TEACHING EXCELLENCE AWARDS NOMINATION FORM

(Sessional, New Faculty, Established Faculty, & Graduate Student)

The nomination letter itself will make up a significant part of the Teaching Excellence Committee's evaluation, and should therefore include evidence that illustrates the nominee's teaching excellence. (please use extra paper if necessary)

NOTE: Letters received as part of this nomination must be signed, and can only pertain to the Teaching Excellence Award nomination. As the nominator, you may only submit this form (and accompanying letter) – any additional materials will be returned to you at the time of your submission. You may solicit letters from students and colleagues in favor of your nomination; however, those letters must be sent by the writer directly to the Dean's Office C/O the Assistant to the Associate Deans (307 Fletcher Argue Building). The identity of those who provide letters of support, and the content of those letters, will be kept strictly confidential.
