

Indigenous Graduate Student Supports

Faculty of Graduate Studies Student Orientation Winter 2024

University of Manitoba

Indigenous Graduate Student Success Coordinator, Ashley Edson (She/Her)

- Office of the Vice-President Indigenous, Scholarship, Research, and Curriculum
- 'Generalist' Advisor for current and prospective Indigenous graduate students
 - Ability to offer longer appointment times
 - Available to attend resource appointments with students
 - Flexible in communication methods with students
 - Provide holistic and culturally-grounded advising services
- Office hours on Bannatyne campus on Thursdays
 - 420 Education Building (Fort Garry)
 - Ongomiizwin Research (Bannatyne Campus)

Supporting Indigenous Graduate Enhancement (SAGE)

- Open to all current and prospective Indigenous graduate students (research and course-based programs)
- Holistic supports for your cultural, academic, personal, and professional development
- Offered year round
- 1:1 Graduate Student Advising
- Weekly SAGE Cafés
- Monthly Writing Retreats
- Funding Workshops
- And more!

Indigenous Student Centre

Our mission is to provide holistic and culturally-grounded advising services where we consider the mental, emotional, physical, spiritual and cultural well-being of those we work with.

Staff, faculty, Elders and Knowledge Keepers are available to ensure your university experience is as accessible, valuable and successful as possible.

umanitoba.ca

Ongomiizwin-Institute for Health & Healing

- Provides leadership in Indigenous Health across the five colleges in the Rady Faculty of Health Sciences: dentistry, medicine, nursing, pharmacy, and rehabilitation sciences in the areas of health, research, and education.
- Student Membership to Ongomiizwin Education gives you access to programs, facilities, and resources.
- Apply here:
<https://umanitoba.ca/ongomiizwin/education>

Upcoming SAGE Opportunity!

SAGE Writing Retreat (Bannatyne Campus)

- Thursday, January 11th from 9am-4pm
- Drop-in anytime that fits with your schedule!
- Writing and Research supports provided
- Lunch and refreshments included
- Kindly register by January 8th, 2024

Stay connected with SAGE!

204.227.2671

Ashley.Edson@umanitoba.ca

@UMIndigenous

SAGE-Supporting Aboriginal Graduate
Enhancement-University of Manitoba

<https://eventscalendar.umanitoba.ca/site/indigenous>

