

Student Advocacy Volunteer Opportunity

The Student Advocacy office at the U of M is recruiting volunteers to be Academic Integrity Ambassadors

What is an Academic Integrity Ambassador?

An Academic Integrity Ambassador is a U of M student who is trained to give workshops and presentations to fellow students to inform them about their rights and responsibilities when it comes to academic integrity.

What does an Academic Integrity Ambassador do?

The Ambassadors will facilitate new student orientation sessions in September of each year, as well as other workshops and presentations throughout the year.

How do I apply?

Prospective volunteers must have completed a minimum of 18 credit hours of coursework before September 2010 to be eligible to apply. Please complete the form below, print it, and sign the hard copy.

Submit your application by March 4, 2011 to
