

UM Achieve Degree Audit – Degree Planning Guide

If you have declared your degree program, UM Achieve will run a declared audit for you based on your degree program, Major, Honours field and/or Minor selections and the appropriate Academic Calendar year for your declared degree.

At any point, you are also able to run a “What-If” audit and select any degree choice available in Arts (or another faculty), and the Major, Honours field and/or Minor course selections you are interested in to see your progress in that program. If you are undeclared, you will use the “What-If” option to create an audit for yourself.

It is recommended that you save a PDF version of any UM Achieve audit you run, for future reference.

Components of the Audit

Charts:

- Pie and Bar Charts symbolizes how many credit hours in your Major/Honours field, Minor and Options courses are complete (green), in progress (blue) or unfulfilled (red).
- The GPA is based on the courses used in the Major/Honours field, Minor and Options sections only.
- Depending on the chronology of your course selections, some requirements you need or courses you have completed may fall to Excess courses and will not be included in these calculations.
- For these reasons, these charts are only representations of your progress and not to be used as a true calculation on completeness of your program or official GPA.

Courses:

- A pre-determined selection method is used to place courses throughout the audit. The result may not be the only way in which courses could theoretically be placed.
- Courses used in the audit are in chronological order (i.e. first completed).
- If you complete a course that fulfills a requirement, it will be used in the audit first regardless if you complete a course at a later date with a higher grade.
- Only courses matching the audit criteria (i.e. chronology, grades, lists, etc.) will be used.
- Sometimes this results in preferred or more appropriate courses being used in the Faculty Requirements section only or falling to Excess Courses (which are not used in your audit).
- Arts Academic Advisors can review the audit and determine if an exception or notation on your audit needs to be made to optimize the use of courses or to correct any potential errors.

Major/Honours field and Minor:

- Lists the course requirements for that Major/Honours field and Minor as outlined in the specific Academic Calendar for that year.

Options:

- Lists the course requirements that you can choose as your electives.
- You should be using your electives to meet the additional Faculty Requirements of your degree.

Faculty Requirements in the Arts Degrees:

These are requirements that may be fulfilled by or in addition to courses used in the Major/Honours field, Minor, Options, but all must be completed in order to graduate.

For audits with Catalogue/Calendar Year 2021, courses used in the following requirements that were taken in addition to the Major/Honours field, Minor or Options will appear in these requirements as opposed to the Excess courses section.

Audits with an older Catalogue/Calendar Year, will display additional courses in the Excess courses section and an exception to your audit by an Academic Advisor may need to be made if a course can be used in these requirements instead.
