Here is a list of what will be happening on campus after the U of M reopens from the holiday break on Monday, January 5th.

Monday, January 5th:
The U of M reopens!

You can come to campus to:

- Attend the ICS Orientation for New International Students
- Buy a Post-Secondary Student Bus Pass (Fort Garry Campus: Answers Information Booth, 1st floor of University Centre  /  Bannatyne Campus: Brodie Centre Atrium, 727 McDermot Avenue)
- Get your Student ID card (Fort Garry Campus: 400 University Centre / Bannatyne Campus: Neil John MacLean Library)
- Pay your tuition at the Cashier’s Office (Fort Garry Campus: 138 University Centre  /  Bannatyne Campus: Room P001 Pathology Building)

Monday, January 5th:
ICS Winter Orientation for New International Students

- Room 204 University Centre (Marshall McLuhan Hall)
- Please arrive at 1:00 pm to check in, get a nametag, and enjoy some light refreshments and food
- In order to attend the Winter Orientation, you must fill out and submit an Arrival Program Registration Form: umanitoba.ca/student/ics/media/Arrival_Program_Registration_Form_Winter_2015_FILLABLE.pdf

Tuesday, January 6th:
Winter Orientation 2015 for Undergraduate Students

- Winter Orientation is an event targeted at new U of M students who are starting undergraduate studies in the winter 2015 term
- The event will connect you with other undergraduate students in your program, provide you with important academic information and deadlines, and identify supports and resources to help you succeed.
- Winter Orientation is an opportunity to meet and network with new students and have questions answered by experienced student leaders