Studio Hospitality:
Cultural Authenticity and
Design-Hotels

We are not just Designers, we are Storytellers – we narrate, we curate, and we create. Whether it be for the traveller, the connoisseur or the shopper, we craft the spaces in which they exist. A large part of that requires us to execute our work with authenticity, consideration and joy. This is what Jonathan has learned in his 17 years working in the field of luxury hospitality design. Jonathan has worked for international firms HBA, LTW and Yabu Pushelberg, where he started his career and currently leads a team of 10 Designers. He has crafted designs for prestigious hotel brands and luxury properties in Asia, the Middle East and Europe, and will be sharing some of these stories in design that he's helped write with Yabu Pushelberg.
