HISTORY

The Jesuit Scholarship Fund was established by St. Paul's College and its Foundation as a way to honour all of the contributions that the Jesuits have made to St. Paul's in teaching, research, and service to the community. The Fund was created by reorganizing several other funds dedicated to Jesuit priests that existed previously in the Foundation to create a meaningful academic award for the College's students. The Jesuit Scholarship recognizes students who exemplify the values of Jesuit education through their commitment to academic excellence and service to others.
