Letters of reference and transcripts

It is the student's responsibility to ensure that two letters of reference reach the Centre on Aging by May 21, 2021. The letters of reference make up 10% of the evaluation of a student's application. Your assessors should be knowledgeable about your academic accomplishments and your aptitude for research. One of the letters must be from your current supervisor (graduate students only). The letters can be emailed directly to Nicole Dunn, Associate Director (nicole.dunn@umanitoba.ca).

Provide e-copy of transcripts from all post-secondary institutions you have attended by May 21. Applicants can do so in any of the following ways:

1. Transcripts emailed directly from the academic institution to nicole.dunn@umanitoba.ca.
2. Transcripts emailed to the applicant from the academic institution, and then forwarded to nicole.dunn@umanitoba.ca (include the original email from the academic institution in the forwarded email)
3. Hard copy transcripts uploaded by the applicant and emailed to nicole.dunn@umanitoba.ca. Retain the paper copy of any uploaded transcripts, as you may be asked to provide it for verification purposes.

Conditions for all applicants and award recipients

- Applications and references must be received no later than May 21, 2021 at 4:00 pm, using the fillable application form.
- Include a description of the proposed research and a statement of its relevance to aging.
- Official post-secondary transcripts must be included and provided in hardcopy.
- Two faculty references familiar with the applicant's work are to be forwarded by the referee directly to the Centre on Aging, on appropriate forms. One of these must be from the applicant's advisor (graduate students only).
- The awards will be payable in installments during the period of September 1, 2021 to May 1, 2022.
- Each award may not be held more than once during a specific degree program.

Additional conditions for graduate students

An electronic copy of the recipient's thesis/dissertation, when completed, must be submitted to the Centre on Aging.

Centre on Aging acknowledgement

Recipients must acknowledge the financial support provided by the Centre on Aging in any publications during the term of the award or that arise in whole or in part as a result of the award.
