CALIBRATION

BIO | heneghan peng architects is a design partnership practising architecture, landscape and urban design. The practise was founded by Shih-Fu Peng and Róisín Heneghan in New York in 1999 and in 2001 was relocated to Dublin. Our Berlin office opened in 2011.

We take a multi-disciplinary approach to design and have collaborated with many leading designers and engineers on a range of projects which include larger scale urban masterplans, bridges, landscapes and buildings.

Projects include the Canadian Canoe Museum, the National Gallery of Ireland, the Palestinian Museum, Grand Egyptian Museum, at the Pyramids, the Giant's Causeway Visitors' Centre, Airbnb EMEA headquarters and the Diamond Bridges at the 2012 London Olympic Park.
