Course Description

The purpose of this course is to provide students with insight into English pronunciation for the purpose of achieving greater intelligibility (how easily you are understood by others). Focused practice on specific high priority sounds and patterns will be provided in class. The instructor will also suggest techniques for continued improvement after the course concludes.

Course Objectives

Students who successfully complete this course will be able to:

- Actively work on pronunciation features to achieve greater intelligibility
- Understand how individual sounds (Vowels & Consonants) are made
- Understand the roles that Stress, Rhythm, and Intonation play in effective communication
- Communicate more confidently in English with speakers with various accents

Assignments

Details of all assignments will be provided in class.

Attendance & Letter of Completion

Students will receive a “letter of completion” at the end of this course, providing s/he attends a minimum of 80% of classes (8/10 classes). Please note that there will NOT be a record of this course on your U of M transcript.

Grading

Although homework will be assigned, assignments/presentations will not be formally graded. Instead, you will receive constructive feedback from the instructor. The emphasis in this course is on student improvement in the language areas covered in class.
