Memories of Taché

"The friendships from there have lasted for a lifetime. The socials in the residence were greatly enjoyed. That is where I met my husband to be; we are now married for 57 years."

— Mrs. Helen Wilson, BHEc/51

"Male residents putting live cows in the girls' residence and having one girl identify a cow as a 'horse.' Visit with Eleanor Roosevelt."

— Mr. William J.D. Hodgins, BID/49

"I remember Freshie week: Aggies (Agriculture students) and Engineering students were arch rivals. During freshman week, Engineering students rallied on the square in front of Taché Hall. An Aggie freshman snapped a beanie off an engineer and ran into residence with more or less the whole engineering faculty in hot pursuit. As they started up the stairs, they were confronted by Mrs. Unwin, the director of the men's residence, a small elderly woman. She grabbed the fire hose and aimed it at the rushing crowd of engineers. They gave up their pursuit."

—Dr. Diether Peschken, BSA/59, MSc/60

"The dances were always a special event. I learned to play Bridge (a continuing activity for the rest of my life) in the evening cafeteria."

"I remember dances Saturday night; watching the girls file by in the Dining Hall; heavy items falling down open stairwells; oriental cooking odours filling halls at night and rice soaking in bathtubs. We strung fish netting all around the dorm rooms. (Architects!)"

— Mr. Ian Innes, BArch/55, MArch(CP)/56

"Panty raids! I met the love of my life who lived in Speechly Hall. Still together after 35 years."

— Mr. Dan Friesen, BSc/73, BSc(Pharm)/75

"I attended Manitoba Agricultural College in 1931-1932 when it became part of the University, Faculty of Home Economics; we were the first class to graduate from the U of M. I moved to Toronto, married and have not gone back to Homecomings but I feel I belong."
