

GEOFFREY LAMBERT

DR. GEOFFREY LAMBERT, PhD. St. Paul's College, University of Manitoba Geoff died on January 29, 2015 after a 30 year battle with Parkinson's. He is survived by his brothers David and Derek and their families in England as well as his friend forever Fran Lambert (nee Michelson). The son of a coal miner, Geoff was a self-made man; he rose to become a professor of political studies at St. Paul's College and the University of Manitoba for over 30 years. He was a respected scholar, journalist, author, speaker and political pundit. Above all, Geoff was a teacher who loved the interaction with his students, many of whom are community leaders in Manitoba, Canada and beyond. Geoff wanted to thank his dedicated friends and the staff at Parkview Place, Misericordia Place, Victoria General Hospital and the Health Sciences Centre for their friendship and support. Cremation has taken place and a Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, February 14, 2015 in Christ the King Chapel at St. Paul's College, University of Manitoba, 70 Dysart Road, Winnipeg. Parking is available across the street. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Parkinson's Society of Manitoba.
