3. Report from the President

Dr. Benarroch provided his report verbally. He noted that he met with members of government in recent weeks; including the Minister of Economic Development and Training, the Honourable Ralph Eichler, and the Deputy Minister, as well His Worship Mayor Brian Bowman, and Mr. Terry Duguid, Member of Parliament. He expressed his hope that he would meet with other senior provincial and federal officials very soon. He said it was clear in these meetings that government values the University and recognizes the uncertainty it faces due the COVID 19 pandemic.

Dr. Benarroch said the beginning of his term was unusual because of the constraints that were part of the pandemic response at the University and across the country. He said he is currently working remotely from Toronto and, although it has been difficult at times, he has been able to accomplish what he had set out to do in his first six weeks as President of the University.

President Benarroch stated he had engaged Dr. Bonnie Patterson to work with the senior team and facilitate an Executive Retreat. He said that Dr. Patterson has more than four decades of senior executive leadership in the higher education sector.

Dr. Benarroch said a presentation given at a recent Senate meeting, on the current COVID 19 situation at the University, will be provided to the Board of Governors today. Lastly, Dr. Benarroch said he was wholly committed to having an excellent fall term and ensuring a great experience for students.

4. Update on the COVID-19 Response

Dr. Benarroch introduced this item, stating that Dr. Mondor would make a presentation to the Board about the University’s response to the COVID 19 pandemic.

Dr. Mondor began his presentation, noting that the University’s Emergency Response Plan (ERP) was activated on March 23, 2020. He said the ERP is a tool used to guide actions, decision-making processes, communications, and coordination of the University’s response to an emergency. The ERP includes a Crisis Management Team comprised of members of the President’s Executive Team, the Chief Risk Officer (as Chair), the Director of Security Services, and selected individuals with relevant expertise. He detailed three committees that were established to assist in planning and steering the response:

i. COVID-19 Recovery Working Group (reporting to the Vice-President (Administration))
   - Review academic, research and other recovery plans for a safe, slow, and phased-in return to on-campus activity.
ii. COVID-19 Response Planning Committee (reporting to the Recovery Working Group)
   • Develop plans, strategies, and tactics necessary to maintain high-quality academic programming and consider academic unit recovery plans.

iii. Academic Planning Working Group (reporting to the Provost)
   • UM’s coordinated response to positive COVID cases on campus, including consideration of privacy matters and liaison with public health authorities.

Dr. Mondor reviewed the guiding principles for the University’s pandemic recovery, which are:
   • The health and safety of students, staff, faculty, and visitors is the overarching priority.
   • All students, staff, and faculty will work remotely unless approval has been granted to work on campus.
   • Any activity on campus, whatever its nature, will be carried out while strictly respecting the constraints of public health authorities in accordance with government guidelines and directives.
   • Recovery of on-campus activities will be gradual and in keeping with the University’s stated principles and recovery plan.
   • The University will continue to take into consideration special circumstances for staff, faculty, and students, including individual health conditions.

With respect to prevention measures in place as the University moves through the phases of recovery, Dr. Mondor listed the following guidelines:
   • Stay informed and follow public health directives;
   • Limited access to campus facilities and spaces;
   • Health screening will play a role in assessing access to facilities;
   • Continue to practice good hygiene;
   • Maintain a physical distance of not less than two meters and do not exceed one person per ten square meters;
   • Do not go to campus if you display any symptoms;
   • Wear a mask or other appropriate face covering if you are unable to maintain the minimum two-meter distance. Wearing a mask is strongly encouraged when working in the proximity of others;
   • Ensure frequent disinfecting, especially of high-touch surfaces and objects.

Dr. Mondor stated that the phases of pandemic recovery at the University are expected to correspond to the academic year, as follows:
   • Initial Response/Phase One: March 2020
   • Phase Two Recovery: Summer Term 2020
   • Phase Three Recovery: Fall Term 2020
   • Phase Four Recovery: Winter Term 2021
Dr. Mondor noted that Phase Two of the recovery meant working remotely for most employees while facing increased demand to support the transition to remote working; to carry out enhanced cleaning and disinfecting procedures; to manage global supply-chain shortages; and to develop space plans for a return to on-campus activity. He added that some on-campus activity was deemed essential and almost 400 employees remained on campus to support University operations. He said that communications staff managed increasingly complicated and critical communications which were necessary to share information with the internal and external community.

Dr. Mondor stated that there were a number of Ancillary Services closures in Phase One, including the Bookstore, the Retail businesses in UMSU University Centre, Parking and Transportation Services, Retail Dining Services, and Conference and Catering Services. He added that other ancillary units were scaled back to support essential activities, including Student Residences, Residence Dining Services, and the University Centre Pharmacy (which must remain open as per legislation).

Dr. Mondor explained that in Phase Two, the following Ancillary areas reopened with some modifications:

- The Fort Garry Bookstore fulfilled online & phone orders and arranged procurement for fall term courses with a partial opening on August 4 with restrictions and reduced hours.
- The Bannatyne Bookstore offered a pick-up option for summer term.
- Student Residences offered a summer meal plan for 325 students who remained in private rooms.
- The Focal Point Optician was open by appointment only.
- The Active Living Centre opened July 27, 2020 at a reduced capacity.
- The University field house, turf fields, and soccer fields were open on a reduced scale to allow Bison athletes to train.
- The Bruce D. Campbell Food and Farm Discovery Center at Glenlea was open by appointment.

Dr. Jayas spoke to the pandemic response in the research portfolio. He noted that although the University’s buildings were locked on March 23, many researchers required access to buildings in order to look after animals, other living organisms, and critical cell lines; to continue multi-year critical studies; to maintain equipment; and to prevent the loss of years of research progress and/or funding. He reviewed the process by which researchers submitted requests to continue their research, noting that 196 requests of 218 submitted were approved between March 24 and May 24, 2020.

Dr. Jayas said the same guiding principles were followed in the initial response phase in the research area. He added that some research continued and critical COVID-19 research began. In phase two, he said, there was further opening in research with 50 percent occupancy in some labs, facilities, and field research stations. He added that this phase did not include research that could be conducted remotely. In Phase two, he said, numerous forms were submitted for access to facilities, with almost 1200 researchers who requested access, and the majority of these requests were accommodated.

In phase three of recovery, Dr. Jayas said, researchers who were approved in phase two were permitted to continue their research without reapplying. He noted that more research was permitted in phase three, with many researchers requiring access to libraries and requests to begin or resume research involving human participants.

Dr. Mondor summarized the phased recovery in academic programs, noting a number of steps taken in response to the pandemic in phase one, including:

- Moving to providing remote learning instead of in-person classes as of March 23, 2020.
- Suspending sections of the Responsibilities of Academic Staff with Regards to Students Policy (ROASS) to allow this switch in delivery methods.
- Extending the time during which students could voluntarily withdraw from courses,
- No in-person final exams or SEEQ’s (teaching evaluations) were conducted.
- Approving Duolingo English Language Proficiency tests for Fall 2020 and Winter 2021
- Suspending the requirement for medical notes and suspending the repeated course policy.
- Offering flexibility in course grading for students, with the option to accept the standard approach (letter grade), accepting a letter grade that is excluded from University of Manitoba Grade Point Average (GPA) calculations, or accepting a pass/fail in the course.

Regarding spring convocation 2020, Dr. Mondor stated that convocation was held virtually at the end of June, and was very successful. He noted that 4,255 students graduated and the ceremonies were viewed online around the world. He said that the thirty-first annual Traditional Graduation Pow Wow was a live-streamed celebration for 60 Indigenous graduates that featured Indigenous musical performances and messages from Indigenous community and alumni. He added that this event was viewed live by 250 viewers and on video by watched 6,600 viewers.

Dr. Mondor spoke to the work of the Centre for the Advancement of Teaching and Learning in supporting instructors and students in remote learning and for on-line exams. He noted that a toll-free number was established for video-conferencing for students with limited internet connectivity.

In phase two (summer term 2020), Dr. Mondor noted that University buildings remained locked and the term start was delayed until June 1. He added that the term was declared as being solely by remote learning; however, there were some limited in-person activities on campus, including:

- Teaching support for summer course and preparation for Fall term;
- Essential research activities; and
- Essential services and/or activities that could not be completed by remote means, such as providing library materials by curbside pickup for faculty and graduate students.
Dr. Mondor stated that summer 2020 undergraduate student participation was greater than in summer 2019, and there was also slightly more graduate student participation this summer. He added that conversion and acceptance rates were similar to previous years, which indicates higher student engagement.

Moving to phase three (fall term 2020); Dr. Mondor said that all possible courses were offered through remote learning. He added that some courses and some activities within courses that could not be offered remotely were approved for in-person instruction because they were required courses for program or degree requirements. He said they were offered in order to avoid a significant delay in progression for students. He noted that 205 courses were approved for in-person instruction out of the 1775 courses offered.

Dr. Mondor said that Laurie Schnarr, Vice-Provost (Student Affairs), and Mark Torchia (Vice-Provost, Teaching and Learning) were key in ensuring students were supported throughout the term. He noted that all student support programs, services, and supports were delivered remotely. He added that a COVID-19 Emergency Relief fund was established that disbursed approximately $2.1 million to students, and technology support was provided by refurbishing University computers for students, and providing funds to students to purchase technology. Additionally, Dr. Mondor said that the University established UM Commons, a virtual gateway for students to access resources, supports, and connections, such as a web hub, modules to support transition to university, Math Boot Camp, Prep Week, and Welcome Day.

With respect to support for Faculty, Dr. Mondor said a number of changes were made to assist faculty members in their work, including:

• Digitization work in Libraries, HathiTrust & curbside pick-up for faculty and students;
• Extending the tenure period;
• Offering paid training on remote teaching for sessional instructors;
• Providing enhanced support through the Centre for Academic Teaching and Learning (CATL) for remote teaching, including a robust suite of in-person and online supports for instructors; and
• Ensuring flexibility regarding changes to research study leaves.

Dr. Mondor stated that the University is implementing an articulated approach to recovery. He explained that remote work will continue where possible and practical and priority will be given to activity that supports on-campus instruction and research plans. He added that on-campus activity must adhere to the public health guidelines outlined on the University of Manitoba COVID Recovery website, and should be limited using a phased or staggered approach. He noted that all physical distancing, and health and safety standards must be met and self-assessment tools must be used.

Dr. Mondor noted the following practices that will be implemented in phase three:

• As of September 1, the maximum percentage of employees within a Faculty or unit that may be permitted to attend on-campus at a given time is restricted to 40%.
• This percentage is to include all research, teaching, support and administrative activities within a Faculty/Unit.
• Deans and Unit heads will have the responsibility for determining access.
• Building occupancy will be tracked and monitored.
• In the event of a resurgence in the pandemic or an increase in risk to the UM community, activity may need to be reduced and restrictions strengthened.

The Chair thanked Dr. Mondor and Dr. Jayas for the presentation and invited comments and questions from Board members.

Comments were made about the need to provide support for faculty members, beyond the excellent support already provided by CATL and IST. In particular, it was noted that many faculty members are struggling with increased workloads and childcare issues, and some have been disproportionately affected. Dr. Benarroch agreed that these concerns should be recognized. He said Management appreciates the significant effort that all are making to get to this point.

A question arose about plans for the winter term. Dr. Ristock said that decisions about the winter term must be made soon, as it is unlikely that large in-person classes will not be permitted. She noted that some components of classes will be held on campus. She added that this is something she has been discussing with colleagues at other universities.

A suggestion was made about the importance of ensuring the committees have sufficient breadth by including Indigenous people and students in the membership. Dr. Benarroch agreed that is an important first step to take. Dr. Ristock agreed, noting that a wider representation will offer a better understanding of the situation.

In responding to a question, Dr. Benarroch said that the committees mentioned in the presentation will make recommendations to Administration when decisions need to be made regarding the return to on-person activity on the campuses. He added that there will be a number of things to consider in making those decisions, including space requirements for ensuring social distancing, which classes could be held in person, and cleaning and sanitizing requirements. He said that evaluating the fall term and monitoring the changing pandemic situation will help to determine how the University proceeds in the winter term.

Regarding international students, Dr. Benarroch said that it is not yet known how many will return to Winnipeg. He added that the University wants to find a way to help these students transition when they return. He explained that the University is working to make arrangements for the returning international students to quarantine, which may include making hotel arrangements, and having someone at the airport to meet them and ensure they get where they need to go without unnecessary movement around the city.

The Chair stated that the Board has been amazed at the efforts made to allow continuation of classes and offer exams online. He thanked everyone for their work.

RECOMMENDED RESOLUTION:

THAT the Board of Governors approve the new Investment Policy Statement that governs the investment and administration of the assets of the UIT, which is more commonly known as the Endowment Fund.

CONTEXT AND BACKGROUND:

The Trust Investment Committee has general authority over the investment and administration of the assets of the University Investment Trust (“UIT”). The Trust Investment Committee is an advisory committee accountable to the Board of Governors through the Finance, Administration and Human Resources Committee. One of the responsibilities of FAHRC is financial matters, which includes “the general investment policy and management of the University’s investments”. The Trust Investment Committee is chaired by the Vice-President (Administration), and the Trust Investment Committee acts as an advisory committee to the Chair, who will submit the recommendations to the Board of Governors for approval.

The governing document of the UIT is the Investment Policy Statement (“IPS”). The current IPS has served the Trust Investment Committee well for many years. However, like any policy, it became dated and did not incorporate best practices. Aon is the investment consulting firm of the UIT and they helped review the current IPS and made recommendations for the new IPS. As of June 2020, the UIT has over $750 million in assets, so the IPS is a critical document that serves as the foundation for managing the UIT’s investment program. It articulates the UIT’s long-term investment objectives and outlines policies and procedures that help achieve these goals. It provides guidance to risk tolerance; it helps monitor the investment program and measures outcomes against objectives; it helps new staff, board and committee members understanding of the investment programs; and it serves as a road map for the fiduciaries of the fund.

RESOURCE REQUIREMENTS:

None.

CONNECTION TO THE UNIVERSITY PLANNING FRAMEWORK:

The UIT supports all of the strategic priorities: Inspiring Minds, Driving Discovery and Insight, Creating Pathways, Building Community, and Forging Connections.

IMPLICATIONS:

The IPS will be shared with Trust Investment Committee members, investment companies, investment consultants, custodian banks, donors, University staff, and any stakeholder of the endowment fund.
ALTERNATIVES:
The only alternative is to continue on with the current format of the IPS. The preferred option is to adopt the new IPS.

CONSULTATION:
The Trust Investment Committee consulted with Aon, and reviewed various other Investment Policies of other Universities and Foundations.

The University of Manitoba

Investment Policy Statement – University Investment Trust

I. Introduction, Scope and Purpose

The University Investment Trust ("UIT") holds assets donated by the friends and alumni of the University of Manitoba, has a long-term focus, and is a pooled fund of individual donor named endowments and quasi-endowments. The fund is part of the University entity, and not legally set up as a separate foundation. The University of Manitoba is a registered charity in Canada. The effective date of this registration is January 1967. As a registered charity under Section 149(1)(f) of the Income Tax Act, the University is exempt from income tax. The University of Manitoba is an organization exempt from income tax in the United States. The effective date of this registration is May 1969. Under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, the University is exempt from income tax in the U.S.

The UIT is managed as a unitized pool whereby each individual endowed account is pooled for investment purposes and tracked using a net asset market value per unit. The UIT’s purpose is to support the educational mission of the University by providing a reliable source of funds for current and future use. Intergenerational equity is achieved by maintaining the purchasing power of the of the fund’s assets, in perpetuity, while earning sufficient investment returns to sustain the level of spending to support current beneficiaries at the University. Primary beneficiaries are students, faculty and school program/operating costs, Chairs and Professorships, research, athletics, and libraries.

This Investment Policy Statement (“IPS”) establishes policies for the administration and investment of these assets, and formally documents the goals, objectives and guidelines of the UIT’s investment program which are intended to provide the greatest probability that the UIT’s objectives are met in a prudent manner, consistent with the established guidelines. This document is meant to guide primarily the Trust Investment Committee, but also investment managers, investment staff, investment consultants, and the custodian. This IPS will remain in effect until modified by the Trust Investment Committee, which will review the IPS, at minimum, on an annual basis.

II. Roles and Responsibilities

Trust Investment Committee. The Trust Investment Committee ("Committee") has general authority over the investment of assets of the UIT, and shall be accountable to the University’s Board of Governors through the Finance, Administration, and Human Resources Committee (FAHR). As such, the Committee is an advisory committee to the Board, and the policies for the administration and investment of assets is approved by the Board through approval of this document. The Board also approves the hiring of new investment managers, and setting the spending policy of the UIT.

The Committee shall be comprised of the President; Vice-President (Administration); the Provost (or designate); the Comptroller; the Director of Treasury Services; the Chair of FAHR (or designate), the Vice-Chair of FAHR (or designate); and a minimum of two and maximum of five community members. Community members may be employees or retirees of the University, members of the Board of Governors or any of its committees, or members of the investment community. Community members will be appointed for a term of three years, and are eligible for re-appointment for three year periods.
thereafter. The Vice-President (Administration) shall serve as Chair of the Committee. The Committee’s primary responsibilities include:

- Establishing the investment objectives for the UIT;
- Establishing the asset allocation and manager mandates for the investments;
- Establishing the rebalancing policy for the UIT;
- Establishing the spending policy for the UIT;
- Selecting and monitoring the Investment Consultant, Investment Managers, and Fund Custodian;
- Establishing, monitoring, and updating the investment process;
- Review overall performance and individual investment manager performance.

In executing its primarily responsibilities, the Committee shall:

- Act in good faith and with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances;
- Incur only costs that are appropriate and reasonable in relation to the assets, the purposes of the University and the skills available to the University;
- Make a reasonable effort to verify facts relevant to the management and investment of the UIT;
- Consider the following factors, if relevant:
  - General economic conditions;
  - The possible effect of inflation or deflation;
  - The role that each investment or course of action plays within the overall investment portfolio of the UIT;
  - The expected total return from income and appreciation of assets; and
  - The needs of the University and the UIT to make distributions and to preserve capital.
- Make investment decisions about an individual asset not in isolation, but rather in the context of the UIT’s portfolio of investments as a whole and as a part of the University’s overall investment strategy, including the risk and return parameters set forth in this IPS.
- Delegate to an external agent the management and investment of all or part of the UIT to the extent that the University could prudently delegate under the circumstances.

Internal Management/Staff. The Office of Treasury Services is responsible for the accounting of the investments of the UIT; calculating the unit value of the UIT (net asset value); the day-to-day interaction with the Investment Managers, Investment Consultant, and Custodian; calculating the spending allocation and making disbursements to beneficiaries of the UIT; obtaining and evaluating compliance related information from managers; and communicating relevant information to the Committee on a periodic basis.

Investment Consultant. The Investment Consultant is responsible for providing proactive advice and education with regards to investment guidelines, asset allocation, and investment managers. The Investment Consultant will provide information and advice in the selection of new investment managers, and will alert the Committee of any important developments with current manager’s firms. On a regular basis, the Investment Consultant shall meet with the Committee and report on the investment managers and the overall portfolio of the UIT. This reporting will include firm and industry updates, performance versus benchmarks, performance versus peer groups, performance attribution, and any relevant metrics covering risk/return that the Committee wishes to review.
The Investment Consultant will ensure that, if required, appropriate registration under The Securities Act (Manitoba) has been obtained by both the consulting firm and the individual(s) providing advice to the University, and both the firm and individual(s) remain in good standing with regulatory authorities.

Investment Managers. The Investment Managers selected by the Committee are responsible for management of invested assets under their advisement in accordance with the guidelines and objectives set forth in this IPS, as well as their respective contract, service agreement, limited partnership agreement or similar account documentation. When granted discretionary authority by the Committee, Investment Managers are expected to exercise full discretion with respect to determining investment strategy, investment selection and timing of purchases, managing, and selling assets held in their portfolio(s) in accordance with this IPS. Most importantly, they must use the same care, skill, prudence and due diligence that experienced investment professionals acting in a like capacity would in the management of their own affairs or the affairs of others, with highest regard to the stewardship of assets considering probable income, risk, time horizon, suitability and preservation of capital. Investment Managers must provide the Office of Treasury Services and the Investment Consultant with quarterly compliance letters. Compliance letters will detail the Investment Manager’s compliance with this IPS, compliance with the firm’s own investment restrictions and guidelines that govern the portfolio, and compliance with the firm’s own policies, procedures and Code of Ethics.

The Investment Managers will ensure that appropriate registration under The Securities Act (Manitoba) has been obtained by both the investment management firm and the individual(s) providing investment advice and/or exercising discretionary authority over the portfolio assets of the UIT, and that both the firm and individual(s) remain in good standing with regulatory authorities.

Fund Custodian. The Custodian, or Custody Bank, is responsible for the safekeeping of portfolio assets; portfolio accounting; communication with investment managers regarding trades and settlements; income collection; recovery of withholding taxes; and monthly reporting to the Office of Treasury Services.

III. Investment Objective

The UIT’s investment objective is to preserve the real purchasing power of assets in perpetuity, while providing a continuing and stable funding source to support the current beneficiaries of the fund. To achieve this objective, the UIT seeks to achieve a total return that will exceed the annual spending allocation, all expenses associated with managing the fund, and the eroding effects of inflation. This objective can be quantified as a hurdle rate, where:

$$\text{Hurdle Rate (UIT investment return)} \geq \text{Spending Rate} + \text{Administrative Expenses} + \text{Inflation}$$

UIT investment return is defined as dividends, interest, realized capital gains and unrealized capital gains. The spending rate is as defined in Section VIII of this IPS. Administrative expenses are the fees of the investment managers, investment consultant, custodian, Treasury Office, and an allocation for fundraising. Inflation is defined as the annual change in the Consumer Price Index for Canada.
IV. Time Horizon

The UIT has a long-term time horizon with relatively low liquidity requirements. As such, the UIT can tolerate short-term volatility provided that long-term investment returns meet or exceed its investment objective. The Committee will monitor the fund’s short-term returns, however to evaluate the success of the UIT achieving its longer-term investment objective, performance over full market cycles as well as rolling 5 and 10 year returns will be a better measure of theUIT’s success. The hurdle rate will be measured over these periods on an annualized basis.

V. Risk Tolerance

The Committee seeks a return on investment that is consistent with levels of investment risk that are prudent and reasonable given the investment objective and time horizon as defined above in sections III and IV. While the Committee recognizes the importance of capital preservation, it also recognizes that to achieve the goal of its investment objective requires prudent risk taking, and that risk is necessary to generate investment returns equal to or in excess of the hurdle rate. Risk cannot be eliminated, but it should be managed by ensuring risk exposures are identified, measured, monitored and tied to the responsible parties.

The most significant risk is the failure to meet inter-generational equity (long-term) and failure to support payouts to current beneficiaries (short-term). Volatility of returns, permanent loss of capital, and poor strategic tactical decisions could result in either of these failures. The Committee is the party most responsible for managing these risks, and does so through asset allocation, selection of Investment Managers, investment constraints, and rebalancing. The return objective supports a strong bias to return-seeking assets, with equity investments having the largest weighting in the portfolio. Due to a large equity weighting and long time horizon, there is willingness for the Committee to accept some degree of short-term risk and volatility, but not to impair the ability to pay beneficiaries in any one year. Therefore, the calculation of the spending policy would have to incorporate time horizons well beyond one year (section VIII).

This long time horizon also allows the UIT to take advantage of less liquid investments like real estate and infrastructure which typically have higher risk-adjusted returns that compensate for the lack of liquidity. Liquidity risk is less of a concern given the prevalence of new gifts to the fund, and the benefit of the UIT being part of the University therefore allowing it to access temporary leverage if it was required.

Benchmark risk is accepted if Investment Managers have a tracking error and active share that indicates the manager is taking these risks, but at the same time adding value by taking these risks. The Committee and Investment Consultant will monitor the Sharpe Ratio and Information Ratio of active Investment Managers to ensure they are adding value within the risks they are taking within their portfolios.

Finally, seeking Investment Managers and investments that mitigate the risk of permanent loss of capital is a priority of the Committee, and the Committee has a bias to quality investing, as described in Section IX of this IPS.
VI. Asset Allocation

Asset allocation is the single most important determinant of the UIT’s investment performance over the long-term. It is also functions to help control various investment risks. Based on investment objectives and risk tolerances, the Committee, with input from the Investment Consultant, will approve a specific allocation of investments from different asset classes considered prudent given the UIT’s objectives, time horizon, and constraints, and considering multiple measures of investment risk.

The Committee and Investment Consultant have modelled the expected return, volatility, and covariance of the portfolio in order to arrive at the asset allocation decision, and both will review the asset allocation periodically. Each asset class in the portfolio is expected to provide at least one or more of the following principal investment roles:

- Growth of market value in real terms over a long-term investment timeframe;
- Diversification to mitigate the volatility of an equity-oriented portfolio;
- Protection against inflation and macro-economic risks like recessions.

The strategic asset allocation adopted by the Committee is:

<tr>
<td>Canadian Government Bonds</td>
<td>10%</td>
<td>8% - 12%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

All equities are public equities and are expected to provide growth and diversification; real estate is expected to provide growth, diversification, and a hedge against inflation; infrastructure is expected to provide diversification and a protection against both inflation and economic contractions; and bonds are expected to reduce risk and provide diversification.

Covariance of asset classes will be a key consideration at the time of setting an asset allocation, and after implementation covariance will be monitored to ensure the desired diversification between the asset classes is being achieved.
Performance benchmarks for the above asset classes are as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Asset Class</th>
<th>Performance Benchmark</th>

<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Canadian Government Bonds</td>
<td>FTSE Canada Mid Term Government Bonds Index</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The total portfolio policy benchmark will be a weighted average of the above performance benchmarks vis-à-vis their relative asset class policy target weightings. Performance benchmarks are necessary to properly measure and evaluate the success of each asset class and the overall investment program. Net of fee investment returns of actively managed equity and bond mandates are expected to exceed their performance benchmarks over longer periods, generally three to five years. Given the inherent limitations of real asset benchmarks, absolute performance and diversification will be as important as relative performance against a benchmark.

VII. Rebalancing Guidelines

In order to maintain the discipline of the investment process, and to best capture the risk/return profile of the asset allocation, any deviations from the asset class policy targets outside of the allowable ranges must be rebalanced within the tolerance range, and not necessarily back to target. The Office of Treasury Services will make every effort to rebalance with the cash inflows of the fund. In order to avoid transactional costs, rebalancing the portfolio by means of liquidating assets will be the exception and will transpire only when an asset class is outside of its allowable range, and there is no cash available to rebalance. In general, new cash will be added to the asset class that has deviated the furthest under its target.

In addition, the Committee recognizes that investing in certain illiquid investments, like real estate and infrastructure, makes it more challenging to adjust to the asset allocation policy ranges. Furthermore, the pace of commitments to these asset classes can take some time and result in assets deviating from their policy ranges. As a consequence of these constraints, deviations from policy may occur.

Persistent deviations from asset class policy ranges will be reported at Committee meetings.
VIII. Spending Policy

The Committee’s goal in setting the spending policy is to set a rate that is achievable for the UIT’s hurdle rate, as established in Section III. In addition, the calculation must help reduce the volatility of annual distributions, allowing those that budget for and receive the annual distributions a higher degree of certainty of the amount available to them. The Committee feels that a 4-year period helps smooth annual distributions and adds to the predictability of amounts available to beneficiaries.

Annually, the UIT will make available for spending an amount of 4.25% of the average markets values for the rolling 48-month preceding period. In addition, the Committee can recommend a change to the amount in any one year, with a floor set at 3.50% of the preceding 48-month period, and a ceiling of 5.00% of the preceding 48-month period. This change would only arise in circumstances where the net real rate of return of the fund had deteriorated or improved to the extent an adjustment to the rate of spending is warranted. This would depend on the net real return of the UIT over the past 5 and 10 year periods; current investment market conditions; the outlook of future investment markets; and assessing the effect of such an adjustment on current and future beneficiaries of the fund. Any one-year adjustment to the spending rate would have to be recommended by the Committee, and approved by the University’s Board of Governors.

IX. Selection and Retention Criteria for Investment Managers

In order to be selected and retained, an Investment Manager must demonstrate a consistency of investment style that is evident and measurable through full market cycles. The stability and experience of the management and ownership of the firm, as well as the portfolio management team, is a critical factor in being selected and retained. The Committee has a bias to firms with controlled growth and manageable levels of assets under management; as well as firms with interests that are aligned with those of their clients by having a meaningful amount of executive and employee dollars invested in funds along with their clients. Firms must demonstrate competitive long-term risk-adjusted performance, net of fees.

The Committee does not favor the practice of seeking equity managers that are classified as value managers or growth managers. Furthermore, there is no intended offset for manager styles in any asset class, such as having a growth manager and a value manager within the same asset class, in order for their styles to act as performance hedges in any given market cycle. Instead, the Committee has a bias towards quality investing, identified by relative strength in criteria such as financial strength, attractive valuation, corporate governance, business model and market positioning. Investments in quality assets, whether that is in equities, bonds or real assets, will also help protect the portfolio from the adverse effect of loss of capital. Thus, the Committee favors managers that have portfolios that exhibit strong downside protection. An equity portfolio that has relatively average bull/up market capture but very strong bear/down market capture would be a preferred portfolio in the UIT. Not all mandates require these exact characteristics; however a meaningful portion of the overall equity portfolio should have good downside protection, given its asset class dominance and its vulnerability to significant stock market downturns.
Investment managers that strive to protect their client’s capital will always be favored over managers that invest in assets that are at higher risk to permanent loss of capital.

To be retained as Investment Managers of the UIT, firms must continue to demonstrate that their organization and investment process has not changed in any meaningful way that detracts from the very reasons they were hired. Any sustained relative underperformance by a manager will be reviewed closely by the Committee in the context of the current investment markets and the known investment style/process of the manager. When necessary, the Committee will seek approval from the Board of Governors for the termination and replacement of investment managers.

X. Strategic Investment Guidelines and Constraints

Active vs Passive: the Committee recognizes that many of the capital markets exhibit high levels of security pricing efficiency - particularly in large highly traded markets such as those for large capitalization equities, for example in regions like the U.S. These markets exhibit broad ownership by institutional investors, and extensive coverage of individual companies by the investment analyst community. In such cases, the Committee may use a passive investment strategy for the asset class, or a portion of the asset class. The Committee may also use a passive investment strategy as part of an asset transition.

Foreign Exposure and Currency: The Committee does not target a specific level of foreign currency exposure. Greater emphasis is placed on selecting core asset classes and their appropriate weighting in the overall portfolio that over long periods of time will meet both the UIT’s desired risk profile and return requirements. In this regard, a number of core assets that contribute to the most optimal portfolio required to meet the long-term objectives may be denominated in foreign currencies. While foreign exchange movements over shorter time periods may materially affect performance, it is believed that over the much longer investment time horizon of an endowment fund these foreign exchange swings will be both positive and negative and largely offsetting over time thus minimizing the potential for material long-term adverse consequences. As such, the UIT does not actively or passively hedge its exposure to any foreign currency. This doesn’t prohibit the opportunity to strategically hedge an exposure given the right circumstances, or an investment manager hedging within its mandate.

Proxy Voting: The Committee delegates the responsibility for exercising proxy votes to Investment Managers. In doing so, the Committee expects Investment Managers to act prudently and in the best interest of the UIT as a shareholder. Investment Managers must report to the Committee annually that all proxies were voted under the firm’s guidelines as indicated in their Proxy Voting Policy.

Tax: As registered charity in Canada, the UIT is prohibited from holding 20% or more of the interest in a limited partnership, as CRA would considered it to be carrying on a business solely because of the extent of this ownership.

Investment Limitations and Restrictions: Diversification among asset classes is provided through the asset allocation guidelines set forth in Section VI of this IPS. Assets may be held in separate accounts or pooled investment vehicles. In the case of pooled investment vehicles, the investment guidelines and restrictions defined by the vehicle will apply. The asset class definitions stated below indicates the type of securities and strategies that can be used. The Committee acknowledges each Investment Manager’s separate account will detail their specific guidelines, however those guidelines must reflect the guidelines below unless the Committee has knowingly allowed the manager to employ a strategy or invest in a security that doesn’t comply with the general guidelines as stated below. This deviation must be stated in writing by the Committee.

It also includes income and royalty trusts, exchange traded funds, institutional passive investment accounts, American Depository Receipts, rights and warrants, instalment receipts, equity futures, IPOs, and convertible securities. Derivatives that reduce risk and do not directly or indirectly leverage the portfolio are allowed.

No privately held companies will be invested in. Prohibited is any one separate portfolio with less than 20 individual securities or more than 10% invested in the securities of any single company in a separate portfolio.

Fixed Income and Public Debt

- Approved: includes Government of Canada bonds; Provincial bonds with a minimum DBRS rating of A; Municipal bonds with a minimum credit rating of A; and mortgage backed securities backed by NHA insured mortgages. - Constrained: prohibited are domestic and non-domestic corporate bonds; non-domestic sovereign bonds; private placements; private debt; derivatives and leverage.

Real Assets

- Approved: includes Canadian real estate in pooled investment vehicles that is diversified by property type and region. Also includes diversified infrastructure in OECD developed markets invested through open-ended vehicles. Derivative financial and currency related instruments are permitted provided that such participation is not for speculative purposes.

- Constrained: prohibited are direct investments or investments in closed ended funds. Also prohibited are real estate investments outside of Canada, and infrastructure investments outside of OECD countries.
XI. Conflict of Interest

If any Committee member has an actual or perceived conflict of interest that impairs their ability to exercise independent and unbiased judgement with respect to their fiduciary duties as a member, he or she shall disclose such conflicts to the Chair and other Committee members before any meaningful discussion of the relevant matters take place and shall not vote on any resolution to which the disclosure is required.

The University recognizes the value of having experts from the external community as members of the Trust Investment Committee. From time to time, however, these members might find themselves privy to information in regards to the University’s investment and other financial interests that might put them in conflict to interest relating to their employment with their company or organization or with respect to their other outside activities. External members shall therefore make a self-declaration in writing to hold such information in strict confidence and privacy.

Investment Managers must also disclose the Committee any perceived conflicts of interest, such as self-dealing or any other conflict of interest related to the companies and boards of those companies of securities that the portfolio of the UIT invests in.
GENERAL

The University of Manitoba has planned carefully for the return to campus for the Fall term, both virtually and physically. The University’s ResUMe 2020/21 Covid-19 Recovery Plan outlines all the processes by which faculties and units will resume limited operations, is based on the advice of provincial health authorities, and reflects five guiding principles:

1. The health and safety of students, staff, faculty and visitors is the overarching priority.
2. All students, staff and faculty will work remotely unless approval has been granted to work on campus.
3. Any activity on campus, whatever its nature, will be carried out while strictly respecting the constraints of public health authorities and in accordance with government guidelines and directives.
4. Recovery of on-campus activities will be gradual and in keeping with the university’s stated principles and recovery plan.
5. The university will continue to take into consideration and accommodate special circumstances for students, staff and faculty, including health conditions.

The committee structure that oversees the University’s COVID-19 recovery efforts has been reviewed and updated and discussed with Senate. The new COVID-19 Recovery Steering Committee is chaired by Todd Mondor, Deputy Provost (Academic Planning and Programs) and will report to the Provost and Vice-President (Academic) through to the President/President’s Executive Team. The Steering Committee will receive recommendations from four teams: Academic, chaired by Mark Torchia, Vice-Provost (Teaching and Learning); Research, chaired by Jay Doering, Associate Vice-President (Research and International); Health and Safety, chaired by Marcia Anderson, Vice-Dean, Indigenous Health, Rady Faculty of Health Sciences; and Operations, chaired by Andrew Konowalchuk, Associate Vice-President (Administration).

The Royal Society of Canada (RSC) announced the election of two UM professors as Fellows of the RSC, Dr. Joan Durrant (Community Health Sciences) and Dr. Thomas Nesmith (History), and Canada Research Chair in Population Health, Dr. Marcelo Urquia (Community Health Sciences/Manitoba Centre for Health Policy) has been elected as member of the RSC’s College of New Scholars, Artists and Scientists.

- Durrant is a world-renowned scholar in child maltreatment prevention whose research has revolutionized professional practice and public policy, while also supporting families in their local communities.
- Nesmith has had an impact on scholarship in Canada by leading the transformation of the study of archives from a marginal academic subject into a vibrant body of complex theoretical and applied research.
- Urquia is internationally recognized for his contributions to the reproductive health of immigrants and the social determinants of marginalized groups’ health and well-being.
Fellows, members and award winners from across the country will be officially inducted and honoured during the annual Celebration of Excellence and Engagement, Nov. 23-29, in Toronto. The event will be a weeklong scholarly, scientific and artistic exploration combining in-person activities with enhanced digital engagement.

These new inductees bring UM’s number to 51 RSC Fellows and 10 Members of the College of New Scholars, Artists and Scientists.

First day enrolment numbers for Fall term, though subject to change, show an increase in overall enrolment from the first day of Fall term 2019 of 2.7 per cent, comprising an increase of 1.4 per cent in full-time enrolment and 3.7 per cent in part time enrolment.

ACADEMIC MATTERS

- Kelsey Wog, plant biotechnology student and UM Bison was named the winner of the 2020 Lieutenant Governor Athletic Awards, as U SPORTS Female Athlete of the Year for the 2019-20 season. She is the second Bison to be named U SPORTS Athlete of the Year, and first since basketball star Terri-Lee Johannesson in 1997.

- Dr. Vanessa Poliquin, obstetrics, gynecology and reproductive sciences, was awarded the Canadian Medical Association Award for Young Leaders (Early Career). Dr. Poliquin is one of two Canadian physicians to receive the award which is given annually to doctors who have demonstrated exemplary dedication and leadership, shown creativity and initiative, and acted as a positive role model for colleagues and peers.

- Arezou Zaresani, economics, was awarded the 2020 Young Economists Award by the International Institute of Public Finance (IIPF). The "IIPF Young Economists Award" was instituted in 2008, with the aim of encouraging young scholars who present their papers at the IIPF Annual Congress.

This award is administered through the Canadian Clay and Glass Gallery and celebrates artists who have been working in ceramics professionally for ten years or less and show exceptional dedication, quality, and innovation in their practice.
• Faculty member Katherine Boyer, School of Art, was included in an Exhibition of unprecedented scope called Kwaata-nihtaawakihk – A Hard Birth, at the Winnipeg Art Gallery. This exhibition commemorates the 150th anniversary of the founding of the Province of Manitoba. Katherine Boyer was one of four artists commissioned to create new work to be exhibited along-side archival documents, historic objects, and the work of 15 contemporary Indigenous artists. Because of COVID-19 the exhibition was postponed until 2022.

• The Canadian Society of Animal Science recently announced their 2020 award recipients: Martin Nyachoti, Animal Science, received the Technical Innovation in Enhancing Production of Safe Affordable Food; Laurie Connor and Karin Wittenberg were both awarded Honorary Lifetime Memberships.

• Bradley Feltham, Food and Human Nutritional Sciences Ph.D. student, received the Prairie Indigenous Knowledge Exchange Network (PIKE-Net) Graduate Fellowship as well as FGS Doctoral Award for Indigenous Students.

• Joanne Thiessen Martens, Soil Science Ph.D. student, received this year’s Karl Ivarson Scholarship, which is awarded annually to students in soil science and related disciplines.

• Biosystems Engineering students were winners of the 2020 Canadian Society for Bio Engineering (CSBE/SCGAB) awards. George Dyck received the Undergraduate Thesis Award and Navjot Brar Kaur received the Graduate Thesis Award (M.Sc.). Eva Kwok received the Undergraduate Scholarship, which is presented to a student member of the Society with the highest GPA in the preceding semester.

• Max Rady College of Medicine student Jakob Weirathmueller received a Canadian Medical Hall of Fame (CMHF) award. Second-year medical students with an established track record of community leadership, superior communication skills and demonstrated interest in advancing knowledge are recognized with the CMHF award.

• First-year medical students began their journey to becoming doctors after reciting the Physician’s Pledge at this year’s Inaugural Day Exercises and White Coat Ceremony. The 110 members of the Class of 2024 cloaked themselves in their first white coats in keeping with safety protocols and physical distancing during the COVID-19 pandemic.

• A new undergraduate program in Data Science is slated to start in the fall 2021. This program is interdisciplinary; combining a foundation in mathematics, statistics, and computer science with newly developed courses in data science projects from across the disciplinary fields, applications to broad swatches of industry, and a strong coop component.

• Graduate students in Faculty of Science will have the opportunity to participate in a series of interactive workshops on science communication to earn a Certificate of Science Communication. Interactive workshops will inspire students to foster science literacy in communities, which is especially relevant in this time of misinformation.
• A new Faculty of Science Lead for Equity Diversity and Community (EDC) was established and started by leading a survey to poll Science faculty on their EDI (Equity, Diversity and Inclusion) priorities to help guide directions moving forward. EDI seminars will be part of the faculty’s regular seminar series going forward, with twice-yearly EDI presentations joining our repertoire of interdisciplinary science, pedagogy, and Indigenous Science talks.

• The new Science Public Online Talk (SPOT) series was launched in May, featuring presentations for a general audience by Science alumni (including our Nobel Prize winner Jim Peebles) and faculty. This series was initiated to create an inclusive and informed science ecosystem, support student engagement, and bring the community together (virtually) during covid-19.

• As part of the new Science Kindness Initiative, which seeks to remind us of all the helping and guiding hands we benefit from each and every day in science and our support for one another, science kindness masks were designed distributed to the faculty and staff.

• The Faculty of Science has launched the Indigenous Wawatay Project, a comprehensive approach to recruiting, retaining and graduating highly motivated Indigenous students. Named the Wawatay (Anishinaabe for Northern Lights) Project is aimed to dramatically change the environment for Indigenous students at both the undergraduate and graduate levels by infusing an appreciation of Indigenous approaches, engaging students in research early and often, and growing their science proficiency.

RESEARCH MATTERS

• At this time, research at the University of Manitoba (UM) is continuing remotely to the extent possible. UM has developed a phased approach to the recovery, cautiously resuming critical research and essential activities on our campuses, while ensuring a strong focus on health and safety. We are currently in Phase 3: September 1 to December 31 (Fall Term). Details on the phased approach for the campus can be found on the webpage COVID-19 UM Recovery: Resources and Updates. Details on the guiding principles, process for requesting access and preventative measures are available in the updated Researcher FAQs section of the COVID-19 webpage.

• In June, five outstanding UM graduate students were awarded 2019 Vanier Canada Graduate Scholarships. These awards, considered the Canadian equivalent of the United Kingdom’s Rhodes Scholarships, help recruit and keep in Canada top doctoral students from across the country and around the world. Each recipient will receive $150,000 over three years towards their research programs. The recipients are:
  o Javad Alizadeh, Human Anatomy & Cell Science, will study how the recycling of old and damaged parts of the cell can control the escape of lung cancer to other organs, thanks to support from the Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR).
  o Ashley Hayward, Peace and Conflict Studies, will begin her project titled: “Incarcerated mother’s experience with pregnancy and childbirth: A narrative inquiry,” thanks to support from CIHR.
  o Sarah Turner, Community Health Sciences/Children’s Hospital Research Institute of Manitoba, will gain an understanding of the link between breastfeeding and child behaviour in the Canadian CHILD birth cohort study, thanks to support from CIHR.
Rachel Nickel, Physics & Astronomy, will begin her project titled: “Building magnetic nanoparticles to eliminate bacterial biofilms: A common source of hospital acquired infections,” thanks to support from the Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council of Canada (NSERC).

Belal Zia, Psychology, will begin his study titled: “Developing an educational intervention to improve treatment seeking attitudes and intentions among Canadian Muslims,” thanks to support from the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council (SSHRC).

In addition to the five Vanier Scholarships awarded, the federal government also announced the awarding of a total of $2,205,000 in scholarships to 71 UM master’s and doctoral student researchers through the Canada Graduate Scholarship programs (including Frederick Banting and Charles Best, Alexander Graham Bell, Joseph-Armand Bombardier scholarships, funded by the three granting agencies).

• Professor Tracie Afifi (Community Health Sciences/Psychiatry), a world-renowned expert in child maltreatment and mental health, has been awarded a Tier 1 Canada Research Chair (CRC) in Childhood Adversity and Resilience. The award provides $1.4 million over seven years for her research through the Canada Research Chair Program and Canadian Institutes of Health Research. Her research uses a public health approach to understand how the experiences of child maltreatment are associated with negative mental and physical health outcomes. Her research focuses on preventive efforts and has proposed innovative research questions that go beyond clinical observations with the examination of nationally representative data. Regularly quoted in international and national media outlets, she has informed the global debate on not using physical punishment as a means of child discipline.

• The 2019 Winnipeg Rh Institute Foundation Awards recipients were celebrated on September 22. Distinguished Professor Dr. Aniruddha Gole, Electrical and Computer Engineering, NSERC Industrial Research Chair in Power Systems Simulation was awarded the Dr. John M. Bowman Memorial Winnipeg Rh Institute Foundation Award. Due to the global pandemic, an online celebration was held to honour the recipients.

• The 2019 Terry G. Falconer Memorial Rh Institute Foundation Emerging Researcher Awards were also celebrated. These awards recognize academic staff members who are in the early stages of their careers and who display exceptional innovation, leadership and promise in their respective fields. The recipients were:
  o Applied Sciences – Dr. Guozhen Zhu (Mechanical Engineering)
  o Health Sciences – Dr. Kellie Thiessen (Nursing); Dr. Frederick Zeiler (Surgery)
  o Humanities – Dr. Jonathan Peyton (Environment and Geography)
  o Interdisciplinary – Dr. Pingzhao Hu (Biochemistry and Medical Genetics)
  o Natural Sciences – Dr. Jacob Burgess (Physics and Astronomy)
  o Social Sciences – Dr. Will Oxford (Linguistics)
Thirty-three researchers received a total of $10,887,902 in grant funding for 34 COVID-19 related research projects:

ADMINISTRATIVE MATTERS

- The Office of Sustainability is planning events to celebrate Sustainability Month (October), by highlighting sustainability work taking place on-campus and giving sustainability tips while working or studying from home. These events include weekly ‘Green Flicks’, Expert Chats featuring UM researchers, the Waste Reduction and Management survey for Waste Reduction Week (October 19-25) as well as other fun facts on social media.

- UM Dining Services and the Office of Sustainability are working together to implement a reusable food container program in Pembina Hall. This program will use tokens that students will initially have to purchase and exchange for container usage at every takeaway meal. This will run as a pilot project with the goal being to have this program in all food services locations on campus.
• The Office of Sustainability in partnership with Learning and Organizational Development has created an online Sustainability 101 course aimed at increasing sustainability knowledge and actions of UM staff and faculty. The course offers an overview of basic sustainability principles, real world examples of sustainability, overview of campus sustainability and resources and develops the participant’s skills to take action in their department. First offering will be in October 2020.

• A new Data Classification guideline and Data Storage guidelines were created jointly with the Access and privacy office and will be published in September 2020.

• Office 365 Student/Staff tenant merger was successfully completed. Over 110,000 student and alumni accounts were migrated from the student tenant to the staff tenant, including all e-mail content for over 40,000 enrolled students.

• Staff Relations is actively bargaining with UMFA, CUPE 3909 Units 1 and 2, and AESES. The CUPE 1482 collective agreement has also expired, but they have not yet indicated an interest in beginning negotiations.

• Learning & Organizational Development (LOD) launched the UM Human Resources Essentials Program (UMHREP) in August. This certificate program provides a comprehensive foundation in how HR functions are performed at the university. Developed by subject matter experts throughout Human Resources, the program includes workshops relating to the employee life cycle, hiring, development, and staff relations and concludes with a capstone panel presentation where participants demonstrate learning by proposing a solution to a practical case to a panel of their peers and representatives from HR.

• In order to support employees working remotely, Learning & Organizational Development (LOD) has doubled the number of workshop sessions available this fall in a synchronous online format for groups and teams. Fourteen sessions are now available ranging from 90 minutes to three hours and are designed to support groups in communication and collaboration through engaging learning activities. These sessions are a valuable tool to help team building and provide a creative space for groups to virtually gather to learn and connect. New offerings include Social Intelligence: Building Impactful Relationships, Time Management, Virtual Meetings, Conversation Skills, Decision Making, and Respect in the Workplace.

• In June, Learning & Organizational Development (LOD) offered a new, online series of Managers’ Forums to support supervisors and managers transitioning to leading their teams remotely. Three forums were held on the topics of Communication, Collaboration and Community Building.

• On June 22, 2020 both Access Copyright and York University sought leave to appeal the Federal Court of Appeal decision respecting the applicability of the Access Copyright tariffs and fairness of York’s Fair Dealing Guidelines to the Supreme Court of Canada. At the Federal Court of Appeal the Access Copyright tariffs were found to be non-mandatory for post-secondary institutions, and York’s guidelines (which are similar to those used in educational institutions throughout Canada) were found to be unfair. This case has ongoing significance for copyright management practices at the University of Manitoba and in post-secondary institutions across Canada.
• The Legal Office is working on the creation of a Brief and Temporary Student Absence Policy that establish a process for students to submit documentation when an absence due to brief illness will cause them to miss a for-credit assignment or assessment. This Procedure would create unified process across UM programs, would increase our ability to keep track of student absences and better assess when students may need accommodations or supports, and will reduce demands on the healthcare system by eliminating the existing requirement of a doctor’s note for illness-related absences. The Legal Office is incorporating feedback received from stakeholder consultations, and anticipate that the newest draft will be provided to our collective bargaining units for consultation in mid-September.

• The Legal Office been reviewing, negotiating, and finalizing several clinical trials agreements related to the COVID-19 virus, as well as a number of material transfer agreements and data sharing agreements, which are also related to COVID-19 related research. The legal office has negotiated clinical trial agreements for sites in numerous countries including Canada, the USA, and Brazil.

• The Access and Privacy Office, Legal Office, and Copyright Office worked with IST Security and Compliance and the Centre for the Advancement of Teaching and Learning to create guidance documents for the University community to ensure the tools and processes used in virtual classrooms are compliant with privacy and copyright regulation, are safe and secure, and that they support academic integrity.

EXTERNAL RELATIONS

• Communications support around the safe return to campus and virtual learning is ongoing. New information is being actively communicated through UM news and social media channels, and using a variety of tools including videos, newsletters, emails and digital and print signage.

• Donor activity is beginning to increase and several $1M+ philanthropic gifts have been confirmed in the current reporting period. Plans to publicly announce these significant investments are underway.

• Virtual Learning for Life, a nine-week seminar series sponsored by our affinity partner, IA Financial Group, was hosted in May and June. With nearly 1,100 alumni and friends registering for at least one of the sessions and based on very positive feedback, we will be hosting a fall program series beginning on September 30. Many thanks to the UM faculty members who shared their research with our alumni community during these sessions.

• UM Café on 10,000 Coffees, a Canadian-based online career-mentoring platform sponsored by RBC Future Launch, was launched in mid-June as a collaboration between Alumni Relations and Career Services. This program enables alumni and students/new graduates to connect online to share career journey advice and guidance. Over 1,600 alumni and students have joined the program to date.
UM’s first-ever online book club was launched in early June, sponsored by the Alumni Association. The first book – The Glass Castle – was selected by the book club host, Chancellor Anne Mahon, and the second book – The Break – written by Winnipeg author Katherena Vermette – was selected by book club members. Over 600 alumni and friend members from around the world have joined the book club to date.

To mark the 40th anniversary of the Marathon of Hope, John Kearsey, Vice-President (External), joins 39 revered Canadians in recounting Terry Fox’s legacy in Forever Terry: A Legacy in Letters released on September 1. The release of the book has received extensive national and international recognition.

Migration of web content to the newly designed umanitoba.ca continues, targeting an early 2021 completion. The Student Viewbook, a key marketing tool targeted to prospective students, is now available in a digital format for the first time.

Preparations continue for the UM Intranet, targeting an initial launch in late 2020 with migrations continuing into 2021.

For the first time in its 99-year history, the Alumni Association will hold its Annual General Meeting virtually on September 30 from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. CT. Guest speakers include the Honourable Janice Filmon, Lieutenant Governor of Manitoba, President Benarroch and John Kearsey, Vice-President (External). Please join Alumni Association Chair, Peter Wheatley, and fellow alumni from around the world for the AGM. All are welcome to attend.

Fall Homecoming 2020 will be celebrated through a virtual ceremony on October 22 with President Benarroch, Chancellor Mahon and our Deans delivering congratulatory messages to the Class of 2020 along with a virtual student procession.

Homecoming 2020 will not be celebrated in any official capacity either in-person or virtually and all in-person milestone reunion celebrations have been postponed to 2021.

The Distinguished Alumni Awards (DAA) Celebration of Excellence gala event scheduled for October 1, has been cancelled. Instead, the nine DAA recipients will be announced in the Fall 2020 issue of UM Today: The Magazine and an in-person celebration will be hosted in 2021.

President Benarroch and John Kearsey, Vice-President (External) met with Premier Brian Pallister on September 14, and will meet with the Treasury Board in October 2020 to discuss the University’s commitment to advancing the province’s economic strategy and shared priorities.
Important Note

As a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, most on-campus courses have shifted to delivery through remote-learning, with a small number of courses offered in person. These changes will have varying effects on faculties, colleges, and schools, and will affect the comparability of some year-over-year figures.

Fall Term Enrolment

Student enrolment for the First Day of Classes is 30,888, surpassing last year’s First Day record enrolment, and marks the first time that the University of Manitoba has been above 30,000 students on first day. Overall enrolment increased 3.7% from last year’s First Day enrolment of 29,793. Full-time enrolment increased 1.4%, from 25,709 students to 26,060 students, while part-time enrolment increased 18.2%, from 4,084 to 4,828.

Undergraduate enrolment increased 4.2%, from 25,613 students in Fall Term 2019 to 26,679 students in Fall Term 2020. Graduate enrolment increased by 38 students, or 1.1%, from 3,476 students to 3,514 students.

International enrolment increased from 5,811 students in Fall Term 2019 to 6,249 students in Fall Term 2020, an increase of 7.5%.

Indigenous enrolment increased from 2,426 students in Fall Term 2019 to 2,537 students in Fall Term 2020, an increase of 4.6%.

Undergraduate student credit hours were up 4.5%, from 281,171 in Fall Term 2019 to 293,874 in Fall Term 2020. Distance and Online Education credit hours, excluding remote-learning, increased 29.0%, from 31,638 credit hours in Fall Term 2019 to 40,799 credit hours in Fall Term 2020.

Next Reporting Period

The next set of enrolment reports for the 2020 Fall Term will follow in two weeks, after the end of the course change period.

AGENDA ITEM:

Revisions to the Respectful Work and Learning Environment Policy, Sexual Assault Policy, and RWLE and Sexual Assault Procedure

RECOMMENDED RESOLUTION:

THAT the Board of Governors approves:

- The revisions to the Respectful Work and Learning Environment Policy
- The revisions to the Sexual Assault Policy
- The revisions to the RWLE and Sexual Assault Procedure

CONTEXT AND BACKGROUND:

The Advanced Education Administration Act requires a comprehensive review to the University’s sexual violence policy every four years. Further, the University has made an internal commitment in the existing Sexual Assault Policy to review every three years. The Respectful Work and Learning Environment (RWLE) Policy and the Sexual Assault Policy were most recently revised as of September 1, 2016, and the Policy Review Committee has been working on this current review process since 2017.

In addition, changes to policy were recommended in the Responding to Sexual Violence, Harassment & Discrimination at the University of Manitoba: A Path Forward (the Path Forward Report). Where possible, these recommendations have been incorporated into the current policy drafts.

The following general changes have been made to the RWLE Policy and the renamed Sexual Violence Policy and Disclosures and Complaints Procedure:

- All three documents have seen some structural modifications in order to increase comprehension and allow them to be read more effectively.
- The Sexual Assault Policy and the RWLE and Sexual Assault Procedure have been renamed the Sexual Violence Policy and the Disclosures and Complaints Procedures (respectively). These titles better reflect the function of the governing documents.
- Sexual harassment has been removed from the RWLE Policy. Both sexual harassment and sexual assault are now addressed under the newly named Sexual Violence Policy in order that all behaviour relating to sexual violence be housed within the same governing document.
- Clarification on the difference between a “Disclosure” and a “Formal Complaint” has been added and a specific definition of “Disclosure” has been introduced. An individual who discloses to the Office of Human Rights and Conflict Management (OHRCM) may receive accommodations and/or supports without filing a Formal Complaint.
• There is now an updated definition of “Consent” that explains that consent must be expressed at the time of the activity, rejecting the idea of “advanced consent”.
• Intersectionality is now referenced as part of the Guiding Principles in the new Sexual Violence Policy and is included as a definition. The addition of “Intersectionality” falls in line with the University’s overall commitment to furthering efforts of equity, diversity, and inclusion.
• Additional language has been included to emphasize the University’s commitment to protect its members from reprisal. Many community members expressed fear around reprisals. Adding examples in the definitions will ensure information about protections from reprisal is included near the beginning of the document.
• Language in all documents has been changed for clarity:
  o What was previously referred to as a “Report” is now referred to as a “Formal Complaint”.
  o The definition of “Informal Resolution” has been added in all documents.
  o The definition of “Disclosure” has been added in the new Sexual Violence Policy and the new Procedure.
  o Per the above, the term “Formal Complaint” now provides more clarity, and also shows that Formal Complaints are distinct from Disclosures and Informal Resolution processes. These terms were not well defined in the previous policies, or were used in ways that caused confusion.
• In order to ensure that supports and resources are known and accessible to the University Community, language and commitments regarding supports and resources have been added to the documents. Accommodations, safety planning and online resources have been highlighted within the new documents.

Key Changes to Each Governing Document

Respectful Work and Learning Environment Policy

• With respect to the new RWLE Policy, information on Sexual Harassment has been removed from the RWLE Policy and placed in the Sexual Violence Policy. As a result, all behaviour that constitutes sexual violence will be housed under the same policy.

Sexual Assault Policy

Based on provisions within The Advanced Education Administration Act, as well as feedback from our community members, the new Policy has been expanded to include all acts of sexual violence and has been renamed to better reflect its purpose. Overall changes are listed as follows:

• The Sexual Assault Policy has been renamed the Sexual Violence Policy.
• All behaviour that constitutes sexual violence is now housed under the Sexual Violence Policy.
• Sections on “Guiding Principles”, “University Commitments”, “University Community Responsibilities”, and “Education and Training” have been added. These changes more clearly reflect the purpose of the Policy and have been expanded to:
  o Include the recognition of impacts of societal factors;
  o Highlight the need for a collective effort from the University Community in order to address sexual violence; and,
Emphasize the University’s commitment to pursuing and providing access to educational materials and training opportunities related to sexual violence.

- A definition of Sexual Violence has been added to the Policy in accordance with definitions provided by The Advanced Education Administration Act.
- All components of annual reporting have been formalized. The new Policy has been expanded to require that annual reporting include anonymized data relating to complainants and respondents, observations regarding the Policy’s impact and information on activities undertaken to promote awareness and prevention. These changes provide the University with insight into the effectiveness of its programing and potential patterns within its community.

Disclosure and Complaints Procedure

The new Procedure aims to clarify for students, staff and faculty what their individual and collective rights and responsibilities are with respect to harassment, discrimination and sexual violence. Generally, the following changes have been made:

- The RWLE and Sexual Assault Procedure has been renamed the Disclosures and Complaints Procedure. This change is being made in response to feedback suggesting that the previous title created confusion for respondents as to whether they were the subject of a complaint of sexual violence or a complaint under the RWLE Policy.
- The new Procedure has been expanded to include additional information on the Informal Resolutions process. This will allow members to better understand that informal resolution alternatives are available to them beyond Formal Complaints.
- Similar to the new Sexual Violence Policy, a definition of Sexual Violence has been added to the Procedure in accordance with definitions provided by The Advanced Education Administration Act.
- The OHRCM’s practice has always been trauma-informed, but the previous Procedure lacked explicit language prohibiting questions regarding past sexual history and sexual activity. Based on feedback from community members, an express prohibition has been added.
- The investigation practice has never included cross-examination. This practice is now explicitly prohibited within the new Procedure.
- Additional information has been included to better define interim measures and explain how they are imposed.
- The new Procedure provides that the University will not pursue disciplinary action should an individual come forward with a Disclosure or Formal Complaint that involves alcohol or substance use.
- Many community members expressed the desire for either extending the limitation period of one year for filing formal complaints, or removing the limitation period entirely. The University must balance its procedural fairness obligations with the reality that those who experience trauma from sexual violence can take longer than one year to disclose. Following the recommendation from the Path Forward Report, the limitation period for disclosing or filing a complaint has been removed, although the OHRCM may decline to proceed should there be reason to believe that the passage of time will have a material impact on fairness.
- A section has been added that explains the difference between Formal Investigations and Disclosures. Importantly, the new Procedure sets out some of the many supports and resources available to individuals coming forward.
- Many community members expressed general concern over confidentiality obligations for themselves, the University, and others who are involved in an Investigation. To address this, sections have been added in order to clarify confidentiality obligations and expectations at various stages of a Formal Complaint.
- The new Procedure includes a provision that would, in rare cases, allow the University to disclose limited information regarding the process to impacted groups, Faculties or Departments. This would only occur in instances where an entire group has been affected by a Formal Complaint or Disclosure to ensure that group members are informed of the process and know that the University is taking steps to address the Formal Complaint or Disclosure.

RESOURCE REQUIREMENTS:

None.

CONNECTION TO THE UNIVERSITY PLANNING FRAMEWORK:

The policy consultations and revision process is part of a larger initiative by the University of Manitoba to foster a safer campus and create a culture of consent, and are consistent with the University’s values of accountability, equity and inclusion.

IMPLICATIONS:

Revising these policies will ensure that the University is both compliant with its obligations under provincial legislation and consistent with best practices. As President Barnard noted in September 2019 with the release of the Path Forward Report, implementing the Report’s Recommendations will require consistent focus by the University.

ALTERNATIVES:

The alternative to approving these proposed revisions would mean leaving the current versions of the policies in place, and would result in the University being noncompliant with its statutory requirements under The Advanced Education Administration Act as of September 2020.

CONSULTATION:

The review committee was co-chaired by the Associate Vice-President (Fair Practices & Legal Affairs) and the Vice-Provost (Students), and included among other members the Associate Vice-President (Human Resources), the Vice-Provost (Academic Affairs), the Vice-Provost (Graduate Education), the Chief Risk Officer, the Provost’s Faculty Relations Officer, and the Director of Student Advocacy and Case Management.

Community consultation on potential revisions to the RWLE Policy, Sexual Assault Policy, and the RWLE and Sexual Assault Procedure took place from May 2018 to November 2018.

Consultation Process

Feedback for the policies was sought through several means, including an online feedback website, in-person targeted consultation sessions, community town hall sessions, as well as through written requests for feedback from stakeholder groups.

Diversity and representation were prioritized in the consultation process, and feedback was sought from a variety of areas and groups from all University of Manitoba campus locations.

Community members were eager to participate in the process: the University received 124 unique responses through the online feedback website, and spoke with nearly 260 community members through in-person sessions and town halls. The feedback and suggestions received were key in influencing changes to our policies.

ATTACHMENTS:

- Respectful Work and Learning Environment Policy
- Sexual Violence Policy
- Disclosures and Complaints Procedure
Part I
Reason for Policy

1.1 The University of Manitoba does not condone behaviour that is likely to undermine the dignity, self-esteem or productivity of any of its members and prohibits any form of discrimination or harassment whether it occurs on University property or in conjunction with University-related activities. The University of Manitoba is committed to providing an inclusive and respectful work and learning environment, free from discrimination or harassment as prohibited in the Manitoba Human Rights Code; and also an environment that does not detract from the academic freedom of the University’s Academic Staff.

1.2 The reason for this Policy is to:

(a) Promote and support a respectful work and learning environment at the University; and

(b) Ensure compliance with relevant legislation, including The Human Rights Code (Manitoba), The Workplace Safety and Health Regulation (Manitoba), and The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (Manitoba).
Part II
Policy Content

Definitions

2.1 The following terms are defined for the purpose of this Policy:

(a) "Academic Staff" refers to all individuals whose primary assignment is instruction, research, and/or service/academic administration. This includes employees who hold an academic rank such as professor, associate professor, assistant professor, instructor, lecturer, librarian, or the equivalent of any of those academic ranks. 2.16 The University recognizes that those impacted by Discrimination, Harassment, or Sexual Violence may be reluctant to come forward for fear of being sanctioned for alcohol or other substance use. Disclosures

2.17 University Community members impacted by Discrimination, Harassment, or Sexual Violence are encouraged to Disclose their experiences to the Office of Human Rights and Conflict Management. There is no time limit or limitation period for making a Disclosure. University Community members may choose to make Disclosures for a variety of reasons, including to access supports and resources. University Community members who make Disclosures will have access to supports and resources whether or not they choose to make a Formal Complaint. A Disclosure is not a Formal Complaint and will not ordinarily initiate an Investigation. However, the University may initiate an investigation in response to a Disclosure in accordance with section 2.56 of this Procedure.

2.18 When responding to Disclosures, the Office of Human Rights and Conflict Management will refrain from questions or comments that imply judgment or blaming of the person making the Disclosure (such as questions or comments about the dress, conduct, language, emotional disposition, past sexual history, consumption of alcohol or drugs, or about the timing of the Disclosure).

2.19 A person receiving a Disclosure may be required to share the information they receive if:

(a) Provide reasonable work accommodations, in consultation with Human Resources; and

(b) Create a safety plan in consultation with the Unit Head, UMSS, and other offices as appropriate.

2.22 The University will maintain online resources to support those affected by Discrimination, Harassment or Sexual Violence, with links to on-campus and off-
INFORMAL RESOLUTION

2.23 Subject to section 2.32 of this Procedure, the OHRCM will provide information to both the Complainant and Respondent regarding the opportunities and resources available to facilitate Informal Resolution of an alleged Breach.

2.24 After the OHRCM has received a Disclosure or Formal Complaint, the University may, on its own initiative or at the request of the Complainant and/or the Respondent, explore proceeding by Informal Resolution. This process may occur before or during an Investigation.

2.25 In order to engage in Informal Resolution, the Complainant(s) and Respondent(s) must all voluntarily agree to the process.

2.26 The University retains the ability to conduct an Investigation even if a Complainant and/or Respondent requests Informal Resolution.

2.27 Informal Resolution may include but is not limited to: a restorative justice process, mediation or facilitated conversation between the participants, conflict coaching, an apology, a recognition of impact statement or letter, or an expectation letter or agreement.

2.28 Information disclosed by participants during the Informal Resolution process will not be made available to Investigators.

2.29 If the Informal Resolution process results in a resolution that the Complainant(s), the Respondent(s), and the University agree to, the terms of resolution will be put in writing. A copy of the terms of resolution will be confidentially retained by the University and will not be placed in official student or employment files except where necessary to enforce the terms of resolution.

2.30 Where an Informal Resolution is conducted during an Investigation and results in terms of resolution, the University will inform the Investigator and terminate the Investigation.

2.31 Where an Informal Resolution is conducted, but does not result in a resolution, a Complainant or the University may continue or pursue a Formal Complaint under this Procedure.

2.32 The OHRCM may decide not to facilitate an Informal Resolution process where:

(a) Successful resolution is unlikely; or
(b) A full Investigation would better serve the University and the purposes of the Respectful Work and Learning Environment Policy and/or the Sexual Violence Policy.

Making a Formal Complaint

2.33 Any person, whether or not a member of the University Community, may contact the OHRCM to make a Formal Complaint regarding Discrimination, Harassment, Sexual Violence, or Reprisal. Any other concerns regarding conduct or conflict that is not supportive of a respectful work and learning environment should be addressed with the appropriate manager, Academic Staff, or Unit Head responsible for the affected environment, in accordance with section 2.6 of the Respectful Work and Learning Environment Policy.

2.34 If a Complainant wishes a Disclosure to be the subject of an Investigation, the Complainant will file a Formal Complaint with the Office of Human Rights and Conflict Management. Complainants are encouraged to file Formal Complaints as soon after the reported incident(s) as possible. Early disclosure can help the University provide Complainants with supports, preserve evidence, better ensure the integrity of an Investigation, and address community safety issues in a timely manner.

2.35 Where the Complainant is not the person against whom the Breach is alleged to have occurred, the OHRCM will have discretion:

(a) Not to accept the Formal Complaint unless the person against whom the Breach is alleged to have occurred consents to the filing of the Formal Complaint; or

(b) To conduct a Preliminary Assessment and/or recommend a University-Instituted Investigation.

Preliminary Assessment of Formal Complaints

2.36 The OHRCM or their delegate will conduct a Preliminary Assessment for each Formal Complaint to determine whether or not an Investigation should proceed in accordance with this Procedure. Except in extenuating circumstances, the OHRCM or their delegate will complete a Preliminary Assessment of a Formal Complaint within 30 working days of receiving the Formal Complaint. The person conducting a Preliminary Assessment may not be appointed as an Investigator in that same matter.

2.37 A Formal Complaint will not proceed to Investigation, and no further action is required by the OHRCM or the University, if the Formal Complaint does not meet the requirements of section 2.1(k) of this Procedure.

2.38 Notwithstanding section 2.37 of this Procedure, the OHRCM may exercise its discretion to accept a non-compliant Formal Complaint in extenuating circumstances or to bring a non-compliant Formal Complaint to the attention of the Designated Officer for consideration of a University Instituted Investigation.

2.39 In making their Preliminary Assessment, the OHRCM will consider whether:

(a) The Formal Complaint deals with a Breach to which the Respectful Work and Learning Environment Policy, the Sexual Violence Policy, or this Procedure applies;

(b) The Formal Complaint appears credible and to have been made in good faith;

(c) The issues disclosed by the Formal Complaint have not been or are not in the process of being addressed pursuant to a collective agreement or University policy, procedure or bylaw, which would deal comprehensively with the alleged Breach;

(d) The issues disclosed by the Formal Complaint would more appropriately be dealt with in another forum or through another process;

(e) An Investigation would support the principles under the Respectful Work and Learning Environment Policy and/or the Sexual Violence Policy;

(f) Proceeding to an Investigation would create any issues regarding prejudice or fairness.

2.40 The OHRCM will advise the Complainant in writing of the decision on the Preliminary Assessment. Where the Formal Complaint will not proceed to an Investigation, the OHRCM will include brief reasons for the decision. Where the Preliminary Assessment was not completed within 30 working days, the Complainant will also be informed as to the reason for the delay.

2.41 A Formal Complaint that is not accepted to proceed to an Investigation after Preliminary Assessment and appeal of the Preliminary Assessment, if any, will require no further action by the OHRCM or by the University.

Appeal of Preliminary Assessment

2.42 If a Formal Complaint is dismissed on Preliminary Assessment, the Complainant may appeal the decision by giving notice and submissions in writing to the Designated Officer within 10 working days from the date of receipt of the decision. The submissions must include:

(a) An explanation of the reasons for the appeal, with specific reference to section 2.43 of this Procedure;

(b) A copy of the letter of decision; and
(c) A copy of all of the documentation submitted with the Formal Complaint (no new documentation can be submitted at this time).

2.43 The reasons for an appeal of a Preliminary Assessment include:

(a) Failure to follow the Respectful Work and Learning Environment Policy, the Sexual Violence Policy, or this Procedure;

(b) Failure to reasonably consider all factors relevant to the decision being appealed;

(c) Failure to comply with applicable legislation.

2.44 In the event of an appeal of a Preliminary Assessment, the University will establish the Human Rights Advisory Committee, with a membership consisting of:

(a) The Associate Vice-President (Human Resources) or designate;

(b) The Vice-Provost (Students) or designate; and

(c) The Vice-Provost (Academic Affairs) or designate, provided that the designate holds an academic appointment with the University.

2.45 Members of the Human Rights Advisory Committee will have training in the diverse ways in which trauma and Intersectionality affect individuals.

2.46 The Designated Officer will immediately forward the Complainant's notice and submissions to the Committee, who will make a decision based on the written submissions within 10 working days. The Committee may:

(a) Decide that the Formal Complaint proceed to Investigation; or

(b) Confirm the decision not to proceed to Investigation.

2.47 The Committee will provide brief written reasons for its decision to the OHRCM and the Complainant. The decision of the Committee will be final.

2.48 The Committee may develop and adopt additional guidelines and other documents secondary to and consistent with the Respectful Work and Learning Environment Policy, the Sexual Violence Policy and this Procedure for the process of appeal of a Preliminary Assessment.

Interim Measures

2.49 Interim measures involve the University making changes to a University Member’s living, working, and/or learning environment before an investigation is concluded in order to protect the health and safety of all University Community members.
2.50 The need for interim measures, and which measures are imposed, will be determined on a case-by-case basis. This determination will take into account the circumstances of each situation, and where practicable, may include separate consultations with the Respondent and the Complainant on whether Interim Measures are required and, if so, what Interim Measures would be just and appropriate. This consultation may be conducted by telephone or email, and must proceed expeditiously.

2.51 Interim measures will not be construed as a decision or discipline against the Complainant or Respondent. Interim measures will not be weighed against the Respondent in a disciplinary process.

2.52 A Respondent shall provide in a timely manner to the Designated Officer all documents and any other information on any civil protection orders or criminal charges and conditions, including changes in these orders, charges and conditions such as bail or conditions of release, related to the incidents giving rise to Interim Measures or a Formal Complaint.

2.53 When warranted, the Violent or Threatening Behaviour Policy may be invoked either alone or in conjunction with Interim Measures under this Policy.

2.54 Where Interim Measures are just and appropriate, the University will advise the Complainant and Respondent in writing of the decision to impose Interim Measures and brief reasons for this decision.

2.55 The Complainant or Respondent may apply to the Designated Officer requesting that the Interim Measures be revised or withdrawn if reasonable cause to believe that such measures, as originally imposed, are no longer just and appropriate. The Designated Officer may revise or withdraw Interim Measures and the Complainant and Respondent shall be advised by the Designated Officer of any changes to Interim Measures.

University Instituted Investigation

2.56 The Designated Officer may at their discretion initiate a University Instituted Investigation.

2.57 When initiating a University Instituted Investigation the Designated Officer will consider situations where:

(a) A non-compliant Formal Complaint was received, but disclosed a risk to the safety and security of the University Community;

(b) Matters come to the attention of the Designated Officer that lead them to believe there is risk to the safety and security of the University Community; or
(c) It would be more practical to conduct a single broad Investigation rather than addressing a series of Formal Complaints from two or more individuals.

2.58 The Designated Officer will be deemed to be the Complainant for the purpose of the University Instituted Investigation. The University Instituted Investigation will proceed in the same manner as an Investigation under this Procedure, with methods of investigation adapted as necessary to meet the circumstances.

Appointment of Investigator

2.59 If a Formal Complaint proceeds to an Investigation, the OHRCM will arrange for the appointment of an Investigator. Having regard to the seriousness and nature of the Formal Complaint, the OHRCM may appoint either an employee of the University or an external party to act as the Investigator for a particular Formal Complaint, provided that the Investigator:

(a) Has skills and/or experience desirable in the circumstances, including trauma-informed investigation training;

(b) Would be able to conduct the Investigation in an unbiased manner; and

(c) Would not be placed in a conflict of interest.

Investigation

2.60 The Investigator may conduct the Investigation in any manner they deem appropriate, having regard to the nature of the particular Formal Complaint, and any admissions made during the Investigation. This may include some or all of:

(a) Interviewing witnesses;

(b) Reviewing documents and records (both paper and electronic);

(c) Reviewing photographs, audio, and video recordings;

(d) Examining physical evidence;

(e) Arranging for testing of physical evidence;

(f) With the consent of participants, arranging for medical or psychological evaluations; and/or

(g) Submitting a Third Party Data Access Request Form to Information Services and Technology (IST) regarding accessing electronic systems in accordance with The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act and The Personal Health Information Act. IST will consult with Access & Privacy Office to facilitate the request.
2.61 The Complainant and Respondent will cooperate fully with the Investigator and provide any information reasonably required by the Investigator upon request. The Investigator may set reasonable timelines within which individuals must respond to requests for cooperation with the Investigation.

2.62 Where an individual does not provide reasonable cooperation with the Investigation due to refusal, retirement, severance of the work or student relationship with the University, or termination of their status as a University Community Member, the Investigator will continue the Investigation and make a determination on the information available.

2.63 The Investigator will conduct the Investigation in accordance with section 2.94 of this Procedure and in accordance with the principles of procedural fairness. The Investigator will ensure that:

(a) The Complainant is provided an opportunity to explain and provide evidence in support of the Formal Complaint;

(b) The Respondent is informed of the alleged Breach and provided a copy of the Formal Complaint;

(c) Complainants and Respondents are provided with a copy of all written replies to their own response, subject to section 2.94 of this Procedure;

(d) The Respondent is provided a reasonable opportunity to respond to the allegations. The Respondent is provided access to documentary and other evidence as required to ensure procedural fairness, subject to section 2.94 of this Procedure;

(e) The Respondent is informed that subject to section 2.94 of this Procedure, the Complainant will be provided with a copy of the Respondent's written reply for response;

(f) While strict rules of evidence do not apply, appropriate weight is given to evidence based on its credibility and reliability;

(g) Witnesses (including Complainants and Respondents) may consult with and be accompanied by a Representative; and

(h) No cross-examination is conducted as part of the Investigation.

2.64 An Investigation must normally be completed within 90 working days of the Formal Complaint being assigned to the Investigator. The OHRCM will at all times strive to oversee the completion of an Investigation within a timeline of no more than 90 working days, however in the event of extenuating circumstances the Investigator may make a request to the OHRCM for an extension of time of up to 30 working days. An Investigator may make multiple requests for extensions, but extensions may only be granted if reasonable in the circumstances and at a maximum of 30 working days at a time. The OHRCM will inform the Complainant and Respondent in writing of any extensions granted.

2.65 At the conclusion of an Investigation, the OHRCM will inform the Complainant, Respondent, and witnesses that the Investigation has concluded.

2.66 If, prior to or in the course of an Investigation:

(a) The Complainant, the Respondent, and the University engage in Informal Resolution and agree to signed terms of resolution, the University will inform the Investigator and terminate the Investigation;

(b) The Investigator discovers that another Breach may have occurred, that others may have been involved in the Breach or there has been an allegation or act of Reprisal, the Investigator may make a request to the OHRCM to expand the scope of the Investigation;

(c) A subsequent Formal Complaint, a cross-complaint, allegation or act of Reprisal, or other matters related to a violation of the Respectful Work and Learning Environment Policy, the Sexual Violence Policy, or this Procedure is raised that would most efficiently be dealt with through the same Investigation, the OHRCM may expand the scope of the Investigation; or

(d) It becomes clear that a Formal Complaint would be most efficiently and thoroughly investigated jointly with another organization or institutional partner, the OHRCM may make arrangements for a joint Investigation, so long as reasonable provisions are made to respect confidentiality.

2.67 Nothing in this Procedure is intended to prevent any Unit Head, or member of the University Community in an instructional, supervisory or managerial position, from taking reasonable and immediate steps to:

(a) Address a situation dangerous to the health or safety of the University Community in accordance with University policy, procedure, bylaw, and/or applicable collective agreements;

(b) Protect University funds or assets;

(c) Take interim measures intended to facilitate a thorough Investigation, discourage Reprisal, or prevent future Breaches; and/or

(d) Manage, and if necessary discipline, employees or students in accordance with University policy, procedure, bylaw, and/or applicable collective agreements.
Confidentiality during an Investigation

2.68 Confidentiality allows for the protection of the integrity of an Investigation, ensuring that it is free of bias. Confidentiality also provides an environment that allows for candid participation, while ensuring the protection of privacy, including the names of the Complainants and Respondents. During an Investigation, the Complainant (except where the Complainant is the Designated Officer), the Respondent, and witnesses involved must keep confidential:

(a) The existence and nature of the Investigation; and
(b) Any information or documentation obtained as a result of the Investigation; which information may only be disclosed to those who reasonably need to know. The confidentiality obligations in this section will continue until the Designated Officer has provided to the Complainant and the Respondent a summary of the Investigator’s findings and/or the Investigation Report. This section is not intended to limit the distribution of Investigation Reports as contemplated by this Procedure.

2.69 Notwithstanding section 2.68, the Complainant, the Respondent, and witnesses involved in the Investigation may:

(a) Obtain confidential advice and/or direction in relation to the Formal Complaint from a Representative;
(b) Disclose information to others only to the extent reasonably necessary to gather evidence and, in the case of a Respondent, to make full answer and defense to the allegations; and
(c) Use information obtained independent of the Investigation in any other forum.

Investigation Reports

2.70 At the conclusion of the Investigation, the Investigator will issue an Investigation Report to the Designated Officer and the OHRCM.

2.71 "Investigation Report" means a report that is issued by the Investigator at the end of an Investigation and contains, at a minimum, the following information:

(a) A summary of the Formal Complaint and the alleged Breach;
(b) A summary of the process and key timelines in the Investigation;
(c) A summary of the key evidence obtained through the Investigation, including a summary of the response of the Respondent;
(d) An indication of which key evidence was considered credible and reliable;
(e) A conclusion as to whether, on a balance of probabilities, a Breach has been committed, including identification of which individuals caused or contributed to the Breach;

(f) A summary of the Investigator's reasons for the conclusion.

Finding of No Breach of Policy

2.72 If it is determined that no Breach has occurred, the Designated Officer will provide a summary and/or the Investigation Report (either in original or redacted form), within 30 working days of receiving the Investigation Report, to the Complainant and the Respondent and all such other individuals as the Designated Officer reasonably believes necessary to protect or restore the reputation of the Respondent.

2.73 No further action will be taken and no record of the Formal Complaint will be placed on the University's official employment file or student file for the Respondent.

2.74 No record of the Formal Complaint shall be kept in the Complainant's official employment file or student file unless it is determined that the Formal Complaint was frivolous or vexatious. The University may take disciplinary action against a Complainant in cases where frivolous or vexatious Formal Complaints are submitted. A Formal Complaint made in good faith is not frivolous or vexatious because it did not result in a finding of Breach.

Finding of Breach of Policy

2.75 If it is determined that a Breach has occurred, the Designated Officer will provide a summary and/or the Investigation Report (either in original or redacted form), within 30 working days of receiving the Investigation Report, to:

(a) The Complainant;

(b) The Respondent;

(c) All such individuals as the Designated Officer believes necessary to decide upon and implement discipline, mitigation steps, or remedial measures, in accordance with section 2.80;

(d) All such individuals as the Designated Officer believes necessary to implement due diligence to prevent similar or related Breaches in the future; and

(e) Any other person required in order to comply with legal, regulatory, or contractual obligations.
2.76 When determining whether to provide an Investigation Report, a redacted Investigation Report, or a summary of an Investigation Report, the Designated Officer will consider whether the Investigation Report contains private information, including but not limited to personal health information, or sensitive content, including but not limited to the details of an incident of Sexual Violence.

2.77 In each case the summary or Investigation Report will include, at a minimum, a summary of any evidence provided by the recipient and enough information for the recipient to understand the essential nature of the Formal Complaint and whether or not a Breach was found to have occurred. Such information will be provided in accordance with The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act and The Personal Health Information Act.

DISCIPLINE

2.78 Individuals who are found in Breach of the Respectful Work and Learning Environment Policy, the Sexual Violence Policy, or this Procedure will be subject to disciplinary action as follows:

(a) Where the individual is an employee, the discipline will be implemented in accordance with applicable legislation, common law, collective agreements, and University policies, procedures or bylaws.

(b) Where the individual is a student, the discipline will be implemented in accordance with the Student Discipline Bylaw and the Student Non-Academic Misconduct and Concerning Behaviour Procedure.

(c) Where the individual is neither an employee nor a student, the Vice-President (Administration) or designate may make any determination regarding the individual's continued access to the University in accordance with the Vice-President (Administration) Bylaw.

2.79 When an individual will be subject to discipline under this Procedure, the Designated Officer will deliver the Investigation Report to the appropriate disciplinary authority.

2.80 Before deciding on or implementing any discipline, mitigation steps or other remedial measures, the Designated Officer may seek advice and guidance from appropriate individuals, which may include: the Provost and Vice-President (Academic), the OHRCM, the Associate Vice-President (Human Resources), the Vice-Provost (Academic Affairs), the Director of Staff Relations, the Vice-Provost (Students), and legal counsel.

2.81 Anonymous material may only be considered in a disciplinary decision where it would not violate the principles of procedural fairness, and it would not conflict with an applicable collective agreement.
APPEAL OF DISCIPLINE

2.82 The Respondent may appeal a disciplinary decision made against them as follows:

(a) If the Respondent is an employee, either in accordance with the appropriate grievance process defined by any applicable collective agreement, or via the Appeals by Academic or Support Staff Excluded From Bargaining Units Policy and Procedures;

(b) If the Respondent is a student, in accordance with the Student Discipline Bylaw and the Student Discipline Appeal Procedure.

PROTECTION FROM REPRISAL, RETALIATION OR THREATS

2.83 A Complainant, Respondent, witness, and/or any other person who has sought advice regarding the Respectful Work and Learning Environment Policy, the Sexual Violence Policy or this Procedure, who has brought forward allegations of a Breach, who has made a Formal Complaint, who has cooperated with an Investigation, or who has rejected a sexual solicitation or advance, is entitled to be protected from a Reprisal. An individual may complain about an alleged Reprisal, to the Investigator or to the OHRCM.

2.84 Upon observing or being notified of an alleged Reprisal the Investigator may:

(a) Investigate and include in their Investigation Report information relating to the alleged Reprisal; and

(b) If the matter is urgent, refer the information regarding an alleged Reprisal to the OHRCM.

2.85 Where the Investigator refers an urgent allegation of Reprisal to the OHRCM, the OHRCM will advise the Designated Officer and any such persons as believed necessary to discuss and implement Interim Measures. Interim Measures may be implemented by the Designated Officer or the Unit Head.

2.86 Notwithstanding the definition of Reprisal at section 2.1(x) of this Procedure, it is not a Reprisal for the University to implement discipline or take other measures against an individual if:

(a) The individual has interfered or attempted to interfere with an Investigation;

(b) The person made a Formal Complaint or allegations in bad faith;

(c) The individual has materially breached the Respectful Work and Learning Environment Policy, the Sexual Violence Policy, or this Procedure; or
(d) Discipline is otherwise warranted against the individual under applicable legislation or common law, or University policies, procedures or bylaws.

Obligations of Confidentiality by the Complainant, Respondent, and Witnesses

Obligations of Confidentiality by the Investigator

2.94 The Investigator, in conducting the Investigation, will comply with The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act and The Personal Health Information Act with respect to personal information and personal health information collected, used and disclosed in the course of the investigation. Where the Investigator is unsure of whether they may disclose particular information, they may seek advice from the University’s Access & Privacy Office. The Investigator will further ensure that individuals participating in the Investigation are only provided with such information as they may reasonably need to know to be effective witnesses, or in the case of a Respondent, to address the allegations in accordance with the principles of procedural fairness and natural justice. Subject to section 2.63 of this Procedure, individuals participating in the Investigation may not necessarily be provided with all information, documentation, the names of Complainants or other witnesses, or the full text of the Formal Complaint.

2.95 The Investigator will advise all persons involved with an Investigation as to their obligations regarding confidentiality, and the protections available to them under this Procedure.
