- Figures for some programs reflect only qualified applicants.
- Registered status reflects whether students were registered for the Fall Term, as at November 1.
- Direct Entry programs admit students directly from high school. Direct Transit programs allow students to transit in automatically from University 1. (Direct Transit figures are separated into those students that formally applied to Arts and Science and those students that transited automatically from University 1). University Entry requires university study before application to the program (University Entry does not include special or visiting students).
- The Asper School of Business began offering a Direct Entry option in Fall 2011.
- Engineering maintains up to 40 places for International students.
- The quota for the Internationally Educated Engineers Qualification Program increased to 40 in 2010.
- New in 2010-2011.
- Excludes B.Mus./B.Ed. program.
- There was no intake in Fall 2011.
- Within Human Ecology, individual program streams have a maximum quota of 80.
- The quota for the Athletic Therapy program increased to 24 in 2010.
- Physical Education and Kinesiology have a combined quota of 100.
- Law has five supernumerary places for half-time students and five supernumerary places for Aboriginal students.
- Physical Therapy is transitioning to a Master's program. There was no intake in 2011-2012.
- Within the UCN program, The Pas and Thompson sites each have a quota of 20.
- Students admitted to the joint program take their first-year courses at UCN. For that reason, the number registered is not shown.
- The figure for 2010-2011 has been estimated.
