Peoples for the purpose of increasing/enhancing the accessibility and retention of Aboriginal students. The Aboriginal Student Centre is dedicated to the creation of an educational environment that includes the affirmation of Aboriginal cultures, values, languages, history, and way of life by virtue of increasing the knowledge foundation offered at the University of Manitoba."

For more information, contact

ABORIGINAL STUDENT CENTRE

45 Curry Place
Winnipeg, MB R3T 2N2

Phone: (204) 474-8850

Toll Free (in Manitoba): 1-800-432-1960
ext.8850

Fax: (204) 275-3142

Email: asc@umanitoba.ca

Website: www.umanitoba.ca/student/asc

ABORIGINAL STUDENT CENTRE

STUDENT AFFAIRS

creating opportunities for student success

NATV 1000 Orientation Course

The Colonizers and the Colonized: Opening the Circle

Aboriginal Student Centre/Native Studies
August 15 - September 2, 2011

UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA

3 Credit Hour Native Studies/ ASC Orientation Course

Where & When

WHERE: Aboriginal House
45 Curry Place, Fort Garry Campus
WHEN: August 15 - September 2, 2011
INSTRUCTOR: Fred J. Shore

What is it?

This three credit hour course consists of two parts:
(1) an introduction to the colonization process as it regards Aboriginal peoples and the processes of decolonization undertaken by the people since 1970.
(2) an orientation to studying at the University.

Who is eligible?

This course is designed for first-year entering Aboriginal students. The course is open to all students with less than 30 credit hours that can benefit from the skills and resources incorporated into the course.

What is the cost?

The cost of this course is the standard tuition of approximately $460.00 this price includes the text book.

Topics Covered

- Residential Schools
- Treaties
- First Nation & Métis Land Claims
- Department of Indian Affairs
- Self-Government
- Financial Management
- Writing University Papers
- Library Use and Research Skills
- Scholarship & Bursary Application / Assistance
- Time Management
- Computer Labs

Student Registration and Information Release Form

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone #: (____) _____

Student # _____

Faculty: _____

(Mature/Regular): _____

I, _____, authorize the University of Manitoba's Aboriginal Student Centre to access my academic information and discuss academic progress, as required, to my sponsoring agency, if requested. The information required may be (but not limited to) mid-term or final marks, attendance & punctuality, fall course enrolment, academic transcripts, etc.

Do you have funding in place for : Summer
 Fall Term

Your funding is provided by: Band
 Student Aid

Home Community: _____

Status: Non-Status Métis Inuit

First Language: _____

Second Language: _____

Student Signature

Date

NATV 1000

Note:

- Regular attendance in this course is a requirement
- Please note that a "Release of Information Form" is required for follow up, sponsors, and program development purposes.
- First priority will be given to students with less than 6 credit hours
- Registration is through the Aboriginal Student Centre ONLY.

Please fill-out this form and MAIL or FAX it back to:

ABORIGINAL STUDENT CENTRE

45 Curry Place
University of Manitoba
Winnipeg, MB R3T 2N2

Fax: (204) 275-3142