

Student Advocacy- Academic Integrity Ambassador – Volunteer Application

- What is an Academic Integrity Ambassador?
 - The Academic Integrity Ambassador program is a student leadership program aimed at promoting academic integrity through student-led initiatives.
 - Ambassadors will have the opportunity to develop valuable career skills and experience in areas such as public speaking, marketing, networking and event coordination. Participation in the program will also be reflected on the Co-Curricular Record, and a letter of recommendation may be provided upon request.
 - Students will have the opportunity to work closely with Student Advocacy staff, shadow a Student Advocate, and learn about U of M policy and procedures related to academic integrity.
- What does an Academic Integrity Ambassador do?
 - Ambassadors will develop strategies and materials for marketing and promotion of academic integrity at the U of M, create/delivery workshops and presentations, plan and coordinate events, and liaise with departments, faculties, and students to determine academic integrity challenges and needs.
- Volunteers will be accepted for one of the following positions:
 - Marketing and Promotions
 - Excellent verbal and written communication skills
 - Experience with social media and metrics
 - An eye for visuals and preferably experience with design/marketing
 - Ability to think strategically
 - Event Planning & Coordination
 - Event planning experience necessary
 - Excellent verbal and written communication skills
 - Excellent multitasking skills
 - High attention to detail
 - Outreach & Student Liaison
 - Excellent interpersonal skills and comfort approaching new people
 - Ability to form relationships and adapt to new situations
 - Public speaking skills
 - Highly self-motivated
 - Educational Programming
 - Experience with creating presentations and written/visual materials
 - Interest and/or experience with research
 - Analytical and critical thinking skills
 - Public speaking skills

Eligibility:

Applicants must

- have completed a minimum of 18 credit hours of coursework at the U of M before September 2018.
- submit a resume and participate in a selection interview.
- be available to commit time on a weekly basis throughout September-April, as required by their roles/tasks. During October (Academic Integrity Month), there would be an expectation of more hours/week to coordinate or facilitate events and activities.

Student Advocacy- Academic Integrity Ambassador – Volunteer Application

Please complete the form below and email to Loie Gervais, Academic Integrity Coordinator at: Loie.Gervais@umanitoba.ca

DEADLINE: May 7, 2018

Application Form

| | |
|-------------------------------|-------------------|
| First Name: | Last Name: |
| U of M Student Number: | Email: |
| Phone: | |

I have attached my resume.

I authorize a representative from the Student Advocacy office to use the above student number to check my student history to verify my eligibility to apply.

Please rate your preference for each role from 1-4 (1 most preferred, 4 least preferred).

Marketing & Communications Event Planning & Coordination

Outreach & Student Liaison Educational Programming

Please summarize your experience and training in the following areas:

Event planning

Marketing/promotion/advertising

Public speaking

Student leadership

Research

Familiarity with U of M policies and regulations

Why do you think it is important for university students to be aware of academic integrity? What messages do you feel should be communicated to students?

Applicants will be contacted to set up an interview.