

University
of Manitoba

Faculty of Arts
Department of Political Studies

Duff Roblin Political Studies Fellowship

in Canadian and Manitoba Government and Politics

The fellowship was established in 1998 in appreciation of the contribution of the Honourable Duff Roblin, former premier of Manitoba (1958-1967), to the province and people of Manitoba.

Eligibility

- Full-time graduate students applying to or enrolled in the Master's program in Political Studies at the University of Manitoba with a primary research focus on Canadian government and politics. E.g.: federalism, parliament, provincial issues, political parties, interest groups, public administration and policy studies, comparative politics with a focus on Canada, Canada on the international stage, Indigenous governance and/or resurgence, etc.,
- Entering either the first or second year of graduate study,
- Minimum grade point average of 3.5 based on the last 60 hours (or equivalent) of study.

Stipend

The fellowship is offered annually for the amount of $15,000.00 (Canadian) and is not tenable with any other scholarship.

Terms

Fellowships are awarded for 12 months beginning in September. However, upon satisfactory performance in the year of receipt of this fellowship, the Duff Robin Fellow qualifies for a renewal of the award. The fellowship may not be renewed beyond the second year of graduate studies.

Applications must include:

1. a formal cover letter for the award,
2. a research proposal,
3. two academic letters of reference, and
4. all official undergraduate and/or graduate transcript(s). University of Manitoba students may request a history. Transcripts must be received in sealed envelopes endorsed by the issuing institution to be considered official.

Complete applications may be submitted to the chair of the selection committee, Dr. Royce Koop, at royce.koop@umanitoba.ca. Deadline for applications is no later than 4:00pm on April 10, 2020.

The successful candidate(s) will be announced and notified in writing in April. The decision of the Selection Committee is final and not open to appeal.

Inquiries may be made to:

Royce Koop, Chair, Selection Committee
Phone: 204-474-9521
e-mail: royce.koop@umanitoba.ca