

DAGMAR KIRDIE

DAGMAR WALLY URSULA KIRDIE (APEL) 1949 - 2013 After a brief battle with cancer, the Almighty took Dagmar into His House on September 1, 2013. Dagmar is survived by husband of 40 years, Tony, daughter Sabrina (Clayton) and grandson Chay, son Tristan (Tiphonie), sisters-in-law Donna and Olga (Art), niece Amanda, and many relatives in Germany, especially her cousin Bubbi (Hans Joachim Apel). Dagmar was predeceased by her father Arno Apel and her mother Isa Apel (Wiegand). The only child, Dagmar was born February 9, 1949 in Oberlind, Germany. With her parents, she immigrated to Canada in July of 1965. After formal education, Dagmar found her way to the University of Manitoba, ultimately working in the Dafoe Library. Here she met Tony and they married in 1972. She changed that man forever, and he gave in willingly. She bore him their pride and joy. She retired from the library in 2009. Her favourite pastime was an interest in Anime (Japanese animation) and reading Louis L'Amour and Sci-Fi/Fantasy novels. In her retirement, she was happiest in and around her home. She enjoyed visits with her children, grandson, her father and spending time with her friends and neighbours Carol and John and Terry. Her years at the library fostered many great friendships. Dagmar enjoyed early morning swimming with Pat, and going to Curves. Lunches on a regular basis with the diverse groups such as her "German Mafia", "Three Musketeers" and "former section" were the norm. Sweetheart, you will be sadly missed by your family and friends. The family would like to thank Dr. P. G. Mehta, Dr. Wong and the wonderful staff of CancerCare Manitoba and Palliative Care. Cremation has taken place. A service will be held Saturday, September 14, 2013 at 2:00 p.m. at Chapel Lawn Funeral Home, 4000 Portage Avenue. Pastor Peter Lurvey of St. Peter Lutheran Church officiating.
