Course Description

This course is an introductory course to sustainability. The course takes an interdisciplinary perspective to understand environmental sustainability. The course helps students to engage with the foundational aspects of sustainability and relate that to the different disciplines that they specialize in.

Course Objectives

- To introduce students to the basics concepts in sustainability
- To introduce students to an interdisciplinary perspective on environmental sustainability.
- To engage students with key challenges and applications in sustainability

Learning Objectives

- To explain the history of sustainability and identify key conventions and international agreements related to sustainability.
- To be able to describe different sustainability models and concepts.
- To be able to analyze the inter-disciplinary nature of sustainability.
- To identify focus areas in sustainability both at the global and national scale and to systematically analyze the interconnections in these focus areas.
- To be able to identify key challenges in sustainability at the personal and community level and apply the concepts learned to address these challenges.

Method of Evaluation

Students are evaluated based on their, submission of assignments, poster, mid semester and end semester exam and the term paper. The following table provides a detailed breakdown of the assessment tool and grade allocation breakdown:

Due Date	Assessment Tool	Value of Final Grade
Oct 13 th 2023	Class Assignment	30%
Oct 25 th 2023	Mid semester exam	30%
Nov 22 nd 2023	Poster	10%
TBA	Final exam	30%

The Grade distribution for this course is as follows:

A+: 90% or above (Exceptional)

A: 80 - 89% (Excellent)

B+: 75 - 79% (Very Good)

B: 70 - 74% (Good)

C+: 65 - 69% (Satisfactory)

C: 60 - 64% (Adequate)

D: 50 - 59% (Marginal)

F: ≤ 49% (Failure)

Note: The course instructor reserves the right to assign an alternate assignment or redistribute the percentage distribution between remaining assignments for those students who have a valid reason for not writing. In cases where there is a valid medical certificate or compassionate reason, the instructor may prorate the value for the test over the balance of the grades available.

Class Assignment & Poster

The details of the class assignments will be posted on UM learn

Midterm and final Exam

This course will have a midterm and final closed book written exam. The mid-term will be held on 24th of Oct,2022 during class hours in the classroom. The dates for the final exam will be announced by the registrar's office.

Late Assignment and Presentation Absence Policy

Should a student not submit their assignments/poster on time or is not present during the midterm/final exam, as indicated within this syllabus, they will receive a zero. In accordance with the University of Manitoba Policy for Assignments, Reports, Tests, and Presentations submitted without permission of the instructor and supporting documentation (e.g. medical certificate) or reasons provided, acquired PRIOR TO THE DUE DATE, will result in a grade of "F".

COURSE APPROACH AND POLICIES

Course Delivery:

- Course material will be delivered primarily through lectures, videos, in class discussion and corresponding textbook readings.
- As a courtesy, I will be posting partial course notes in PDF format on UM Learn after the lectures. It is your responsibility to access UM Learn and download these materials:
<https://universityofmanitoba.desire2learn.com/d2l/home>
  - Please note that I am under no obligation to post my PowerPoint notes; they are intended to assist you and not replace your personal notes.
  - These materials are subject to copyright (please see below note below regarding the use of copyrighted material).
- For assistance with UM Learn:
  - Client Services Help and Solutions Centre (204.474.8600)
  - Email: support@cc.umanitoba.ca
  - 123 Fletcher Argue (Mon to Fri: 8:00 AM. - 8:00 PM)
- These online materials are not a substitute for coming to class, and you cannot use these notes exclusively as they will need to be supplemented by notes from lecture and the textbook. If you miss a class, you are responsible for obtaining the missing notes from a classmate. The instructor will not provide notes for any reason.
- Students are NOT permitted to partially or entirely photograph, audio, or video record lecture, unless they have obtained prior permission from the instructor.

Communicating with your Instructor:

- Effective September 1, 2013, the U of M will only use your university email account for official communications, including messages from your instructors, department or faculty, academic advisors, and other administrative offices. http://umanitoba.ca/registrar/email\_policy/
- All communications must be professional and courteous.
- E-mails must include:
  - The subject heading (ENVR..., your full name and student number)
  - Come from a University of Manitoba Account (. . . . @myumanitoba.ca).
  - Emails that do not conform to the above will not be returned.
  - Emails requesting information that is found in the course syllabus, or information discussed in class, will not be returned.
- Allow at least 48 hours for response (weekdays only).

Policy on Respectful Work and Learning Environment (RWLE):

Introduction to Sustainability: ENVR -2020_ Fall 2023

- Each individual has the right to participate, learn, and work in an environment that promotes equal opportunities and prohibits discriminatory practices.
- RWLE [2016], Section 2.2 The University wishes to promote and support a community which embraces diversity and inclusion, provides for equality of opportunity, and recognizes the dignity of all people.
- RWLE [2016], Section 2.3 Members of the University Community, including every student and employee, are entitled to a respectful work and learning environment that is:
  - (a) Free from Discrimination and provides for Reasonable Accommodation.
  - (b) Free from Harassment; and
  - (c) Collegial and conducive to early resolution of conflict between members of the University Community.

Schedule “A”

Schedule “A” is the new requirement passed by the University of Manitoba Senate in 2016 that requires that a mandated list of supports for services plus contact information is provided to students. While this information is important and useful, should you require advice and support, the instructor is happy to meet with you and discuss issues and concerns

Student Resources

Writing and Study Skills Support

The Academic Learning Centre (ALC) offers services that may be helpful to you as you fulfill the requirements for this course. Through the ALC, you may meet with a study skills specialist to discuss concerns such as time management, reading and note-taking strategies, and test-taking strategies. You may also meet one-on-one with a writing tutor who can give you feedback at any stage of the writing process, whether you are just beginning to work on a written assignment or already have a draft. Writing tutors can also give you feedback if you submit a draft of your paper online. (Please note that the online tutors require 48 hours, from Mondays to Fridays, to return your paper with comments.)

All Academic Learning Centre services are free for U of M students. For more information, please visit the Academic Learning Centre website at: <http://umanitoba.ca/student/academiclearning/>

You can also talk to a member of the Academic Learning staff by calling 480-1481 or by dropping in at 201 Tier Building.

University of Manitoba Libraries (UML)

As the primary contact for all research needs, your liaison librarian can play a vital role when completing academic papers and assignments. Liaisons can answer questions about managing citations, or locating appropriate resources, and will address any other concerns you may have, regarding the research process. Liaisons can be contacted by email or phone, and are also available to meet with you in-person. A complete list of liaison librarians can be found by subject: <http://bit.ly/WcEbA1> or name: <http://bit.ly/1tJ0bB4>. In addition, general library assistance is provided in person at 19 University Libraries, located on both the Fort Garry and Bannatyne campuses, as well as in many Winnipeg hospitals. For a listing of all libraries, please consult the following: <http://bit.ly/1sXe6RA>. When working remotely, students can also receive help online, via the Ask-a-Librarian chat found on the Libraries' homepage: www.umanitoba.ca/libraries.

The English Language Centre has workshop and programs in advanced academic and health-sciences English (located at 520, University Centre).
Homepage: <http://umanitoba.ca/student/staffdir/elc.html>

Student Accessibility Services

Student Accessibility Services (SAS) provides support and advocacy for students with disabilities of all kinds: hearing, learning, injury-related, mental health, medical, physical or visual. Students with temporary disabilities such as sprains and breaks are also eligible to use our services. SAS acts as a liaison between students and the faculty and staff of the University of Manitoba as well as support agencies within the province of Manitoba. Please phone: 474-6213 (voice) or 474-9690 (TTY) for service. For more information, please visit the Student Accessibility website at: <http://umanitoba.ca/student/saa/accessibility/>

Mental Health

For 24/7 mental health support, contact the Mobile Crisis Service at 204-940-1781.

Student Counselling Centre (SCC)

Contact SCC if you are concerned about any aspect of your mental health, including anxiety, stress, or depression, or for help with relationships or other life concerns. SCC offers crisis services as well as individual, couple, and group counselling. Student Counselling Centre:

University and Unit Policies, Procedures, and Supplemental Information (Available On-Line)

Your rights and responsibilities

- As a student of the University of Manitoba you have rights and responsibilities. It is important for you to know what you can expect from the University as a student and to understand what the University expects from you. Become familiar with the policies and procedures of the University and the regulations that are specific to your faculty, college or school.

The Academic Calendar

- <http://umanitoba.ca/student/records/academiccalendar.html> is one important source of information.
- View the sections University Policies and Procedures and General Academic Regulations. While all of the information contained in these two sections is important, the following information is highlighted.
- If you have questions about your grades, talk to your instructor. There is a process for term work and final grade appeals. Note that you have the right to access your final examination scripts. See the Registrar's Office website for more information including appeal deadline dates and the appeal form <http://umanitoba.ca/registrar/>
- You are expected to view the General Academic Regulation section within the Academic Calendar and specifically read the Academic Integrity regulation. Consult the course syllabus or ask your instructor for additional information about demonstrating academic integrity in your academic work. Visit the Academic Integrity Site for tools and support <http://umanitoba.ca/academicintegrity/> View the Student Academic Misconduct procedure for more information.

Sexual Assault

- If you experience Sexual Assault or know a member of the University community who has, it is important to know there is a policy that provides information about the supports available to those who disclose and outlines a process for reporting.
  - The Sexual Assault policy may be found at:
http://umanitoba.ca/admin/governance/governing\_documents/community/230.html
  - More information and resources can be found by reviewing the Sexual Assault site
<http://umanitoba.ca/student/sexual-assault/>

Academic Programs and Regulations

- For information on regulations that are specific to your academic program, read the section in the Academic Calendar and on the respective faculty/college/school web site
<http://umanitoba.ca/faculties/>
- Contact an Academic Advisor within our faculty/college or school for questions about your academic program and regulations <http://umanitoba.ca/academic-advisors/>

Student Advocacy

- Contact Student Advocacy if you want to know more about your rights and responsibilities as a student, have questions about policies and procedures, and/or want support in dealing with academic or discipline concerns.
