

Sheila Moore was an indomitable and courageous person who lived in accord with her strong social values. She grew up in rural Manitoba developing her love of gardening, animals and the outdoors. She worked as a CBC radio producer, a senior policy advisor to the Ontario government and Communications Director for Alliance Quebec and the MUHC, where she retired in 2009. She loved art, theatre and music, and cherished the company of family and friends—all of whom enjoyed her passion for cooking.

In memory of Sheila Moore, Alexandra Flynn, along with friends and family, established an endowment fund at the University of Manitoba in 2015, with initial gifts totaling $10,000. The Manitoba Scholarship and Bursary Initiative has made a contribution to the fund. The purpose of the fund is to reward the academic achievement of undergraduate students pursuing studies in French, Political Studies, or English, and who are active in school media.

Each year, once the fund generates a minimum of $500 in available annual interest in a given year, one scholarship will be offered to an undergraduate student who:

1. is enrolled full-time (minimum 80% course load) in the third year of study in the Faculty of Arts, in a Major or Honours program in either French, Political Studies, or English;
2. has achieved a minimum degree grade point average of 3.5;
3. is an active participant with the University of Manitoba student newspaper, The Manitoban, or the University of Manitoba student radio station, UMFM.

PROCEDURE

Candidates will be required to submit an application form (attached) to the Faculty of Arts that includes a letter of reference (maximum one page) from an individual in a leadership position at The Manitoban or UMFM verifying their involvement.

The Dean of the Faculty of Arts (or designate) will name the selection committee for this award.

In the event that there are no candidates that meet all of the criteria, the award may be offered to a student who is enrolled full-time (minimum 80% course load) in any year of study in the Faculty of Arts, and who otherwise meets criteria (2) and (3).

The Board of Governors of the University of Manitoba has the right to modify the terms of this award if, because of changed conditions, it becomes necessary to do so. Such modification shall conform as closely as possible to the expressed intention of the donor establishing the award.
