Berdie and Irvin Cohen Hebrew University Scholarship

To be eligible for the Berdie and Irvin Cohen Hebrew University Scholarship, applicants must:

- 1) have completed at least one year of full-time study at the University of Manitoba, or have graduated from the University of Manitoba within the five years immediately preceding application for this scholarship;
- 2) be admitted to, and enroll at, Hebrew University in Israel for one year of study for the 2022-2023 academic session;
- 3) have achieved a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 at the University of Manitoba.

The number of awards offered and their value will be determined annually by the selection committee.

Preference in selection is to be given to graduate students.

Applicants will be required to submit an application to the Financial Aid and Awards office. The applicants will be asked to state their intent to attend Hebrew University in the upcoming fall. The statement must include an outline of why they wish to do this and their plans upon completion of the year of study. Upon enrolment at Hebrew University, the successful recipient will be required to present the Financial Aid and Awards office with official proof of enrolment at the institution to receive his/her award. Students enrolled in study at Hebrew University at the time of application for this scholarship may also apply and will be considered eligible. For selection purposes, a high degree of weight will be placed on the applicant's degree grade point average at The University of Manitoba.

Upon completion of the year of study, all recipients will be required to submit a report on their experience. Examples of topics to be included are why you applied for the scholarship, what you gained from the experience, your preconceptions, post-conceptions, and/or misconceptions, and any other personal or academic information.
