PART A: QUESTIONS

Note: "Service includes internal and external activities related to the research and teaching function of the University." (Section 20.A.1.2.3 of the Collective Agreement for Faculty Members; and Section 20.B.1.2.3 of the Collective Agreement for Academic Librarians.)

Note to Nominator/Applicant: Summary, comparative, and evaluative data would be particularly helpful, especially to members of the Committee who are not specialists in your area.

1. What initiatives/activities/innovations have you engaged in during 2019 that demonstrate meritorious service?

Using the six headings below [also drawn from 20.A.1.2.3 and 20.B.1.2.3] (as applicable), on an attached page, list all activities during 2019 that you wish to have considered.

- a) Participation in University, faculty, departmental, and staff committees. (Note: for Academic Librarians, include participation in Library Committees.)
- b) (i) For Faculty Members: counselling students
(ii) For Academic Librarians: providing advice and assistance to faculty and students
- c) Service in professional organizations
- d) (i) For Faculty Members: general administrative duties
(ii) For Academic Librarians: general administrative service (other than normal administrative functions)
- e) Service to the academic profession (e.g., review of grants, manuscripts)
- f) Community service, where the individual has made an essentially nonremunerative contribution for special academic (and/or professional in the case of Academic Librarians) competence.

2. In what ways have you demonstrated meritorious service through the above activities?

Following the list of activities, state clearly and specifically the characteristics of the service cited for which an award should be considered.

PART B: SUPPORTING MATERIALS

Please indicate the supporting materials included on the USB drive in support of this nomination/application:

Reference letters from University colleagues or officials, from members or officials of professional, artistic, or community organizations, or from others as appropriate.

Awards, citations, or other forms of recognition, including criteria connected with the award.

Published accounts of service rendered, or of recognition accorded with respect to service.

Other (please specify):

Note: All USB drives will be returned to the Dean's Office by Campus Mail.
