David M. Collins Scholarship Nomination Form

In honour of Dean David M. Collins, an endowment fund has been established at the University of Manitoba. The fund will be used to provide scholarships for undergraduate students in the College of Pharmacy who demonstrate academic excellence and social responsibility. Dr. Collins served as Dean of the College of Pharmacy from 1999-2010 during which time he was instrumental in the development of the Apotex Centre at the Bannatyne Campus; including the development of a successful College with exceptional professors, scientists, staff and students along with a successful undergraduate program.

The available annual interest from the fund will be used to offer one scholarship to an undergraduate student who:

1. is enrolled full-time in the College of Pharmacy, in the fourth year of the B.Sc. in Pharmacy;
2. has achieved a minimum degree grade point average of 3.5 and is in good standing;
3. has, through the course of his or her pharmacy studies, demonstrated a strong record of community service within the broader community, the College of Pharmacy and/or the University.

Preference will be given to Indigenous students (status, non-status, Inuit, Métis).

Nominations are invited from students, faculty, and staff of the University of Manitoba and members of the community. Nominations must be accompanied by a description of the candidates community service activities, his or her specific roles and responsibilities over the previous three years, and the resulting outcomes with reference to selection criterion (3) (maximum 500 words).

The deadline for applications is May 30th, annually.
