III REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

Budget Model

The new budget model will be going forward for next academic year.

Committee Structure

The structure was presented to Undergraduate, Graduate and Art History committee for feedback. A separate committee that will report to undergraduate committee will handle the work for the awards work of the undergraduate committee. The endowment committee has not been active for two years and plans are to resurrect this committee. The LASH committee is an active committee and meets regularly. A new committee structure was circulated that reflects the two new committees; BFA Studio and BFA Art History committees that report to undergraduate committee. These two committees will focus on curriculum issues. These committee changes will be brought forward to May School Council meeting for vote. Any other changes or comments can be sent to C. Bakun (SoA Executive Assistant).
IV REPORTS OF SCHOOL COUNCIL COMMITTEES

1. Report of the Undergraduate Program Committee

   i) The Committee met on March 17. The Chair brought forward further recommendations for committee structure changes. One item of new business was brought forward from the Art History Working Group concerning the removal of the language requirement from the BFA in Art History degrees.

      a) The language requirement for the BFA Art History degree has been perceived as a roadblock for program enrolment, and exists in contrast to the Faculty of Arts Art History BA major and minor programs, that do not have this requirement.

      b) A survey of Art History programs across Canada revealed that the undergraduate art history programs have eliminated the language requirement, and that within one year we will be the only program that retains it.

      D. Foster, MOVED, on behalf of the Art History Working Group, THAT School Council approve the six (6) credits of the language elective requirement for the undergraduate art history programs be suspended and replaced by six (6) credit hours of open electives, with the recommendation to take French, German or Italian language courses if students intend to pursue further studies in the history of art at the graduate level.

         CARRIED- UNANIMOUS

2. Report of Graduate Program Committee

The Committee met on March 17. The current description of the BFAR’s were distributed and discussed. Further follow up will take place before finalizing the document and reporting to the School Council.

a) A calendar of important dates leading to the end of 1st year requirements for MFA program was discussed and the timeline was amended.

b) Faculty met on March 14 to discuss MFA applications for the coming year. Eight offers have been made thus far, four have accepted, two refusals and two are pending. Discussions are on-going.

c) 1st year thesis proposals are open to the public.

d) Open studios were a success and were well attended.
