Academic Study Exhibits in the Collections Gallery

To assist teaching staff in accessing Permanent Collection artworks and the Collections Gallery for course use, the School of Art Gallery has allocated time each Fall and Winter term for Academic Study Exhibits. This is to allow instructors to present work from the Permanent Collection and other collections in the Collections Gallery for their students.

Academic Use Process:

• Please contact Administrative Assistant Donna Jones (Donna.Jones@umanitoba.ca) to inquire about available dates for Academic Study Exhibits.
• Bookings will be confirmed on a first come, first served basis.
• Once your booking has been confirmed, please submit this form to Donna Jones.
• 2-3 weeks prior to your reserved period, gallery staff will request a list of works to be pulled from the Permanent Collection and will request information on how you would like the work installed.
• If works that are not part of the Permanent Collection will be displayed, loan agreements will be distributed to the teaching staff member and must be signed by the lender(s) before the works are received by the Gallery.

Please note that Academic Study Exhibits not exhibitions. Please direct Main Gallery and Collections Gallery exhibition proposals to Director/Curator Blair Fornwald at Blair.Fornwald@umanitoba.ca at least two years in advance of desired exhibition opening date.
