

The University of Manitoba Faculty of Education welcomes Dr. Jennifer Brant who will be contributing to our faculty's journey toward reconciliation with the following event.

• Public Lecture:

Indigenous Maternal Methodologies:
Ethical and Relational Responsibilities

Tuesday, May 17th 2022 7:00 to 8:30 PM CST

In this presentation Dr. Brant will share her work on Indigenous Maternal Methodologies and her engagement with Indigenous methodologies and Indigenous feminisms more broadly.

Dr. Brant will offer concrete examples of how innovative approaches to research design, grounded in Indigenous ways of doing research, can carve out theorizing spaces for liberatory praxis within teacher education.

This hybrid event will be hosted in-person in room 290 in the UM's Faculty of Education and on Zoom. If you wish to attend the in-person lecture and reception, please register at: <https://tinyurl.com/26vd8pxt>

If you wish to attend via Zoom, please follow this link or scan the QR code to register. <https://tinyurl.com/yc7pnzm5>

• For Those Attending in Person:

A reception will take place prior to the lecture at 6:00 PM in the main hallway of the Faculty of Education - beverages and hor's d'oeuvres will be available.

- Please note that the wearing of masks is still mandatory on University of Manitoba campuses but may be removed when eating or drinking.
- Parking will be available in the Parkade just adjacent to the Faculty of Education. Free parking may be available in the Education parking lot and in other parking lots nearby.
- A campus map with directions and Information regarding parking will be made available to registrants prior to the event.

