April 2013

As I look through my calendar from last year I am struck by the sheer busyness of my life as Warden of the College. The pages are messy and untidy from the press of appointments and notes. In this chaos, are there trends, major themes that run through the life of the College? I think there are.

Theme 1: Learning Communities. My diary shows endless meetings with St Paul's College, University 1, Faculty of Arts and Faculty of Science as we tried to work through the administrative hoops of starting a program that involved all of these units. Through patience and persistence we were able to frame a program and present it to prospective students. My diary shows a number of meetings at schools and information days where we presented the idea to high schools students. And then the students actually arrive on campus! The Learning Community builds small groups of students to study together focused around the ARTS 1110 "Introduction to University" course. This is precisely what Colleges do and we were delighted to be part of the pilot project. We have learned many lessons this past year and we plan to move ahead in new ways with the Learning Community in 2013.

Theme 2: Theology. My calendar shows a series of meeting with the Dialogue group struck between Diocesan Executive and College Council to consider the Faculty of Theology. Interlaced are occasional meetings of the Theological Cooperative with our partners in theological education in Winnipeg. Close readers of these annual reports will have noticed that there have been no enrolments in Theology for the past couple of years. After difficult and honest discussions, College Council decided to suspend the operations of the Faculty of Theology for the next two years. During the next two years, the College and the Diocese will form a commission to decide on the future of theological education in the Diocese. As a result of this decision, Dr. John Stafford, our Dean of Theology will be leaving the College at the end of the 2012-13 academic year. After sixteen years of dedicated service to the College he will be sorely missed.

Theme 3: Residence. Beginning with a sub-committee to examine the needs for a residence at the University, following through a survey of the residence students, and commissioning an architectural study of the condition of the residence, this has been a major concern for the entire year. We now realize that we need to build a new residence and are undertaking the feasibility studies on building plans as well as our fundraising capabilities.

The greatest joy in the work of the College is the vibrant academic life among the Fellows and the students. Life is a constant round of lectures, presentations, discussions as we all learn together. Isn't that what College life is really about?

Christopher G. Trott, Ph.D., Warden and Vice-Chancellor

1. Introduction

The Annual Report of St John's College provides an official record of the relevant statistics and changes of the College for the year. It captures the growth, achievements, events, and unique character of St John's. The officer or staff member responsible for an activity has prepared each section and therefore some of the personalities of these individuals are present. In the belief that a great deal of the success of the College is attributable to the personal commitment of these people to St John's, every effort has been made to maintain this personal perspective while, at the same time, presenting a cohesive chronicle of our activities.

It has become evident over the past few years that the College reflects the full diversity of the University of Manitoba student body. Many of the students in professional faculties began at the College as Arts or Science undergraduate students and have chosen to continue their association with the College. Bursaries and scholarships, our much coveted carrel study space, the discount at the Daily Bread Café as well as our small size and friendly and knowledgeable staff continue to attract students.

The College continues to provide a home for international students as they arrive in Winnipeg. The warm and welcoming atmosphere of the residence gives new students a firm grounding of life in Canada and prepares them for studies at the University of Manitoba.

c) General Recruitment

The College was present at the following recruiting events: the University of Manitoba Info Days, the University of Manitoba Parents' Program, University of Manitoba's Evening of Excellence, Brandon Career Symposium, and the Home Schooler's annual conference.

d) Orientation

The College offered a 24-hour orientation event called "JumpStart". The event was planned and run by College students in consultation with the Dean of Residence and the Registrar. The cost of JumpStart was $45.00 per person and included one night in Residence, meals and snacks. The students participated in icebreaker sessions, bowling, a photo safari (scavenger hunt) and an information session. Sixteen students registered for JumpStart this year. Our Dons' team and the nine student leaders who offered their time and commitment to the new students contributed greatly to the success of JumpStart, which has become the flagship of student-driven events at the College. Many thanks must go to Senior Stick Heather Krieger, Jessica Persson, and the team of leaders for a job very well done.

Student Services

We sold out our carrels this year and had a waiting list of about forty people. We also made use of room 110 as our silent study space for those without carrels. We held get-togethers and competitions in the carrels to bolster the carrel community and relieve stress.

Events

We held the following events this year, all of which were successful:

- JumpStart
- Beginning of Term BBQ
- Boo at the Zoo
- Coffee House in support of Plan Canada
- Clothing Drive for Siloam Mission
- Bisons Hockey Game
- Bowling
- CancerCare Bake Sale
- Karaoke at Q Karaoke
- Monthly TV/Movie Days

Other

Iggles Advocate put out four wonderful issues this year, Yearbook is on track to come out in April and our council for next year is about 75% complete.

The 2012 graduation dinner and dance was held at Bergman's on Lombard on March 24th, where Nicole Wruth gave the Valedictory Address and Prof. Dawne McCance was awarded the Fellow of the Year award. The Student Council did an excellent job of planning and promoting the event. The food was fantastic, as always, and this year's addition of a photo booth was a lot of fun.

f) Residence

It has been an eventful year in residence. We have had extensive renovations done on the residence washrooms this summer and we are in the process of doing further renovations on each room. The plan is to paint, install mirrored closet doors, and install laminate flooring in each room. We purchased and replaced all bed frames and mattresses in the building during the winter break and it has been an integral part in eliminating bed bugs. We continue to get monthly inspections for bed bugs but we have been “bed bug free” since the beginning of November.

The waiting list for housing at the University of Manitoba was 500 students and the demand is holding steady. We have a great working relationship with the Intensive English Program and they currently have 40 students in our building year-round, and they have additional rooms with us during the summer. During the fall semester we were at full capacity.

The Dons team for 2012-2013 was Nikolas Akkerman (Senior Don), Andrew Prest, Athea Fernandes and Wilson Wu (Junior Dons). The Co-Presidents of the Residence Council were Dion Nemez and Nelson Chen.

3. Academic Staff

In 2012, there were 37 Fellows, including the Warden, Dean of Studies, Dean of Theology, an Associate Dean of the Faculty of Arts, an Associate Dean of the Faculty of Environment, the Director of University 1, the Canada Research Chair in Western Canadian Social History, Canada Research Chair on Globalization and Cultural Studies, Canada Research Chair in Narrative, Community and Indigenous Cultures, The Stephen A. Jarislowsky Chair in the Modern History of the Middle East and North Africa, the Acting Coordinator of the Canadian Studies Program.

Riddell Faculty of Environment, Earth and Resources (5), and Science (1). Within the faculties, a number of departments are represented by the SJC Fellows: Architecture – Interior Design (1), Arts – Economics (1), English (5), History (10), Icelandic (1), Native Studies (2), Political Studies (2), Religion (3) and Sociology (1); Clayton H. Riddell Faculty of Environment – Geography (5).

Assembly elected Greg Bak (History), Jennifer Dueck (History), Fiona MacDonald (Political Studies), and Jeff Masuda (Environment and Geography) as Senior Fellows; Herbert Enns (Architecture) and Jonathan Peyton (Environment and Geography) as Visiting Fellows; Bryan Peeler (Political Studies), and Nicole Goulet (Religion) as Junior Fellows; Anne-Marie Dooner (Education), Erin Millions (History), Agnes Pawlowska (Native Studies), Laura Reimer (Peace and Conflict Studies), Robert Coutts (History), Heather Graham (History), and Susie Fisher Stoesz (History) as Research Fellows.

A brief survey of the Academic Awards and Publications of the College Fellows demonstrates the lively intellectual atmosphere that the College provides, as well as the variety of issues and subjects under scholarly scrutiny. The following lists present only a portion of the Fellows' work, largely in the area of publishing (both creative and academic) and reflect little of the ongoing teaching responsibilities in which Fellows continue to be recognized for their outstanding contributions to student learning. Of the current College Fellows, 21 have maintained an active presence in Canadian Studies, as evidenced by their participation in conferences and publications..

4. Administrative Staff

2012 saw a number of positive changes to the administrative team. Jill Stafford joined us in the role of Assistant to the Development Officer, and Justin Bouchard became our new Dean of Residence. Also, two of the administration staff had their roles expanded. Ian Park, our Food Services Manager, is now also our physical plant coordinator. This fills a big hole that was left after we lost our Conferences & Facilities Manager position a few years ago. Our Receptionist, Amy Craddock, is now also our Events Coordinator, and works closely with Ian to organize the many events and receptions held at St John's.

5. Academic Programs

Undergraduate Courses

Beginning in 2004, the College has attempted to develop a cohort of undergraduate students who make the College their academic home, and take the majority of their courses with College Fellows. The College remains committed to promoting a variety of Arts and Science courses for students within the College because, over time, this will promote the intimacy and collegiality among students that is core to our mission as a small college in the larger institutional university.

The University 1 program allows students undertaking their first 30 credit hours to explore a wide range of courses and programs across the University. The Robert B. Schultz Lecture Theatre at St John's College allows us to provide enough University 1 courses within the College that our students can do their entire first year programs "at home". Not only can we offer courses in the more traditional Arts and Science fields, but we now offer courses from the Faculties of Environment, Architecture and Kinesiology and Recreation Management. With the additional resource of our older 100-seat lecture theatre (Room 118) we can also offer courses from the Music faculty.

In 2012, the College worked with St Paul's College and University 1 to establish a Learning Community for incoming students. This project created a "College Section" of ARTS 1110 (Introduction to University) as a core course and then offered five additional course sections that the students could take together. The intention was to build a cohort of students who could learn together. Educational studies show that students who work in small group cohorts tend to be more successful at University (something St John's College has known for a long time!). The first small cohort entered in the Fall of 2012. We are currently assessing the lessons learned from our first year in this project.

The College has worked hard in cooperation with the Faculties to arrange that each of the College Fellows can offer their upper year courses within the College building. For the most part, this now means that we cover the disciplines of all the Fellows providing our students with an extraordinary range of possible courses.

Centre for Canadian Studies

In the 1970 agreement between the University and the Colleges, St John's was to select an area of emphasis in its academic programme: the College chose Canadian Studies. Since then, as far as possible, the College has sought to elect Fellows with an interest in the area. Of the current College Fellows, 21 have maintained an active presence in the area, as evidenced by their participation in conferences and publications, a partial list of which was included previously in this report.

As the 1970 agreement is currently interpreted, the College cannot on its own teach Canadian Studies: the undergraduate program must be housed and coordinated through a Faculty of the University. Canadian Studies is therefore a program of the Faculty of Arts. As of fall 2012, the Acting Coordinator of the Canadian Studies Program is College Fellow Prof. Barry Ferguson (History). For the past few years the Canadian Studies courses have been dormant in the Faculty of Arts. However, this year the Dean of Arts approached the College with the intention of revitalizing the course and extracurricular activities in Canadian Studies.

The College continues to use its Canadian Studies endowments to promote events such as the Western Canadian Studies Conference (hosted by the College in 2011) and the annual Marjorie Ward Lecture.

The College has developed an extensive art collection, primarily through donations from the artists. In 2012 the College received four major pieces of art: two from the estate of Rosemary Kowalski, one piece by George Jenkins, and of course the major installation by Adrian Schimnowski in the Galleria. The primary commitment is to collect contemporary Manitoba, Prairie Region, and Aboriginal art as well as works of quality from the Canadian historic period. The art collection at St John's College is a visible collection, hung in offices, classrooms, and public areas. Most of the works in the College have been permanently installed. The College also provides a gallery space, the Quiet Room Gallery, and often holds exhibitions during the academic year.

The library holdings of the College have a focus on Canadian literature, history and politics in both English and French. The major collection of French-Canadian literature at the University of Manitoba is centered at St John's College (see the Librarian's report below).

6. Faculty of Theology

At its meeting of November 28th 2012, after considerable discussion with representatives of Diocesan Executive during 2012, College Council made the decision to suspend Faculty of Theology operations for a period of two years.

Courses taught in 2012: New Testament Greek, Anglican History, Johannine Literature.

7. College Events

Marjorie Ward Lecture

In 2012 the Marjorie Ward Lecture, “All Our Relations: Curating the 18th Biennale of Sydney,” was delivered by Gerald McMaster. Born in Saskatchewan of Plains Cree and Blackfoot ancestry, McMaster is a member of the Siksika First Nation. Mr. McMaster is a prominent visual art curator, and is currently the curator of Canadian art at the Art Gallery of Ontario.

Soup and Bread Lectures/Brown Bag Lunches

We continue our traditional of lunchtime lectures, highlighting the work of Senior and Research Fellows at the College. In 2012, we also began hosting Brown Bag Lunches, which feature discussions with guests from outside the College and beyond the University of Manitoba, about pedagogy and the challenges facing university educators.

Celebrating Research

This year we organized two opportunities for Fellows to showcase their recent research, and share their work with College members, students, and the public. The first of these was a book table display of recent publications by our Fellows during Convocation in early November. This was followed later in November by a reception co-sponsored by the St John's College Library and the University of Manitoba Press.

Building Community

The annual End-of-Term and Opening-of-Term Barbeques for students, Fellows, and staff were held in April and in September. Closing and opening-of-term receptions for Fellows and staff were also held in the Faculty Lounge (now the Senior Common Room).

A Fellows and Staff Family Christmas Party, which included games, a magician, hot cocoa and cookies and a visit from St Nicholas (with presents!) was held on December 8, 2012.

Senior Common Room Legacy Project

With the commitment and support of College Fellows, staff and Administration, we have undertaken a project to revitalize the Senior Common Room. The Common Room is not only a space where Fellows and staff can eat the meals and enjoy each other's company; it is also a space where we come together to learn, share and build community. In 2012 we began the work of fundraising to refinish the Common Room's furniture, which was originally designed by Joan Harland, a former head of the University's department of Interior Design.

Matriculation

New members of the College are welcomed at our annual Matriculation ceremony, receive a College pin and sign the College membership book, which dates back to 1866. The ceremony was held on September 23, 2012.

Convocation

The 146th Annual Convocation was held on November 4, 2012 in the College Chapel of St John the Evangelist. The Warden, Dr Chris Trott, opened the proceedings. Dr. Verna J. Kirkness was given the degree of Doctor of Canon Law (honoris causa), and Dr. Janet Hoskins was given an Honorary Fellowship. Dr. Verna J. Kirkness presented the Convocation address.

One-hundred and sixty College members were acknowledged as graduates of the University of Manitoba.

The afternoon Convocation was preceded by the Commemoration of Founders and Benefactors chapel service and the Friends of St John's College Luncheon. At the luncheon, Nicole Wruth gave the "What St John's College means to me" speech. Nicole graduated with a Bachelor of Fine Arts.

8. Chapel

Regular chapel included Lent and Easter observances, noonday prayers and regular Sunday worship. Each week began with Monday Meditations at 8.00 am.

Monthly throughout the academic year the Chapel reaches out to the community with "Bible and Breakfast". Between 35 and 40 people gather to share worship, eat a hearty breakfast, and study and learn about the Bible. This year we have studied Wisdom Literature, the Books of Ruth and Deuteronomy, and the Foolishness of the Cross among other topics.

Caitlin Finch and Robert Swait were married on August 18th.

It was with great sorrow that we lost a faithful friend of St John's College, Mr. Ted Poulter, who also worshipped each Sunday with us. His funeral was held in the Chapel on December 18th.

As I conclude my work as Dean of Theology and Chaplain at St John's College in June, I wish to record my sincere appreciation for the support and interest of many friends, colleagues, students at St John's—they have made the last sixteen years memorable and I pray the College may grow and prosper in every way.

9. College Facilities

There were some fairly major renovation projects this year as we continue our efforts to renew the aging College facilities. Highlights include:

Espresso 101

- Newly painted, and updated menu board

Daily Bread Café renovation

- New concrete floor
- Upgraded electrical and lighting
- Re-painted

Residence

- Replaced all of the old bedframes with new, smaller footprint frames
- Replaced all mattresses to fit new frames

Within the timeframe covered in this report, the following were not yet completed but will be shortly:

- All residence rooms re-painted
- New flooring in all residence rooms
- Updated electrical in the residence

10. Food Services

Food service at St John's is enhanced by our respect for food and our commitment to our community. The vision of St John's Food Services team is to produce quality, nutritious, and flavourful food in an environment that recognizes all who contribute. We care about our guests - about what they like, and about their health. We are committed to continually evolve our business model to improve service, quality and efficiencies. This vision includes providing food services in a caring work environment that offers meaningful employment opportunities to all employees in a positive and caring atmosphere. This means good wages and benefits, access to training, and a shared role in decision-making. We encourage openness and creativity, and the sharing of thoughts, ideas, and new concepts. Our goal is for this environment to allow us to produce wholesome, fairly priced, ethnically diverse food options and service to the students and staff in the community, and supports and strengthens that relationship by recognizing their needs.

This year our revenues have risen again in all areas except for summer conferences which certainly held its own. This area is looking stronger again this upcoming summer.

The Daily Bread Café showed the most growth, and has benefited tremendously from a repair of the concrete floor, upgraded lighting and a fresh coat of paint.

Espresso 101 was also painted, and new tables now line the Galleria offering students a new place to study and enjoy a snack or beverage.

Our Residence meal service has gone tray-less, thanks to Justin Bouchard whose fresh look at our food services residence operation has been exceptionally helpful. Feeding our residence students is a labour of love and we all benefit from this group of diverse and gifted young people, who are really a pleasure to host while they attend to their studies.

Our Catering Services have been greatly enhanced with the expansion of Amy Craddock's role to now include event coordinator. Amy keeps the dialog between our clients and our catering service flowing in a well-organized and friendly manner, ensuring positive outcomes for all.

11. College Library

2012 was a busy year in St. John's College Library with a steady flow of students using the space for study and receiving help on a wide range of topics from the Library staff. Cathy and Amrit and our casuals are all extremely knowledgeable and very approachable and together they constitute an important resource for the College community.

This year we initiated a program of holding book events in the Library. In January Margaret Owen, a retired teacher and graduate of St. John's gave a reading from her new book The Home Front: Hopscotch and Heartache While Daddy was Away. We had a good turnout for that, about 15 people. The University Writer in Residence, Sally Ito, who is a poet and an Anglican, read from her latest book, Alert to Glory, and responded to questions from the audience. The event, on November 19, attracted 26 people to the Library.

We also hosted "Celebrating Research" a showcase for recent work by St. John's College Fellows and staff in late November. 35 people attended this event and wine and cheese were served. Several people said we should do it again.

The purpose of these events is to get people into the Library and to give the Library a more central role in the intellectual life of the College. The Library usually supplies coffee and tea and cookies for these events and in some cases the group also provides food.

The Library staff from both St. John's and St. Paul's Libraries participated in the joint bar-b-que put on by the Colleges in September. We put up a table with handouts and were able to chat with lots of students and faculty.

Our book budget of $44,000 was expended in good time. Many thanks for the excellent support given by Cathy Mudry. We have a French Literature Approval Plan-a profile maintained by a book wholesaler that results in books which meet certain parameters being delivered automatically to the library. This year I changed it and this has resulted in us receiving more titles by contemporary Quebec authors, an area that we want to make sure is kept up to date. We are continuing to weed duplicate titles from our books in the Libraries Annex and this makes room for us to move items that are not circulating from the library shelves to storage.

During Christmas exams, from December 3 to December 14 we kept the Library open until 2 a.m. as a study hall. The response was favorable and we will do this again in April, 2013. The physical space of the library has been enhanced this year with new staff desks and chairs.

12. Financial Overview

The 2010-2011 fiscal year ended with the following results:

Total revenues – $2,198,239

Total expenses – $2,222,029

Because of the separation of Theology from the rest of the College from a budget perspective, this resulted in a small surplus for Other Operations of $4,134 and a deficit for Theology of ($27,924).

The first 3 fiscal quarters of 2012 were positive, and we are optimistic of another surplus in Other Operations for the 2012-2013 budget year.

e) Quest For Consciousness

On the 23rd May, 2012 with many donors, alumni, UofM and College faculty and staff in attendance this magnificent sculpture was unveiled. A generous donation from Robert Richards, '65 and his wife Penny, allowed the College to commission local artist and UofM graduate Adrian Schimnowski to create artwork to enhance the space outside the Robert B. Schultz Lecture Theatre. The stunning sculpture stretches the length of the 23 foot curved wall and is constructed of wood, glass and cooper. Entitled Quest for Consciousness the work reflects the students quest for higher learning, to reach academic or work-related goals or for answers to spiritual questions. It allows the viewer to reflect on the significance of their own quest and the trials, revelations, struggles and joys which can lead to an opening of consciousness and transcendence.

f) The Development Committee

The Development Committee met once in 2012. The focus of the meeting was to discuss the possibility of entering into a Capital Campaign.

Members of the Committee are: Bill Regehr, Chair, Warden Chris Trott, Fellow Len Kuffert, Heather Richards '76, Bernie Beare '57, Fellow Gerry Friesen, Jim Ripley and Fellow Anthony Waterman, '62.

g) Stewardship

One trip was made to visit with donors, alumni and friends of St John's College. Chris Trott, Warden and Vice-Chancellor and Jackie Markstrom went to Vancouver and Victoria. Former Warden, Murdith McLean opened up his house for a reception.

Over the past year several personal visits were made by Jackie Markstrom and Chris Trott to many of the donors who have contributed to St John's College.

g) Friends of St John's College Convocation Luncheon

An annual event held prior to the Convocation ceremony is the Friends of St John's College luncheon which was held in the Galleria. The luncheon is a time for graduates, scholarship winners, honorary degree recipients and alumni to share St John's College stories and memories.

With close to 100 Johnians in attendance, Nicole Wruth gave the "What St John's College Means to Me" speech. We were please to have 5 J-pin recipients in attendance; the Venerable Gordon Payne celebrating 25 years, Melanie Hall and Garry Cavanagh celebrating 40 years, and A.M.C. Waterman, Andrew L. Henderson celebrating 50 years as a Grad.

Thank you to all our donors – Individuals, Corporate and Foundations – who have helped to make St John's College the smaller, caring, and kinder community it is.

A special “thank you” to the Staff of St John's College who have helped us in our endeavours over the past year, and to our Volunteers Sandra Anderson, Trevor Wideman, Lynard Higoy, Emem Ukpog and Yana Temkin.

We truly could not have done this without you all!
