COURSE DESCRIPTION

U of M Course Calendar Description

A course designed to improve leadership potential and develop advanced communication skills for agricultural industry professionals.

General Course Description

This course is designed to provide students with access to advanced communication skills and potential. Topics discussed will broaden perspectives on communicative forms, understanding cross cultural communication, leadership strengths and challenges, and heighten critical thinking faculties. Any student who has a desire to improve independent work skills, and/or the ability to work cooperatively will benefit from this course.

Course Goals

1. Students will have the opportunity to develop advanced communication skills.
2. Students will have the opportunity to develop leadership skills.
3. Students will have the opportunity to develop professional skills for an agricultural career (agribusiness, agricultural and rural organizations).
4. Students will gain valuable skills related to self-assessment, motivation and project design.

Course Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this course, you should be able to:

- assess your own leadership potential and identify personal leadership goals
- identify leadership roles and opportunities for emerging agricultural and rural leaders
- communicate effectively and professionally with agricultural community members and industry leaders
- demonstrate knowledge and skills for serving on rural and agricultural boards/organizations
- prepare and deliver a professional presentation designed to share learning experiences with fellow students

Class Communication

The University requires all students to activate an official University email account. For full details of the Electronic Communication with Students please visit:http://umanitoba.ca/admin/governance/media/Electronic_Communication_with_Students_Policy_-_2014_06_05.pdf

Please note that all communication between the academic team and you as a student must comply with the electronic communication with student policy

(http://umanitoba.ca/admin/governance/governing_documents/community/electronic_communication_with_students_policy.html).

You are required to obtain and use your University of Manitoba email account for all communication between yourself and the university.

EXPECTATIONS AND POLICIES

I EXPECT YOU TO:

It is helpful to communicate in a narrative or bullet point format what you expect of students in the class and your rationales for these expectations.

- Attend synchronous classes. Live lectures will be held every Monday 2:30-5:15. Attendance is expected and participation grades will be assigned.
- Participate in class discussions via polling tools or group discussions.
- View and interact with any asynchronous course content including posted videos, readings or activities.
- Connect with peers to seek clarification and support throughout coursework.
- Share with instructor concerns or criticisms as soon as possible.

I will treat you with respect and would appreciate the same courtesy in return. See Respectful Work and Learning Environment Policy.

Class Communication:

You are required to obtain and use your University of Manitoba email account for all communication between yourself and the university. All communication must comply with the Electronic Communication with Student Policy:

http://umanitoba.ca/admin/governance/governing_documents/community/electronic_communication_with_students_policy.html

Please see policies and services students are expected to follow/utilize: (Section 2.5 ROASS).

I expect you to follow these policies around Class Communication and Academic Integrity.

All course work is to be completed individually. Inappropriate collaboration will be monitored by instructors and graders on all work submitted within the course. All course work submitted must be created specifically for this course by the student whose name is on the work.

See more information about Academic Integrity here:

Student Accessibility Services:

The University of Manitoba is committed to providing an accessible academic community. Students Accessibility Services \(SAS\) offers academic accommodation supports and services such as note-taking, interpreting, assistive technology and exam accommodations. Students who have, or think they may have, a disability (e.g. mental illness, learning, medical, hearing, injury-related, visual) are invited to contact SAS to arrange a confidential consultation.

Recording Synchronous Sessions/Online Lectures

Synchronous sessions will be recorded when possible

This material is copyrighted by The School of Agriculture. No audio or video recording of this material, lectures, or presentations is allowed in any format, openly or surreptitiously, in whole or in part without permission of The School of Agriculture. Course materials (both paper and digital) are for the participant's private study and research, and must not be shared. Violation of these and other Academic Integrity principles, will lead to serious disciplinary action.

EXPECTATIONS:

YOU CAN EXPECT ME TO: In this section, communicate in a narrative or bullet point format what students can expect of you as an instructor. For example:

- Support students in meeting their individual learning goals.
- Facilitate students in developing professional relationships in the agricultural community

- Provide opportunities for all students to develop their communication skills in a safe environment understanding that students are at various stages of skill development
- Meet with students virtually to clarify course content or assist with learning activities outside of class hours (please e-mail your request and suggested meeting time to instructor)

Ask students to refer to the Registrar's Office web page for more information. Also identify if you are willing to discuss student's progress and strategies for improvement prior the withdrawal date.

COURSE ASSESSMENT

ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTIONS: All assignment descriptions will be uploaded in advance on our UMLearn portal for the course. Rubrics, assessment protocols and grading will be discussed as a class throughout and developed together when possible.

This course is very self-guided, and 50% of the grade is derived from a student led project that will be discussed on the first day of the course.

A guideline of evaluation methods can be found below, a further breakdown of each assignment can be found on UMLearn:

Grade Evaluation	Value of Final Grade
Written Leadership Assignments	25% (5 x5%)
Project Outline	15%
Written Report for Final Project	10%
Presentation for Final Project	25%
Participation/Contribution (Rationale)	25%

Grading

A+	96-100	4.25-4.5	4.5
A	90-95	3.75-4.24	4.0
B+	85-89	3.25-3.74	3.5
B	80-84	2.75-3.24	3.0
C+	70-79	2.25-2.74	2.5
C	60-69	2.0-2.24	2.0
D	50-59	Less than 2.0	1.0
F	Less than 50		0

Referencing Style

Referencing standards will be discussed in class.

Assignment Feedback

Students will be provided with a combination of formative (i.e., comments) and summative (i.e., grade) evaluation. Students will receive graded feedback within a reasonable timeframe following submission. Late assignments may take longer to return.

Assignment Extension and Late Submission Policy

Assignments must be submitted to the course drop box by the submission deadline posted on UMLearn.

At the instructor's discretion late submissions may be accepted upon request. Students must e-mail the instructor providing a legitimate with a legitimate reason for the request as soon as possible. Requests made after the due date will not receive approval.

No late assignments will be accepted without prior approval; students will receive a grade of zero for late assignments.

Academic Integrity

Each student in this course is expected to complete their coursework and programs of study with integrity by making a commitment to the six fundamental values of honesty, trust, fairness, respect, responsibility, and courage. <http://umanitoba.ca/student-supports/academic-supports/academic-integrity>

Academic integrity looks like referencing the work of others that you have used and completing your assignments independently unless otherwise specified

If you are encouraged to work in a team, ensure that your project is completed with integrity. You must also do your own work during exams. Plagiarism, duplicate submission, cheating on quizzes, tests, and exams, inappropriate collaboration, academic fraud, and personation are in violation of the Student Discipline Bylaw and will lead to the serious disciplinary action. Visit the Academic Calendar, Student Advocacy, and Academic Integrity web pages for more information and support.

Refer to specific course requirements for academic integrity for individual and group work such as:

- I. Group projects are subject to the rules of academic dishonesty;
- II. Group members must ensure that a group project adheres to the principles of academic integrity;
- III. Students should also be made aware of any specific instructions concerning study groups and individual assignments;
- IV. The limits of collaboration on assignments should be defined as explicitly as possible;
- V. All work should be completed independently unless otherwise specified;
- VI. Sharing of notes and other materials, such as assignment and exam questions that were provided by the instructor is prohibited, unless otherwise stated. This means that you are not allowed to upload the instructor's intellectual property to a note-sharing or tutoring website without explicit permission.

LEARNER SUPPORT

Writing and Learning Support

The Academic Learning Centre (ALC) offers writing and learning supports to help you throughout your academic program. These supports are offered online during the Covid-19 pandemic.

Make an appointment with an ALC writing tutor who can give you feedback at any stage of the writing process, whether you are just beginning to work on a written assignment or already have a draft. The ALC also has an English as an Additional Language (EAL) specialist available to work with students on improving their English-language academic writing skills.

Consult an ALC learning specialist or attend an academic skills workshop to improve your time management, learning strategies and test-taking strategies. Get support in select courses by making an appointment with an ALC content tutor. The ALC also offers peer-facilitated study groups called Supplemental Instruction (SI) for certain courses that students have typically found difficult. In SI study groups, students ask questions, compare notes, discuss content, solve practice problems, and develop new study strategies in a group-learning format.

In addition to one-to-one and group sessions, you can also find writing and study tip sheets and videos on the ALC website.

Academic Learning Centre services are free for U of M students. For more information, please visit the Academic Learning Centre website at: <http://umanitoba.ca/student/academiclearning/>

Contact the Academic Learning Centre by calling 204-480-1481 or emailing academic_learning@umanitoba.ca. Bannatyne students can contact the Bannatyne Student Services office at 204-272-3190.

University of Manitoba Libraries (UML)

Research begins at UM Libraries. Learn at the Libraries is a great place to start, with information for students on academic writing, how to search the library, evaluating resources, and writing citations. As the primary contact for all research needs, your liaison librarian can play a vital role when completing academic papers and assignments. Liaisons can answer questions about locating appropriate resources or managing citations, and will address any other concerns you may have regarding the research process. Liaisons can be contacted by email or phone, and are also available to meet with you online. When working remotely, students can also receive help online through Ask Us! chat. For further detail about the libraries' services and collections, visit the Libraries' web site. Regularly check our COVID-19 Update page for available library services and access to resources for Fall 2020

For 24/7 mental health support, contact the Mobile Crisis Service at 204-940-1781.

Student Counselling Centre

Contact SCC if you are concerned about any aspect of your mental health, including anxiety, stress, or depression, or for help with relationships or other life concerns. SCC offers crisis services as well as individual, couple, and group counselling. Student Counselling Centre: <http://umanitoba.ca/student/counselling/index.html>

Your rights and responsibilities

As a student of the University of Manitoba you have rights and responsibilities. It is important for you to know what you can expect from the University as a student and to understand what the University expects from you. Become familiar with the policies and procedures of the University and the regulations that are specific to your faculty, college or school.

The Academic Calendar <http://umanitoba.ca/student/records/academiccalendar.html> is one important source of information. View the sections University Policies and Procedures and General Academic Regulations.

While all of the information contained in these two sections is important, the following information is highlighted.

- If you have questions about your grades, talk to your instructor. There is a process for term work and final grade appeals. Note that you have the right to access your final examination scripts. See the Registrar's Office website for more information including appeal deadline dates and the appeal form <http://umanitoba.ca/registrar/>
- You are expected to view the General Academic Regulation section within the Academic Calendar and specifically read the Academic Integrity regulation. Consult the course syllabus or ask your instructor for additional information about demonstrating academic integrity in your academic work. Visit the Academic Integrity Site for tools and support <http://umanitoba.ca/academicintegrity/> View the Student Academic Misconduct procedure for more information.
- The University is committed to a respectful work and learning environment. You have the right to be treated with respect and you are expected to conduct yourself in an appropriate respectful manner. Policies governing behavior include the:

Respectful Work and Learning Environment

http://umanitoba.ca/admin/governance/governing_documents/community/230.html

Student Discipline

http://umanitoba.ca/admin/governance/governing_documents/students/student_discipline.html and,

Violent or Threatening Behaviour

http://umanitoba.ca/admin/governance/governing_documents/community/669.html

- If you experience Sexual Assault or know a member of the University community who has, it is important to know there is a policy that provides information about the supports available to those who disclose and outlines a process for reporting. The Sexual Assault policy may be found at:
http://umanitoba.ca/admin/governance/governing_documents/community/230.html
More information and resources can be found by reviewing the Sexual Assault site
<http://umanitoba.ca/student/sexual-assault/>

For information about rights and responsibilities regarding Intellectual Property view the policy:
https://umanitoba.ca/admin/governance/governing_documents/community/235.html

For information on regulations that are specific to your academic program, read the section in the Academic Calendar and on the respective faculty/college/school web site
<http://umanitoba.ca/faculties/>

Contact an Academic Advisor within our faculty/college or school for questions about your academic program and regulations <http://umanitoba.ca/academic-advisors/>

Student Advocacy

Contact Student Advocacy if you want to know more about your rights and responsibilities as a student, have questions about policies and procedures, and/or want support in dealing with academic or discipline concerns.
