

EDWARD CALVIN MOULTON (ED)

Edward Calvin Moulton passed away peacefully after a long illness on Saturday, September 7, 2019, at the age of 83.

Ed Moulton was born in Epworth, Newfoundland in 1936. After undergraduate work at Memorial University in St. Johns, Newfoundland, he earned a PhD in Asian History from the School of Oriental and African Studies in London in 1964. Ed was a history professor at the University of Manitoba from 1965 until his retirement in 1999. He was a widely respected scholar and teacher who specialized in the history of India and Asia. His crowning scholarly accomplishment was a co-edited volume published by Oxford University Press in 2005 of the papers of Allen Octavian Hume, a 19th century British civil servant who played a role in the early years of Indian nationalism.

Ed's spirit, his kindness, his sense of humour, and his smile were a source of strength and happiness to everyone who knew him. He is survived by his wife Alice, his son Ian, his daughter Celia, his daughter-in-law Wendy Williams, and his granddaughter Sophia.

A memorial service will be held at Harrow United Church, 955 Mulvey Ave., Winnipeg, at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday morning, September 14, 2019.

In lieu of flowers, a donation can be made in Ed's name to Amnesty International, an organization that he and his wife supported for many years.

NEIL BARDAL
FUNERAL CENTRE
204-949-2200
neilbardalinc.com